AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Complaint fails to state claims against SHMC upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Complaint does not give SHMC the necessary and appropriate notice of claims against it, which is a violation of SHMC's due process rights.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The injuries, if any, complained of in the Complaint were proximately caused by the acts or omissions of unknown third parties or other persons over whom SHMC exercised no control, and over whom SHMC had no right or duty to control, nor ever had a right or duty to exercise control.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The damages, if any, alleged were not the result of any acts of omission, or commission, or negligence, but were the result of a known risk which was consented to by Patient J.B. and his/her family/caregivers, such risks being inherent in the nature of the care rendered and such risks were assumed by Patient J.B. and his/her family/caregivers when they consented to treatment.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

In all medical care rendered by SHMC to Patient J.B., SHMC possessed and exercised that degree of skill and learning ordinarily possessed and exercised by the members of its profession in good standing, practicing in similar localities, and that at all times SHMC used reasonable care and diligence in the exercise of its skills and the application of its learning, and at all times acted according to its best judgment; that the medical treatment administered by SHMC was the usual and customary treatment for the physical condition and symptoms exhibited by Patient J.B. and that at no time was SHMC guilty of negligence or improper treatment, that, on the contrary, SHMC did perform each and every act of such treatment in a proper and efficient manner and in a manner most thoroughly approved and followed by the medical profession generally and under the circumstances and conditions as they existed when such medical attention was rendered.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

At all times mentioned in the Complaint, Patient J.B. was suffering from a medical condition(s) that SHMC did not cause, nor was SHMC responsible for said medical condition(s).

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Patient J.B.'s maladies and injuries, if any, were caused by inevitable disease processes and not by any act of this Respondent.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The injuries complained of in the Complaint, if any, were not the result of willful, malicious or deliberate conduct on the part of SHMC.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

SHMC denies each and every allegation of the Board's Complaint not specifically admitted or otherwise pled to herein.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

All possible Affirmative Defenses may not have been alleged herein insofar as sufficient facts were not available after reasonable inquiry upon the filing of SHMC's Answer, and therefore, SHMC reserves the right to amend its Answer to allege additional Affirmative Defenses if subsequent investigation warrants.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The damages, if any, alleged in the Board's Complaint are not the result of any acts of omission, commission, or negligence, but were the result of a known risk(s), which was consented to by Patient J.B.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

SHMC hereby incorporates by reference those affirmative defenses enumerated in NRCP 8 and 12, as if fully set forth herein. In the event further investigation or discovery reveals the applicability of any such defenses, Respondent reserves the right to seek leave of Court to amend her Answer to specifically assert any such defense(s). Such defenses are herein incorporated by reference for the specific purpose of not waiving any such defense.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

It has been necessary for SHMC to employ the services of an attorney to defend this action and a reasonable sum should be allowed to Respondent for attorneys' fees, together with costs of suit incurred herein.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, SHMC prays for judgment as follows:

1. That the Board takes nothing by virtue of its Complaint, and that all allegations against SHMC are dismissed with prejudice;

2. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein;

3. For costs and disbursements incurred herein; and

4. For such other and further relief as is just and proper.

J. David Wuest, in his official capacity as Executive Secretary of the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy, by and through counsel, Laura M. Tucker, Esq., and Summerlin Hospital Medical Center, License No. IA02194, ("Respondent"), by and through counsel, Jessica R. Gandy, Esq., hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

1. The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy ("Board") has jurisdiction over Respondent and this matter.

2. The Board's staff properly served Respondent with the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation ("Accusation") on file in this matter, together with the Statement to Respondent and Notice of Hearing.

3. Respondent is fully aware of the right to seek the advice of counsel in this matter and obtained the advice of counsel prior to entering into this Stipulation.

4. Respondent is aware of the right to a hearing on the matters alleged in the Accusation, the right to reconsideration, the right to appeal and any and all other rights which may be accorded pursuant to NRS Chapter 233B (Nevada Administrative Procedure Act), NRS Chapter 622A (Administrative Procedure Before Certain Regulatory Bodies), and NRS Chapter 639 (Nevada Pharmacy Act).

5. Conditioned on the acceptance of this Stipulation by the Board, and with the exception of the right to challenge any determination that Respondent has failed to comply with the provisions of this Stipulation, Respondent hereby knowingly and voluntarily waives the rights to a hearing, reconsideration, appeal and any and all other rights related to this action that may be accorded by NRS Chapter 233B (Nevada Administrative Procedure Act), NRS Chapter 622A (Administrative Procedure Before Certain Regulatory Bodies), and NRS Chapter 639 (Nevada Pharmacy Act).

6. For the purposes of resolving this matter, without admitting to the alleged facts or legal conclusions, Respondent acknowledges that Board staff prosecuting this case could present such evidence at an administrative hearing, to establish a factual basis for the violations alleged in the Accusation to wit the Board alleges as follows:

A. On or about May 5, 2025, Aurelia Hurtada-Sadowski (Hurtada-Sadowski), while employed as a pharmacist by Respondent, received a chart that did not contain complete information as required by NAC 639.484(1)(b),(c).

B. Hurtada-Sadowski engaged in unprofessional conduct as defined in NAC 639.945 when she failed to confer directly with a patient's health care provider and changed the chart order of the patient's health care provider.

C. Respondent's computer system would not allow Hurtada-Sadowski to release the chart order without making a change to the order.

D. Pursuant to NAC 639.945(3), a facility at which the unprofessional conduct and violations of law alleged herein is responsible for those violations, including all errors and omissions of a pharmacist or any other personnel in the course of violations of any law or regulation related to the practice of pharmacy., Accordingly, the Board may discipline Respondent for the alleged errors and omissions of Hurtada-Sadowski pursuant to NRS 639.210(4), NRS 639.255(1), NAC 639.945, and NAC 639.955.

7. Those alleged violations are pled with particularity in the Accusation and grounds for action pursuant to NRS 639.210 and NRS 639.255.

8. Now, therefore, to resolve the allegations stated in Count Two of the Accusation without incurring any further costs or the expenses associated with a hearing, the Board and Respondent agree to the imposition of the following penalties:

B. Respondent shall pay the sum of One Thousand Five Hundred and 00/100 Dollars ($1,500.00) to partially reimburse the Board for recoverable attorney's fees and costs incurred in investigating and prosecuting this matter. This sum shall be payable by personal, business, certified or cashier's check or money order written to the "Nevada State Board of Pharmacy." Respondent shall remit payment in full to the Board's Reno office, located at 985 Damonte Ranch Parkway, Suite 206, Reno, Nevada 89521, within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this Stipulation.

C. Within 60 days of the date of the order, Respondent must provide the Board staff with a copy of its updated policy related to the hospital's medication order policy, including the ordering of IV Push medications and how pharmacists proceed with incorrect or incomplete medication orders.

9. Any failure by Respondent to comply with the terms of this Order may result in issuance by the Executive Secretary of an order to show cause pursuant to NAC 639.965 directing Respondent to appear before the Board at the next regularly scheduled meeting for a show cause hearing. If such a hearing results in a finding of a violation of this Order by Respondent, the Board may impose additional discipline upon Respondent not inconsistent with the provisions of NRS Chapters 453 and 639.

10. This Stipulation does not represent any admission of liability, fault, or wrongdoing by Respondent.

11. General Counsel will present this Stipulation to the Board for approval pursuant to NRS 622.330 at the Board's regularly scheduled public meeting on July 15, 2026. Respondent, by and through counsel of record, will appear at the meeting to answer questions from the Board Members and/or Board Staff. The Board Members and Staff may discuss and deliberate regarding this Stipulation, even if Respondent or counsel are not present at the meeting.

12. The Board has discretion to accept this Stipulation, but it is not obligated to do so. If this Stipulation is approved by the Board, it shall be a public record pursuant to NRS 622.330 and shall be reported to the National Practitioner Data Bank pursuant to 42 USC § 1396r–2 and 45 CFR Part 60, and shall be further reported pursuant to NAC 639.960.

J. David Wuest, in his official capacity as Executive Secretary of the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy, files the following document that will serve as both a notice of intended action under NRS 233B.127(3) and an accusation under NRS 622A.300(1) and NRS 639.241.

JURISDICTION

1. The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy ("Board") has jurisdiction over this matter because, at the time of the events alleged herein, Respondent Aurelia Hurtada-Sadowski, RPh, (Hurtada-Sadowski), Certificate of Registration No. 15345, was a pharmacist licensed by the Board, and Respondent Summerlin Hospital Medical Center (Summerlin Hospital), License No. IA02194, was registered as a pharmacy by the Board.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

2. Hurtada-Sadowski was employed as a pharmacist at Summerlin Hospital, located at 653 N. Town Center Drive in Las Vegas, at the time of the events alleged herein.

3. On May 5, 2025, patient J.B. arrived at the emergency department of Summerlin Hospital and reported that she was experiencing symptoms of an acute multiple sclerosis flare up.

4. Alexander Payne, MD, (Payne) was the medical practitioner on duty when patient J.B. arrived.

5. Patient J.B. informed Payne that she wanted to be treated with Solu-Medrol (methylprednisolone). Patient J.B. told Payne that she had had an allergic reaction to Solu-Medrol in the past, but that she had been able to tolerate it when pre-treated with Benadryl.

6. After consultation with patient J.B., Payne submitted an order for methylprednisolone 125 mg administered via IV piggyback along with Benadryl 50 mg 1 ML administered via IV push.

7. When submitting the order, Payne did not enter into the patient's chart that she had a known allergy to methylprednisolone and did not include any other notes. The order also did not contain a diluent or volume, as is required for an IV piggyback.

8. Hurtada-Sadowski was the pharmacist on duty at the time Payne submitted the order. While Hurtada-Sadowski was processing the order, she received a prompt generated by the computer system indicating that an IV push was the standard practice for methylprednisolone 125 mg.

9. Because the chart order was incomplete, Summerlin Hospital's system would not allow Hurtada-Sadowski to release the product without making a change.

10. Hurtada-Sadowski did not contact or notify Payne about the missing information regarding administration route or lack of accompanying notations and changed the order for methylprednisolone to IV push instead of IV piggyback to reflect the computer's prompting.

11. Registered Nurse George Maldonado (Maldonado) received the order back from Hurtada-Sadowski and pushed 0.55 cc of methylprednisolone over 30 seconds, then paused to assess.

12. After the initial medication push, patient J.B. reported anaphylactic symptoms, and Maldonado contacted Payne, who began treating patient J.B. for anaphylaxis.

13. Despite intervention, patient J.B. was placed on life support that night. She was not taken off life support and died two days later, on May 7, 2025. The cause of death was listed as multisystem organ failure due to cardiac arrest secondary to anaphylaxis.

14. Summerlin Hospital terminated Hurtada-Sadowski a few months later.

PRIOR DISCIPLINE

15. In December 2008, the Board disciplined an employee of Respondent Summerlin Hospital for diversion of controlled substances, resulting in the revocation of the employee's license.

16. In April 2008, the Board disciplined Respondent Summerlin Hospital for the death of an infant patient because of drug overdose, resulting in a $10,000 fine to Respondent Summerlin Hospital.

APPLICABLE LAW

17. Medical facilities must have original chart orders that contain, among other information, the name of the drug, its strength, and the route of administration, as well as directions for use of the drug. NAC 639.484(1)(b),(c).

18. Pursuant to NAC 639.753, a pharmacist may use his or her professional judgment to reasonably decline to fill a prescription after speaking with the prescribing practitioner in a timely manner to discuss and resolve the concerns the pharmacist has regarding the prescription.

19. Pharmacists have a duty to exercise independent judgment regarding patient care pursuant to NAC 639.753.

20. Unprofessional conduct includes a registrant performing his or her duties in an "incompetent, unskillful, or negligent manner." NAC 639.945(1)(i). The Board may suspend or revoke any certificate, license, registration or permit if the holder is guilty of unprofessional conduct or conduct contrary to the public interest. NRS 639.210(4).

21. Any violation of any of the provisions of NRS Chapter 639 by a managing pharmacist or by personnel of the pharmacy is cause for the suspension or revocation of the license by the Board. NRS 639.230(5); NAC 639.702. Furthermore, the owner of any business or facility licensed, certified or registered by the Board is responsible for the acts of all personnel in his or her employ. NAC 639.945(3).

22. The Board may discipline a licensee who has violated any provisions of a regulation relating to the practice of pharmacy. NRS 639.210(12).

23. In lieu of, or in addition to, revoking or suspending a license holder's registration for violating the law or engaging in unprofessional conduct, the Board may impose fines as a disciplinary measure. See NRS 639.255; NAC 639.955.

COUNT ONE
Unprofessional Conduct by a Pharmacist – Failure to Confer with Healthcare Provider (Respondent Hurtada-Sadowski)

24. As alleged above, on or about May 5, 2025, Respondent Hurtada-Sadowski received a chart that did not contain complete information as required by NAC 639.484(1)(b),(c).

25. Re: REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION AND APPEAL Case No. 25-146-S Cease-and-Desist Order, Citation & Fine – Issued October 31, 2025

Dear Members of the Board:

I am writing in formal response and appeal to the Cease-and-Desist Order, Citation, and $5,000 administrative fine issued on October 31, 2025.

Carolina Skin Care is a cosmetology establishment licensed and regulated exclusively by the Nevada State Board of Cosmetology. We do not perform, direct, supervise, or facilitate any medical procedures and have never held or required a pharmacy license.

Key Facts

1. All Medications Found in the Refrigerator and Cabinet Belonged Exclusively to Marika Kerr, APRN The prescription and dangerous drugs discovered in the refrigerator and in a cabinet during the Board's inspection were owned, procured, and placed there exclusively by Marika Kerr, APRN — a Nevada-licensed advanced practice registered nurse with full prescribing authority. Because some of these medications required refrigeration and others needed secure storage, Ms. Kerr personally placed them in the refrigerator and a designated cabinet for use only when she performed injectable aesthetic procedures on Carolina Skin Care clients.

2. Carolina Skin Care Never Purchased, Owned, or Exercised Control Over Any Medications Carolina Skin Care and its cosmetology-licensed employees have never purchased, owned, or exercised control over any prescription or dangerous drugs. The medications were present solely because they belonged to Ms. Kerr and were stored under her direction and responsibility.

3. All Medical Services Performed 100% by Marika Kerr, APRN Every medical assessment, prescribing decision, preparation, and administration of medication was performed independently by Ms. Kerr. Carolina Skin Care's role was limited to scheduling its own clients and providing the treatment room and storage access to Ms. Kerr.

4. No Representation as a Medical Practice or Pharmacy Carolina Skin Care has never held itself out as a medical practice or pharmacy.

In light of these facts, Carolina Skin Care did not purchase, store for business purposes, possess for dispensing, or administer dangerous drugs and therefore did not violate NRS Chapter 639. We respectfully request that the Board reconsider and dismiss both the citation and the $5,000 administrative fine.

We remain fully prepared to provide supporting documentation (including verification of Ms. Kerr's licensure and staff affidavits) and welcome an unannounced compliance inspection at any time.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Carolina Molina

5. On or about November 19, 2025, Molina appealed the Citation and Fine and requested a hearing before the Board.

NEVADA STATE BOARD OF PHARMACY, Petitioner, v. KENT HOLTORF, Respondent.	CASE NO. 25-289-C-O STATEMENT TO THE RESPONDENT AND NOTICE OF HEARING

TO THE RESPONDENT ABOVE-NAMED: PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT:

Pursuant to the authority and jurisdiction conferred upon the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy (Board) by NRS 639.2895 and NRS 233B.121-.126, inclusive, on or about February 20, 2026, an Order to Cease-and-Desist/Citation and Fine was served upon Respondent Kent Holtorf, owner/operator of Holtorf Medical Group, alleging violations of Nevada law as set forth herein.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

1. Holtorf owns and operates Holtorf Medical Group, located at 2232 E. Maple Avenue in El Segundo, California, and is not a Nevada-licensed practitioner.

2. On or about July 11 through July 13, 2025, Holtorf operated a booth at the Revolution Against Aging and Death (RAAD) Festival at Red Rock Resort and Casino in Las Vegas.

3. Holtorf and/or employees and/or agents of Holtorf Medical Group, including without limitation Han Bao Nguyen and Michael McNeal, who are not Nevada-licensed practitioners, and Darrell Linders, who was not registered with the Board at the time of the RAAD Festival, independently purchased, stored, accessed and possessed an inventory of dangerous drugs, including hypodermic devices, without direct practitioner supervision.

4. Holtorf and/or employees and/or agents of Holtorf Medical Group, including without limitation Han Bao Nguyen, Michael McNeal and Darrell Linders, independently accessed, possessed, compounded, furnished and/or administered dangerous drugs, including hypodermic devices, to patients, and provided on-site medical treatment at Holtorf's booth at RAAD Festival, including the administration of dangerous drugs by injection, and including, without limitation, MOTS-c 5mg, P21 2.5mg, BPC-157 2.5mg, TB4 2.5mg, Humanin, B-12, ACE-31, and CJC peptides, without direct practitioner supervision, to patients with whom no practitioner had established a bona fide therapeutic relationship, and for whom no practitioner had diagnosed or determined that a dangerous drug was medically necessary.

5. Holtorf conspired with Han Bao Nguyen, Michael McNeal and Darrell Linders, and/or other employees and/or agents of Holtorf Medical Group, to compound, furnish and/or administer dangerous drugs including the administration of dangerous drugs by injection, to patients in Las Vegas without obtaining the appropriate certificates, licenses and/or permits from the Board.

6. The investigation revealed evidence that Holtorf and/or employees and/or agents of Holtorf Medical Group, purchased drug products, including, without limitation, MOTS-c 5mg, P21 2.5mg, BPC-157 2.5mg, TB4 2.5mg, Humanin, B-12, ACE-31, and CJC peptides, through Forgotten Formula PMA. Forgotten Formula PMA, located in Justin TX, is not licensed to engage in business as a wholesaler in Nevada.

7. On or about July 12 and 13, patient C.R. received two separate injections from Holtorf's booth. On July 13, patient C.R. experienced an adverse medical reaction to the drugs and had to be intubated and transported to a local hospital by emergency medical services.

8. On or about July 13, patient A.T. received two injections from Holtorf's booth and experienced an adverse medical reaction. Patient A.T. had to be intubated and transported to local hospitals by emergency medical services.

9. On or about March 19, 2026, Holtorf appealed the Citation and Fine and requested a hearing before the Board.

NEVADA STATE BOARD OF PHARMACY, a Nevada Agency, Petitioner, vs. KENT HOLTORF, Respondent.	Case No.: 25-289-C-O

RESPONDENT'S ANSWER TO COMPLAINT

COMES NOW, Respondent KENT HOLTORF ("Respondent" or "Dr. Holtorf"), by and through his counsel of record, Chandon S. Alexander, Esq. of the SPARTACUS LAW FIRM, and in response to the Statement to the Respondent and Notice of Hearing filed by the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy ("Board") on or about April 6, 2026 (the "Complaint"), answers as follows. By filing this Answer, Respondent does not waive, and expressly preserves, all jurisdictional, constitutional, statutory, and procedural defenses, including but not limited to those set forth in the affirmative defenses below and any concurrently or subsequently filed Motion to Dismiss.

JURISDICTION

Respondent denies that the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy has subject-matter jurisdiction over Respondent or over the substances and conduct described in the Complaint.

Respondent is not now, and was not at any relevant time, licensed by the Board, registered with the Board, or otherwise required to obtain a license, certificate, or permit from the Board. Respondent is a California-domiciled professional. The substances forming the gravamen of the Complaint—MOTS-c, P21, BPC-157, TB4 (Thymosin Beta-4 fragment), Humanin, ACE-31, and CJC peptides—are not "dangerous drugs" as that term is defined in NRS 454.201, are not approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration ("FDA") for general distribution, do not bear the federally mandated "Rx only" legend, are not Gerovital H3 or amygdalin (laetrile), and have not been classified as prescription-only by Board regulation. The conduct of administering injections is not the practice of pharmacy, and is therefore outside the Board's regulatory authority under NRS Chapter 639. To the extent the Complaint purports to charge violations of NRS 200.820 and NRS 200.840, those provisions are part of Title 15 (Crimes and Punishments) and are enforceable only by the Office of the Attorney General or the appropriate district attorney; they confer no enforcement authority on the Board. The remaining allegations in the introductory paragraphs of the Complaint state only legal conclusions for which no answer is required.

RESPONSE TO FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

1. In response to Paragraph 1, Respondent admits that he owns and operates Holtorf Medical Group, located at 2232 E. Maple Avenue in El Segundo, California, and admits that he is not a Nevada-licensed practitioner.

2. In response to Paragraph 2, Respondent admits that on or about July 11 through July 13, 2025, Holtorf Medical Group operated a booth at the Revolution Against Aging and Death (RAAD) Festival at Red Rock Resort and Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada, but otherwise denies the allegations of this paragraph.

3. In response to Paragraph 3, Respondent denies the allegations as framed. The allegations are pled in the alternative ("Holtorf and/or employees and/or agents") and fail to identify with particularity what Respondent personally is alleged to have done. Respondent denies that he personally purchased, stored, accessed, or possessed any inventory of "dangerous drugs" or hypodermic devices "without direct practitioner supervision" within the meaning of any applicable Nevada statute. Respondent further denies that the substances at issue qualify as "dangerous drugs" under NRS 454.201. Respondent lacks information sufficient to admit or deny the precise allegations regarding the licensure and registration status of Han Bao Nguyen, Michael McNeal, and Darrell Linders at the time of the RAAD Festival, and on that basis denies the same. To the extent Paragraph 3 asserts vicarious liability without any underlying predicate of personal misconduct by Respondent, Respondent denies the legal sufficiency of such allegations.

4. In response to Paragraph 4, Respondent denies the allegations. Respondent personally did not access, possess, compound, furnish, or administer any dangerous drug to any patient, did not personally perform any injection on any patient, and did not personally provide on-site medical treatment at the RAAD Festival booth in the manner alleged. Respondent further denies that the substances enumerated—MOTS-c 5mg, P21 2.5mg, BPC-157 2.5mg, TB4 2.5mg, Humanin, ACE-31, and CJC peptides—are "dangerous drugs" within the meaning of NRS 454.201. Respondent admits only that B-12 (cyanocobalamin) injection is an FDA-approved prescription drug. Respondent denies the remaining allegations of this paragraph.

5. In response to Paragraph 5, Respondent denies that he conspired with Han Bao Nguyen, Michael McNeal, Darrell Linders, or any other person to compound, furnish, or administer any dangerous drug to any patient in Las Vegas without the appropriate certificates, licenses, or permits. Respondent denies that any "conspiracy" existed within the meaning of any applicable Nevada law.

6. In response to Paragraph 6, Respondent admits only that certain products were sourced from Forgotten Formula PMA. Respondent lacks information sufficient to admit or deny the licensing status of Forgotten Formula PMA in the State of Nevada and on that basis denies the same. Respondent affirmatively states that the substances purchased through Forgotten Formula PMA are not FDA-approved drugs, do not bear an "Rx only" legend, are not subject to USP monographs, and are not prescription drugs within the meaning of federal or Nevada law. Respondent therefore denies that any "wholesale distribution" of "prescription drugs" occurred within the meaning of 21 U.S.C. § 353(e)(1)(A), 21 CFR Part 205, or NRS 639.0155.

7. In response to Paragraph 7, Respondent admits only that on or about July 12 and 13, 2025, an individual identified by the Board as patient C.R. attended the RAAD Festival and visited Holtorf Medical Group's booth. Respondent denies that he personally administered any injection to patient C.R. Respondent lacks information sufficient to admit or deny the precise medical course of treatment patient C.R. received at the hospital following any reaction, and on that basis denies the same. Respondent denies, on the basis of available medical information, that any drug or substance administered at the booth was the proximate cause of any adverse medical reaction reported by patient C.R.

8. In response to Paragraph 8, Respondent admits only that on or about July 13, 2025, an individual identified by the Board as patient A.T. attended the RAAD Festival and visited Holtorf Medical Group's booth. Respondent denies that he personally administered any injection to patient A.T. Respondent lacks information sufficient to admit or deny the precise medical course of treatment patient A.T. received and on that basis denies the same. Respondent denies that any drug or substance administered at the booth was the proximate cause of any adverse medical reaction reported by patient A.T.

9. In response to Paragraph 9, Respondent admits that on or about March 19, 2026, he timely appealed the Board's Order to Cease-and-Desist/Citation and Fine and timely requested a hearing before the Board.

RESPONSE TO APPLICABLE LAW (PARAGRAPHS 10–19)

The allegations of Paragraphs 10 through 19 of the Complaint state only legal conclusions and recitations of statutory text for which no answer is required. To the extent any response is required, Respondent denies the legal applicability of the cited authorities to the conduct alleged and denies that the Board's recitation of those authorities accurately characterizes the law in all material respects. Respondent specifically denies that the substances at issue are "dangerous drugs" within the meaning of NRS 454.201, that Respondent personally engaged in any conduct within the prohibitory scope of NRS 454.213, NRS 454.217, NRS 454.221, NRS 454.316, NRS 454.321, NRS 454.356, NRS 454.510, NRS 200.820, NRS 200.840, NRS 639.100, NRS 639.233, NRS 639.268, NRS 639.285, or NRS 639.595, that the federal authorities cited (21 U.S.C. §§ 360eee-1, 331(t), 353(e)(1)(A); 21 CFR Part 205) provide an enforceable predicate for Board action against Respondent under Nevada law, and that the Board has subject-matter jurisdiction to adjudicate violations of Title 15 of the NRS or violations of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

RESPONSE TO COUNT ONE (PARAGRAPH 20)

In response to Count One, Respondent denies the allegations of Paragraph 20 in their entirety. Respondent denies that he personally purchased, stored, accessed, or possessed any

"dangerous drug" or hypodermic device in violation of NRS 454.213, NRS 454.316, NRS 454.510, NRS 639.100(1), NRS 639.268(1)(a), NAC 639.757(4), or NAC 639.757(5). Respondent affirmatively states that NRS 639.268(1)(a) and NAC 639.757(4) and (5) by their terms apply only to Nevada-licensed practitioners and to pharmacies, respectively, and Respondent is neither.

RESPONSE TO COUNT TWO (FIRST PARAGRAPH 21)

In response to Count Two, Respondent denies the allegations of the first Paragraph 21 in their entirety. Respondent denies that he personally compounded, furnished, or administered any dangerous drug, including by injection, to any patient at the RAAD Festival in violation of NRS 200.840(1), NRS 454.213, NRS 454.217, NRS 454.221, NRS 454.316, NRS 454.321, NRS 454.356, NRS 454.510, NRS 639.100(1), or NRS 639.285. Respondent affirmatively states that NRS 200.840(1) is a criminal statute beyond the Board's enforcement authority, NRS 454.217 applies only to neuromodulators derived from Clostridium botulinum and has no application to peptide therapies, and NRS 639.285 prohibits the sale of prescription drugs by unlicensed persons and the Complaint nowhere alleges any "sale" of any prescription drug.

RESPONSE TO COUNT THREE (SECOND PARAGRAPH 21)

In response to Count Three, Respondent denies the allegations of the second Paragraph 21 in their entirety. Respondent denies that he engaged in or aided and abetted any unlicensed wholesale distribution in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 360eee-1, 21 U.S.C. § 331(t), 21 U.S.C. § 353(e)(1)(A), 21 CFR Part 205, NRS 639.100, NRS 639.233(1), or NRS 639.595. Respondent affirmatively states that the cited federal authorities (DSCSA and the federal wholesale distribution regulations) regulate the distribution of FDA-approved prescription drugs in interstate commerce and do not, by their terms, reach the substances at issue, which are unapproved and lack the regulatory status of "prescription drugs" or "products" within the meaning of those federal authorities.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

As separate and distinct affirmative defenses, Respondent alleges as follows:

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Lack of Subject-Matter Jurisdiction)

The Board lacks subject-matter jurisdiction over the substances at issue because none of them is a "dangerous drug" within the meaning of NRS 454.201. NRS 454.201 defines "dangerous drug" as (1) any FDA-approved drug bearing the legend "Rx only," (2) Gerovital H3 or amygdalin (laetrile), or (3) any drug classified as prescription-only by Board regulation because the Board has found it to be dangerous to public health or safety. MOTS-c, P21, BPC-157, TB4, Humanin, ACE-31, and CJC peptides are not FDA-approved for general distribution; do not bear the "Rx only" legend; are not Gerovital H3 or laetrile; and have not been classified by Board regulation as prescription-only. As the FDA itself has acknowledged, peptides such as BPC-157, MOTS-c, TB4, and CJC-1295—having been removed from Category 2 of the interim 503A bulks list—are not currently on any FDA bulks list permitting compounding. Without a "dangerous drug" predicate, the entirety of NRS 454.213, 454.221, 454.316, 454.321, 454.356, and 639.268 cannot apply.

Further, the Board's jurisdiction extends only to the practice of pharmacy, the wholesale distribution of drugs, and related pharmaceutical activities under NRS Chapter 639. The administration of medical treatment by injection at a clinical booth—the conduct alleged—is the practice of medicine, not pharmacy, and falls within the exclusive disciplinary jurisdiction of the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners or, where alleged criminal conduct is at issue, the office of the Attorney General. See NRS Chapter 630; NRS 630.400. The Board may not arrogate to itself enforcement authority over the practice of medicine. The Nevada Legislature has assigned regulatory authority over the practice of medicine to the Board of Medical Examiners under NRS Chapter 630, not to this Board. NRS 630.020 defines the "practice of medicine" to include "diagnos[ing], treat[ing], correct[ing], prevent[ing] or prescrib[ing] for any human disease, ailment, injury, infirmity, deformity or other condition, physical or mental, by any means or instrumentality," and the application of "principles or techniques of medical science in the diagnosis or the prevention of any such conditions." NRS 630.045 vests the Board of Medical Examiners with authority to license and discipline physicians, and NRS 630.400 makes the unauthorized practice of medicine a criminal offense prosecutable by the Office of the Attorney General. NRS 639.0124, by contrast, defines the "practice of pharmacy" through enumerated subsections that concern only the handling, preparation, evaluation, and information aspects of drugs; manufacturing, compounding, labeling, dispensing, distributing, interpreting prescriptions; advising on therapeutic value, selecting drug sources, and documenting distribution. None of these subsections reaches the medical act of administering a substance to a patient as treatment, except under narrow statutory delegations to pharmacists (e.g., NAC 639.2971 governing immunizations under written physician protocol) inapplicable here.

The Complaint's own framing repeatedly betrays that the conduct at issue is the practice of medicine, not pharmacy. Paragraph 4 alleges that Respondent "provid[ed] on-site medical treatment" and that the substances were administered "to patients with whom no practitioner had established a bona fide therapeutic relationship, and for whom no practitioner had diagnosed or determined that a dangerous drug was medically necessary." Paragraphs 7 and 8 describe patients who experienced "adverse medical reaction[s]" requiring emergency intubation and hospital transport. Each of these allegations sounds exclusively in the practice of medicine. A "bona fide therapeutic relationship," "diagnosis," "medical necessity," and "treatment" are physician acts within the exclusive purview of NRS Chapter 630, not pharmacy functions within NRS Chapter 639. The Board cannot transmute medical-practice allegations into pharmacy-practice violations by appending pharmacy statutory citations. To the extent the Complaint alleges that Respondent or his agents practiced medicine in Nevada without a Nevada medical license, the appropriate enforcement forum is the Board of Medical Examiners under NRS Chapter 630 or criminal prosecution under NRS 630.400—not a Pharmacy Board enforcement action under NRS 639.2895. This Board lacks subject-matter jurisdiction to adjudicate the medical merits of Respondent's clinical conduct, and any attempt to do so would require findings on diagnosis, therapeutic appropriateness, and standard-of-care matters that fall beyond the statutory competence and expertise of a board composed predominantly of pharmacists under NRS 639.030.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Failure to State a Claim)

NRS 454.217 governs only the injection of "a neuromodulator that is derived from Clostridium botulinum or is biosimilar to or the bioequivalent of such a neuromodulator"—commonly known as botulinum toxin or "Botox" and its analogs. Not one of the substances at issue—MOTS-c, P21, BPC-157, TB4, Humanin, B-12, ACE-31, or CJC peptides—is derived from Clostridium botulinum or is biosimilar or bioequivalent to any such neuromodulator. NRS 454.217 has no application to this case as a matter of law, and any reliance on it must be stricken or dismissed.

NRS 200.840 is a criminal statute located in Title 15 of the NRS (Crimes and Punishments) and prohibits the unlicensed performance of a "surgical procedure" as a category C felony, prosecutable only by the Attorney General or appropriate district attorney. The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy has no authority to enforce, charge, or adjudicate violations of NRS 200.840 or its definitional companion NRS 200.820. Even if the Board possessed enforcement authority, which it does not, the legislative intent of NRS 200.820 and 200.840 was directed at unlicensed persons performing cosmetic and invasive surgical procedures, not at routine therapeutic injections, which are administered every day across Nevada by licensed registered nurses, medical assistants, and other healthcare workers under appropriate supervision. Construing "any minimally invasive medical procedure where a break in the skin is created" to encompass every therapeutic injection would render countless lawful clinical activities felonies and is plainly contrary to legislative intent.

NRS 639.268(1)(a) governs the conditions under which a Nevada-licensed practitioner may purchase supplies of dangerous drugs for office administration to patients. By its terms, the statute applies only to Nevada-licensed practitioners. Respondent is not a Nevada-licensed practitioner and therefore is not subject to the requirements of NRS 639.268(1)(a). The Board cannot fault Respondent for failing to comply with a statutory framework that, by its plain terms, does not apply to him.

NAC 639.757 governs "preparation and sale of compounded drugs by pharmacy or pharmacist." Subsections (4) and (5) impose conditions on compounding by pharmacies and pharmacists. Respondent is not a pharmacy and is not a pharmacist. He owns and operates a medical practice, not a pharmacy. NAC 639.757 has no application to him as a matter of law.

NRS 639.285 prohibits an unlicensed person from "sell[ing], display[ing] or offer[ing] for sale a prescription drug." The Complaint nowhere alleges that Respondent sold any prescription drug to any consumer. The conduct alleged—on-site administration of substances during medical consultations—does not constitute a "sale" of a prescription drug within the meaning of NRS 639.285. The provision of medical services that include the administration of substances is materially distinct from the sale of those substances at retail.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Federal Preemption)

The federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, 21 U.S.C. § 301 et seq., vests in the FDA primary jurisdiction over the regulation of new drugs, including unapproved peptides, and over the bulk drug substances permitted for compounding under Sections 503A and 503B. The FDA has expressly considered the substances at issue (or substances within their class) and has, as of April 2026, removed BPC-157, MOTS-c, TB4, and CJC-1295 from Category 2 of the interim 503A bulks list, with PCAC review pending. State boards may not second-guess or impose disciplinary consequences inconsistent with the FDA's evolving regulatory determinations on these substances. To the extent the Board's enforcement action conflicts with or stands as an obstacle to the federal regulatory scheme governing unapproved drugs and compounding, the Board's action is preempted by federal law under the Supremacy Clause, U.S. Const., art. VI, cl. 2.

The Drug Supply Chain Security Act, 21 U.S.C. § 360eee-1, and the federal wholesale distribution provisions, 21 U.S.C. § 353(e)(1)(A) and 21 CFR Part 205, regulate the distribution of FDA-approved prescription drugs and "products" as those terms are defined in federal law. The substances at issue are not FDA-approved prescription drugs and do not constitute "products" within the meaning of the DSCSA. The Board's attempt to predicate state disciplinary action on alleged violations of these federal authorities exceeds the scope of those federal authorities and is therefore preempted to the extent it conflicts with the federal regulatory scheme.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Void for Vagueness)

NRS 454.201 is unconstitutionally vague as applied to the conduct charged. Subsection (3) of NRS 454.201 reaches "[a]ny drug which, pursuant to the Board's regulations, may be sold only by prescription because the Board has found those drugs to be dangerous to public health or safety," but the Complaint does not identify any Board regulation classifying any of the peptides at issue as a "dangerous drug." Without an underlying regulation, a person of ordinary intelligence has no way of knowing what substances are "dangerous drugs" beyond the FDA-approved drugs identified in subsection (1) and the two specific substances named in subsection (2). The statute thus fails to provide fair notice and invites arbitrary and discriminatory enforcement, in violation of the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment and Article 1, Section 8 of the Nevada Constitution. The Board's effort to expand the definition of "dangerous drug" by litigation, without rulemaking, is itself a void-for-vagueness problem.

To the extent the Board relies on the broader definition of "drug" in NRS 639.007, that statute is unconstitutionally vague as applied. Subsections (2) and (3) of NRS 639.007 extend to "[a]rticles and devices intended for use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment or prevention of disease in humans or other animals" and "[a]rticles, other than food, aspirin and effervescent saline analgesics, intended to affect the structure or any function of the body of humans or other animals." The statute provides no definition of "intended," no guidance as to whose intent governs (the manufacturer's, the seller's, the prescriber's, the user's), and no objective standard for how intent is to be proven. Read literally, these provisions could reach water, exercise equipment, and innumerable other "articles." Without limiting principles, the statute fails to provide ordinary persons fair notice of what it prohibits and invites arbitrary, discriminatory, and viewpoint-based enforcement. To the extent the Board relies on NRS 639.007 to bootstrap jurisdiction over substances that fall outside the narrower "dangerous drug" definition of NRS 454.201, that reliance violates due process.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(No Personal Misconduct or Vicarious Liability)

The Complaint pleads in the alternative that "Holtorf and/or employees and/or agents" engaged in the alleged misconduct. Respondent did not personally perform or authorize any of the injections alleged. Respondent did not personally administer or authorize the administration of any substance to patient C.R., patient A.T., or any other patient at the RAAD Festival. To the extent the Board seeks to impose discipline on Respondent under a theory of vicarious liability, that approach is impermissible in a disciplinary proceeding, where personal participation in misconduct is required as a matter of due process and statutory construction. The Board's burden is to prove by a preponderance of admissible evidence that Respondent personally engaged in conduct violating Nevada law. Respondent denies any such personal conduct.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Failure to Provide Adequate Notice — Due Process)

The Complaint violates Respondent's right to procedural due process under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and Article 1 of the Nevada Constitution by failing to provide adequate notice of the charges against him. The Complaint alleges in the alternative against Respondent and unidentified "employees and/or agents," fails to specify which acts Respondent personally is alleged to have committed, fails to identify a single Board regulation classifying the substances at issue as "dangerous drugs," and recites a litany of statutes—including criminal statutes (NRS 200.840) and statutes that by their terms do not apply to Respondent (NRS 454.217, NRS 639.268)—without explaining how Respondent's conduct violates each. See Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 335 (1976); Potter v. State Bd. of Med. Examiners, 101 Nev. 369, 371, 705 P.2d 132, 134 (1985).

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Violation of Nevada Administrative Procedure Act)

The Complaint fails to comply with NRS 233B.121(1)(d), which requires that notice of a hearing in a contested case include "a short and plain statement of the matters asserted." The Complaint's pattern of pleading in the alternative against Respondent and unidentified third parties, its reliance on inapplicable statutes, and its failure to identify the specific factual basis for each cited statutory violation render the proposed disciplinary action procedurally defective.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Lack of Causation)

To the extent the Board relies on the adverse medical reactions experienced by patient C.R. and patient A.T. as evidence of misconduct or as a basis for enhanced sanctions, Respondent denies that any substance administered at Holtorf Medical Group's booth was the proximate cause of those reactions. Respondent affirmatively states that the Board's own investigation, as reported in contemporaneous press accounts, was "unable to determine the exact cause of the reaction[s]." Without proof of causation, the adverse-reaction allegations cannot support enhanced discipline.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(No License to Discipline)

Respondent is not a Board licensee. The Board does not hold any license, certificate, or registration belonging to Respondent that it may suspend, revoke, or restrict. Any civil penalties imposed must be supported by adequate factual findings, must be proportionate, and must be founded on a determination that Respondent in fact engaged in conduct requiring a Board license—a finding that cannot be made on the present record because the conduct alleged (medical injection) does not require a Board license but rather a license from the Board of Medical Examiners.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Disproportionate Sanction)

Any monetary penalty or other sanction imposed by the Board would be disproportionate to the alleged conduct, particularly in light of the FDA's evolving regulatory posture on the peptides at issue, the lack of proof of causation as to adverse reactions, the absence of personal misconduct by Respondent, Respondent's good-faith belief that the substances were lawfully obtainable and lawfully administrable in the manner conducted, and Respondent's cooperation with the Board's investigation.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Reservation of Affirmative Defenses)

Respondent reserves the right to amend this Answer to add additional affirmative defenses, including but not limited to estoppel, laches, ripeness, mootness, primary jurisdiction, and statute of limitations, as discovery and investigation of the Board's claims may warrant.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Respondent prays for relief as follows:

1. That the Board take nothing by way of the Complaint;

2. That the Complaint and Notice of Hearing be dismissed with prejudice;

3. That the hearing scheduled for June 3, 2026 be vacated;

4. In the alternative, that all counts and statutory predicates that fail to state a claim—including all references to NRS 200.840, NRS 200.820, NRS 454.217, NRS 639.268(1)(a), NAC 639.757(4)–(5), and NRS 639.285—be stricken or dismissed;

5. In the alternative, if the Board determines that some form of discipline is warranted, that such discipline be limited to the minimum permissible sanction, as more severe sanctions would be disproportionate and unsupported by the evidence;

6. That Respondent be awarded his reasonable fees and costs to the fullest extent permitted by law;

7. For any such other and further relief as the Board may deem just and proper in this case.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

The Board's Complaint, and its February 20, 2026 Order to Cease-and-Desist/Citation and Fine, should be rescinded and dismissed because, on their face, they ask this Board to wield enforcement authority it does not have, against a person it does not license, over substances it has not classified, regarding conduct that is not the practice of pharmacy.

The Board's administrative-penalty authority over unlicensed persons is statutorily defined by NRS 639.2895, and the vast majority of the statutes the Complaint invokes fall outside it. Of the more than fifteen state and federal authorities the Complaint cites, only two—NRS 639.100(1) and NRS 639.285—lie within the Board's NRS 639.2895 penalty authority. No other statutory predicate is actionable.

The peptide substances allegedly at issue are not "dangerous drugs" under NRS 454.201. That statute's definition is closed; it reaches FDA-approved drugs bearing the "Rx only" legend, two specifically enumerated substances (Gerovital H3 and amygdalin), and any drug that the Board "has found … to be dangerous to public health or safety" pursuant to formal regulation. None of the peptides allegedly at issue satisfies any of these prongs.

The conduct alleged is, if anything, closer to practice of medicine, which lies outside the Board's enabling statute. The Complaint's own gravamen—the absence of a "bona fide therapeutic relationship," the lack of "diagnosis," the failure to determine "medical necessity," and the provision of "on-site medical treatment"—are concepts within NRS Chapter 630 (Physicians), not NRS Chapter 639 (Pharmacy). The Board has no authority to adjudicate the standard of medical care.

NRS 639.285 requires a "sale" of a "prescription drug"—neither is alleged. NRS 639.100(1) and the federal wholesale-distribution authorities reach only the wholesale distribution of "drugs" or "prescription drugs" to non-patients; the conduct here falls within the express exclusions of NRS 639.0155, and the substances at issue are not FDA-approved prescription drugs. NRS 454.217 governs only botulinum-toxin neuromodulators; NRS 639.268(1)(a) applies only to Nevada-licensed practitioners; NAC 639.757 applies only to pharmacies and pharmacists; and NRS 200.820 and 200.840 are criminal statutes enforceable only by prosecuting authorities.

Moreover, the Complaint violates NRS 233B.121(1)(d) and due process by pleading in the alternative against "Holtorf and/or employees and/or agents" without specifying what Respondent personally is alleged to have done.

Because the Board is plainly without jurisdiction to bring the Complaint, the Board can and should entertain and decide this Motion before the merits hearing. The Board's administrative-penalty authority over an unlicensed person is a creature of statute, fixed by NRS 639.2895; the Board has no inherent authority to adjudicate violations falling outside that section's enumerated predicates. "As an administrative agency the Board has no general or common law powers, but only such powers as have been conferred by law expressly or by implication." Andrews v. Nevada State Bd. of Cosmetology, 86 Nev. 207, 208, 467 P.2d 96, 96 (1970). Where, as here, a respondent challenges the agency's statutory authority to proceed at all, the question is one of subject-matter jurisdiction that may be raised at any time and must be decided in the first instance—because no amount of evidentiary development at hearing can supply jurisdiction the Legislature has withheld. See Landreth v. Malik, 127 Nev. 175, 179, 251 P.3d 163, 166 (2011) (subject-matter jurisdiction may be raised at any time and cannot be waived or conferred by the parties). Resolving the threshold question now will conserve the Board's resources, narrow or eliminate the issues for hearing, and avoid the manifest unfairness of requiring an out-of-state, unlicensed respondent to defend a multi-day contested case on predicates the Board has no power to enforce.

Accordingly, and as argued herein, the Complaint should be dismissed in its entirety with prejudice.

II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

Dr. Holtorf is a California-licensed physician who owns and operates Holtorf Medical Group, located at 2232 E. Maple Avenue, El Segundo, California. He is not, and has never been, licensed by this Board in any capacity—neither as a pharmacist, pharmacy owner, wholesale distributor, nor practitioner registered with the Board. The Board issues him no certificate, license, or permit.

The Complaint alleges that on or about July 11 through July 13, 2025, Holtorf Medical Group operated a clinical booth at the Revolution Against Aging and Death Festival ("RAADFest") at Red Rock Resort and Casino in Las Vegas. At the booth, the Board alleges that certain peptide substances—MOTS-c, P21, BPC-157, TB4 (Thymosin Beta-4 fragment), Humanin, ACE-31, and CJC peptides—along with Vitamin B-12 (cyanocobalamin), were administered by injection to attendees by employees and agents of Holtorf Medical Group.

On or about February 20, 2026, the Board issued an Order to Cease-and-Desist/Citation and Fine. On or about March 19, 2026, Respondent timely appealed and requested a hearing. The Board filed the Complaint on or about April 6, 2026. A hearing is scheduled for June 3, 2026.

The Complaint alleges three counts. Count One alleges unlawful purchase and possession of "dangerous drugs" and hypodermic devices, citing NRS 454.213, 454.316, 454.510, 639.100(1), 639.268(1)(a), and NAC 639.757(4)–(5). Count Two alleges unlawful furnishing and administration of dangerous drugs, citing NRS 200.840(1), 454.213, 454.217, 454.221, 454.316, 454.321, 454.356, 454.510, 639.100(1), and 639.285. Count Three alleges aiding and abetting unlicensed wholesale distribution by a third party (Forgotten Formula PMA), citing 21 U.S.C. §§ 360eee-1, 331(t), 353(e)(1)(A), 21 C.F.R. Part 205, and NRS 639.100, 639.233(1), and 639.595.

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Board's Administrative-Penalty Authority Over Unlicensed Persons Is Statutorily Limited to NRS 639.100(1), 639.2813(1), 639.284, and 639.285—and Most of the Complaint's Predicates Fall Outside That Authority.

The Board's authority to take administrative action against an unlicensed person—to issue a cease-and-desist order, to issue a citation, or to assess an administrative fine of up to $5,000—exists exclusively under NRS 639.2895. That statute, captioned "Practicing or offering to practice without license: Penalties," provides in pertinent part:

> In addition to any other penalty prescribed by law, if the Board determines that a person has violated subsection 1 of NRS 639.100, subsection 1 of NRS 639.2813 or NRS 639.284 or 639.285, the Board may: (1) Issue and serve on the person an order to cease and desist …; (2) Issue a citation to the person …; (3)

> Assess against the person an administrative fine of not more than $5,000.

NRS 639.2895.

The enumerated list in NRS 639.2895 is exhaustive. The Legislature defined, with precision, the four statutory predicates upon which the Board may build an administrative case against an unlicensed person, i.e., unlicensed manufacturing, wholesale distribution, compounding, sale, or dispensing of drugs (NRS 639.100(1)); false representation as a practitioner or agent (NRS 639.2813(1)); unlawful dispensing or sales (NRS 639.284); and unlawful sales by unlicensed persons (NRS 639.285). No other statute appears in NRS 639.2895—not anywhere in Title 15 of the NRS, not anywhere in NRS Chapter 454, not in NAC Chapter 639, and not in the DSCSA.

The Complaint cites at least fifteen separate authorities, almost all of which are plainly outside the Board's authority against "unlicensed" persons.

The Complaint, in other words, is built almost entirely on predicates that the Board has no statutory authority to adjudicate in an administrative penalty proceeding against an unlicensed person.

This is not a quirk of NRS Chapter 639. It is the deliberate structure of Nevada law. NRS Chapter 454 violations are criminal violations whose punishment is set by NRS 454.356 and prosecuted by the district attorney under NRS 454.160. NRS 454.366 makes the Board the administrator and enforcer of Chapter 454, but "enforcement" of criminal provisions means investigation, inspection, and referral for prosecution—not administrative adjudication and fine-imposition over non-licensees. NRS 639.300 separately and expressly provides that "[r]ecovery of penalties … must be conducted by the district attorney." Title 15 criminal statutes (NRS 200.820 and 200.840) are even further afield. NRS 200.840 is a category C felony in the Crimes Against the Person chapter, prosecutable only by the Attorney General or appropriate district attorney. The Board has no enabling statute that would empower it to charge, adjudicate, or sanction a person on a Title 15 predicate.

The federal predicates in Count Three—the DSCSA (21 U.S.C. § 360eee-1), 21 U.S.C. § 331(t), 21 U.S.C. § 353(e)(1)(A), and 21 C.F.R. Part 205—are likewise nowhere referenced in NRS 639.2895. Even if a federal violation were established (and as discussed infra, none is), the Board has no statutory mandate to administratively penalize a non-licensee for a federal violation. Federal violations are enforceable by the FDA and the United States Department of Justice.

The result is that under any reading of NRS 639.2895, this case is left with at most two cognizable Nevada predicates against an unlicensed person, NRS 639.100(1) and NRS 639.285. Neither of those predicates is actually satisfied on the Complaint's own allegations. But before those two predicates, every other statutory citation in the Complaint must be dismissed or stricken because it is outside the Board's enforcement authority under NRS 639.2895.

B. The Alleged Peptide Substances Are Not "Dangerous Drugs" Under NRS 454.201, So Counts One and Two Fail in Their Entirety.

The Complaint repeatedly characterizes the peptides at issue—MOTS-c, P21, BPC-157, TB4, Humanin, ACE-31, and CJC peptides—as "dangerous drugs." That characterization is the indispensable predicate for Counts One and Two; every Chapter 454 statute they cite is triggered only by conduct involving a substance meeting the statutory definition of "dangerous drug." Without that predicate, the counts collapse.

NRS 454.201 defines "dangerous drug" exhaustively as follows:

> "Dangerous drug" means any drug, other than a controlled substance, unsafe for self-medication or unsupervised use, and includes the following:
> 1. Any drug which has been approved by the Food and Drug Administration for general distribution and bears the legend "Rx only";
> 2. Procaine hydrochloride with preservatives and stabilizers (Gerovital H3) in injectable doses and amygdalin (laetrile) which have been licensed by the State Board of Health for manufacture in this State but have not been approved as drugs by the Food and Drug Administration; or > 3. Any drug which, pursuant to the Board's regulations, may be sold only by prescription because the Board has found those drugs to be dangerous to public health or safety.

The three prongs are disjunctive, and a substance must satisfy at least one to qualify. None of the peptides at issue satisfies any.

None of the peptides at issue is FDA-approved for general distribution, and none bears the federally mandated "Rx only" legend required by 21 U.S.C. § 353(b)(4)(A). The FDA has, however, expressly acknowledged the unsettled regulatory status of these very peptides. In September 2023, the FDA placed BPC-157, MOTS-c, Thymosin Beta-4 (TB-500), CJC-1295, and other peptides on Category 2 of the interim 503A bulks list—the category reserved for substances the agency has determined "raise significant safety concerns." See FDA, Bulk Drug Substances Nominated for Use in Compounding Under Section 503A, https://www.fda.gov/drugs/human-drug-compounding/bulk-drug-substances-nominated-use-compounding-under-section-503a-fdc-act. CJC-1295 (together with AOD-9604, ipamorelin acetate, thymosin alpha-1, and Selank acetate) was removed from Category 2 in September 2024 following withdrawal of the underlying nominations. See Pharmacy Compounding Advisory Committee; Notice of Meeting; Establishment of a Public Docket; Request for Comments—Bulk Drug Substances Nominated for Inclusion on the Section 503A Bulk Drug Substances List; Revisions to the Withdrawn or Removed List, https://www.regulations.gov/document/FDA-2024-N-4188-0001. On April 16, 2026, the FDA published a Federal Register notice announcing a Pharmacy Compounding Advisory Committee (PCAC) meeting scheduled for July 23–24, 2026, to consider whether seven additional peptides—BPC-157, KPV, TB-500, MOTs-C, Emideltide (DSIP), Semax, and Epitalon—should be added to the 503A Bulks List, and simultaneously updating the interim 503A categories to reflect that those seven peptides would be removed from Category 2 effective seven calendar days later. See Pharmacy Compounding Advisory Committee; Notice of Meeting; Establishment of a Public Docket; Request for Comments—Bulk Drug Substances Nominated for Inclusion on the Section 503A Bulk Drug Substances List, 91 Fed. Reg. ____ (Apr. 16, 2026), available at https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2026/04/16/2026-07361/pharmacy-compounding-advisory-committee-notice-of-meeting-establishment-of-a-public-docket-request

None of these peptides has been placed on Category 1, the FDA list of bulk drug substances that may lawfully be used in 503A compounding pending final rulemaking. The peptides remain unapproved drugs in a federal regulatory gray zone. They are not, and never have been, FDA-approved drugs bearing the "Rx only" legend.As for subsection (2), none of the peptides at issue is Gerovital H3 or laetrile. The prong has no application.

With regard to subsection (3), the only remaining prong, the statutory text imposes two non-negotiable preconditions—the substance must be classified as prescription-only "pursuant to the Board's regulations," and the Board must have "found those drugs to be dangerous to public health or safety." Both preconditions require formal rulemaking under NRS Chapter 233B, with notice, hearing, and an opportunity for public comment. See NRS 233B.060 et seq.

The Complaint identifies no such regulation. The Board cannot expand the statutory definition of "dangerous drug" through adjudication when the statute requires expansion through rulemaking.

The Complaint also includes B-12 (cyanocobalamin) in its list of substances administered at the booth. Unlike the peptides, B-12 is an FDA-approved drug, and the prescription-strength injectable form does bear the "Rx only" legend. But B-12 injection is one of the most routine therapeutic acts in Nevada medical practice, administered every day by physicians, advanced practice registered nurses, registered nurses, medical assistants, and other authorized personnel under NRS 454.213. The Board's apparent theory—that the inclusion of B-12 in a peptide protocol transforms a clinical injection into a regulatory violation—would render countless lawful injections in Nevada into violations of state law. Nothing in the Complaint articulates a coherent theory of how a properly authorized injection of B-12 alongside non-"dangerous drug" peptides could itself be unlawful conduct chargeable by the Board.

Because none of the peptides is a "dangerous drug" under NRS 454.201, every Chapter 454 statute cited in Counts One and Two—NRS 454.213, 454.217, 454.221, 454.316, 454.321, 454.356, and 454.510—is inapplicable as a matter of law. So too is NRS 639.268(1)(a), which by its terms governs "supplies of dangerous drugs," and NAC 639.757(4) and (5), which govern compounding of "dangerous drugs" by pharmacies. Counts One and Two are wholly derivative of a "dangerous drug" predicate that does not exist, and they must be dismissed.

C. The Conduct Alleged Is the Practice of Medicine, Which Lies Outside the Board's Enabling Statute.

Even setting aside the dangerous-drug deficiency, the Board has charged conduct that lies outside its enabling statute. The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy is a creature of NRS Chapter 639, and its jurisdiction is bounded by the "practice of pharmacy," wholesale distribution, and related pharmaceutical activities. NRS 639.0124(1) defines the "practice of pharmacy" through nine enumerated subsections that address the handling, preparation, evaluation, and information aspects of drugs—manufacturing, compounding, labeling, dispensing, distributing, interpreting prescriptions, advising on therapeutic value, selecting drug sources, and documenting distribution. The statute does not authorize the Board to regulate the act of administering a drug to a patient as medical treatment, except in narrow contexts not relevant here (such as the immunization-protocol provisions of NAC 639.2971, by which Nevada pharmacists may administer vaccinations under written physician protocol).

By contrast, NRS 630.020 defines the "practice of medicine" broadly to include "diagnos[ing], treat[ing], correct[ing], prevent[ing] or prescrib[ing] for any human disease, ailment, injury, infirmity, deformity or other condition, physical or mental, by any means or instrumentality." NRS Chapter 630 vests in the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners the authority to license and discipline physicians (NRS 630.045), and NRS 630.400 makes the unauthorized practice of medicine a criminal offense prosecutable by the Office of the Attorney General—not by this Board.

The Complaint's own allegations betray that the conduct at issue is the practice of medicine, not pharmacy. Paragraph 4 alleges that Respondent or his agents "provid[ed] on-site medical treatment" and that substances were administered "to patients with whom no practitioner had established a bona fide therapeutic relationship, and for whom no practitioner had diagnosed or determined that a dangerous drug was medically necessary." (emphasis added). Paragraphs 7 and 8 allege that two patients experienced "adverse medical reaction[s]" requiring emergency intubation. The concepts of a "bona fide therapeutic relationship," "diagnosis," "medical necessity," and "treatment" are physician acts within the exclusive province of NRS Chapter 630. A pharmacist filling a prescription neither diagnoses illness nor determines medical necessity; a physician does.

When this Board sets out to evaluate whether Respondent established appropriate therapeutic relationships, whether his diagnoses were sound, and whether the medical necessity of his interventions was adequately established, it is adjudicating the medical standard of care. That is squarely the province of NRS Chapter 630, not Chapter 639.

D. Even the Two Surviving Predicates—NRS 639.100 and NRS 639.285—Fail on Their Own Terms.

After Section A strips away the predicates outside the Board's enforcement authority and Section B strips away the predicates that depend on a "dangerous drug" classification, what remains of the Complaint are two potential predicates: NRS 639.100 (unlicensed manufacturing, wholesale distribution, compounding, sale, or dispensing of drugs) and NRS 639.285 (unlicensed sale of a prescription drug). Both fail.

1. NRS 639.285 — No "Sale" of a Prescription Drug Is Alleged.

NRS 639.285 makes it unlawful for an unlicensed person to "sell, display or offer for sale a prescription drug." Two elements are essential: (i) a sale (or display or offer for sale), and (ii) a prescription drug. Neither is satisfied here.

The Complaint nowhere alleges that Respondent sold any prescription drug to any consumer. The conduct alleged is the on-site clinical administration of substances during purported medical consultations, accompanied by no purchase of the substance by the patient.

The provision of a medical service that incidentally includes the administration of a substance is materially distinct from the retail "sale" of that substance.

Even if the conduct could somehow be characterized as a "sale," the substances at issue are not "prescription drugs." NAC 639.010(17) defines "prescription drug" as "a drug or medicine as defined in NRS 639.007 which: (a) [m]ay be dispensed only upon a prescription order that is issued by a practitioner; and (b) [i]s labeled with the symbol 'Rx only' pursuant to federal law or regulation." (emphasis added). The peptides at issue are unapproved compounds; they do not bear, and are not labeled with, the "Rx only" legend required by 21 U.S.C. § 353(b)(4)(A). They thus fail prong (b) of the prescription-drug definition.

NRS 639.285 has no application to this proceeding, and the predicate must be dismissed and/or stricken.

2. NRS 639.100 and Count Three — The Conduct Falls Within NRS 639.0155's Express Exclusions, the Substances Are Not "Prescription Drugs," and Purchaser Liability Is Not Established.

Count Three alleges that Respondent aided and abetted the unlicensed wholesale distribution of drugs by Forgotten Formula PMA, in violation of NRS 639.100, 639.233(1), 639.595, and federal authorities. Count One independently cites NRS 639.100(1).

However, the conduct alleged falls within the express exclusions of NRS 639.0155. That statute defines "wholesale distribution" as "the distribution of drugs to persons other than consumers or patients," but expressly excludes:

> 2. The purchase or other acquisition of a drug by a health care facility or a pharmacy that is a member of a purchasing organization.
> 3. The sale, purchase or trade of a drug … : … (d) Pursuant to a prescription.

NRS 639.0155(2)–(3).

The Complaint alleges that Forgotten Formula PMA shipped peptides to Holtorf Medical Group for use at its booth. The alleged transaction was either a purchase by a health care facility (the medical practice) for its own use, and fails to allege a "sale." Either way, the conduct alleged falls within the statutory exclusions, and the transaction is not "wholesale distribution" as a matter of Nevada statutory law.

Further, the substances at issue are not "prescription drugs" or FDA-approved "products" within the meaning of the federal predicates. The Drug Supply Chain Security Act (21 U.S.C. § 360eee-1) and the federal wholesale-distribution regime (21 U.S.C. § 353(e)(1)(A); 21 C.F.R. Part 205) regulate FDA-approved prescription drugs and "products" as those terms are defined under federal law. See 21 U.S.C. § 360eee(13) (defining "product" by reference to FDA-approved prescription drugs). Unapproved compounded peptides are not "products" or "prescription drugs" in the federal sense. The DSCSA's product-tracing, verification, and trading-partner requirements do not apply, by their own terms, to substances the FDA has not approved and that are currently in 503A regulatory limbo pending PCAC review.

The Board has not identified a Nevada statute making it unlawful for a purchaser to acquire drugs from an unlicensed wholesaler, and the circumstance alleged here—a California party allegedly purchasing drugs from a Texas entity—raises Constitutional concerns under the Dormant Commerce Clause, as Nevada cannot purport to regulate extraterritorial activity. NRS 639.100(1) is directed at unlicensed manufacturers, wholesalers, sellers, dispensers, and compounders—that is, the sellers of drugs—not at purchasers. NRS 639.595 ("Purchasing a drug from an unlicensed wholesaler does not constitute a bona fide transaction") is a definitional / commercial-good-faith provision that disqualifies the transaction for certain purposes; it does not create a freestanding offense by the purchaser. The Complaint nowhere identifies what statutory provision criminalizes or otherwise sanctions the purchase of drugs from an unlicensed wholesaler. Count Three thus seeks to impose third-party liability on Respondent for the seller's licensing failure, with no recognizable statutory basis

Count Three must be dismissed.

E. Other Individual Statutory Predicates Fail on Their Own Terms.

To the extent any of the following predicates survive Sections A–D (and as demonstrated above, none does), each nonetheless fails.

NRS 454.217 governs the injection of "a neuromodulator that is derived from Clostridium botulinum or is biosimilar to or the bioequivalent of such a neuromodulator." That is, it governs Botox and its botulinum-derived analogs. None of the substances at issue—MOTS-c, P21, BPC-157, TB4, Humanin, B-12, ACE-31, or CJC peptides—is derived from Clostridium botulinum or biosimilar to such a neuromodulator. NRS 454.217 has no application as a matter of law, and the citation must be stricken.

NRS 639.268(1)(a) governs the conditions under which "[a] practitioner" may purchase supplies of dangerous drugs for office administration. By cross-reference to NRS 639.0125, "practitioner" means a person licensed in Nevada to prescribe. Respondent holds no Nevada license. The statute, by its terms, does not apply to him. The Board cannot impose obligations under a statute designed for Nevada licensees on a non-licensee.

NAC 639.757 governs the "preparation and sale of compounded drugs by pharmacy or pharmacist." Subsections (4) and (5) impose compounding conditions on pharmacies and pharmacists. Respondent is neither a pharmacy nor a pharmacist; he owns and operates a medical practice. The regulation, by its plain terms, does not apply.

As discussed in supra, NRS 200.820 and 200.840 are criminal statutes in Title 15 (Crimes Against the Person). NRS 200.840 makes the unlicensed performance of a "surgical procedure" a category C felony, prosecutable by the Attorney General or appropriate district attorney. The Board has no enforcement authority over these provisions. Even were it otherwise, the statutes' legislative purpose was directed at unlicensed persons performing cosmetic and surgical procedures, not routine therapeutic injections that are lawfully administered every day across Nevada by registered nurses, medical assistants, paramedics, and other allied health professionals under NRS 454.213. Reading these statutes to criminalize the therapeutic injection of B-12 or peptides would render countless commonplace clinical activities into felonies—a result plainly at odds with legislative intent.

F. The Complaint Violates NRS 233B.121(1)(d) and Due Process by Failing to Specify the Conduct Charged.

NRS 233B.121(1)(d) requires that a notice of hearing in a contested case include "a short and plain statement of the matters asserted." Due process requires that a respondent receive adequate notice of the charges with sufficient specificity to prepare a defense. Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 335 (1976); Potter v. State Bd. of Med. Examiners, 101 Nev. 369, 371, 705 P.2d 132, 134 (1985).

The Complaint fails both standards. Each count alleges violations in the alternative against "Holtorf and/or employees and/or agents," without specifying what Respondent personally is alleged to have done. This is not a minor pleading wrinkle: in a disciplinary proceeding, due process requires proof of personal misconduct, not the imposition of vicarious liability under cover of ambiguous pleading. The Complaint also recites a litany of statutes—including criminal statutes that the Board has no authority to enforce, statutes that by their terms do not apply to Respondent, and a Chapter 454 framework that requires a "dangerous drug" classification the Board has neither identified nor adopted—without specifying how Respondent's conduct, as distinguished from that of others, violates each cited provision.

The Complaint should be dismissed.

G. The Board Has the Authority — Indeed, the Obligation — to Determine Its Own Jurisdiction Before Proceeding, and Its Own Failure to Adopt Procedural Rules Cannot Be Used to Bar That Determination.

In a closely related contested matter currently before this Board, the Board has taken the position that respondents in NRS 639.2895 appeals may not test the Board's jurisdiction by motion, and that any such motion is "procedurally improper" because "[t]he statute provides for an appeal in the form of a hearing, not based on motion practice." Nev. State Bd. of Pharmacy v. Prime Plus Lakeview, Case No. 25-110-V-O, Motion to Strike/Opposition to Motion to Dismiss at 3 (May 26, 2026) (the "Motion to Strike," attached hereto as Exhibit A). The Board grounds that position on Andrews v. Nevada State Board of Cosmetology, 86 Nev. 207, 208, 467 P.2d 96 (1970), for the general proposition that administrative agencies have only those powers granted them "expressly or by implication."

Respondent anticipates that the Board may raise a similar objection here and respectfully addresses it. The Board's position is foreclosed by Andrews itself, by the plain text of Nevada's APA, by the Board's own regulations, by the practice of Nevada's sister licensing boards, by the basic principle that subject matter jurisdiction cannot be conferred by procedural default, and by federal constitutional due process.

1. Andrews Itself Recognizes Implied Agency Authority, and the Authority to Determine Subject Matter Jurisdiction Is the Paradigmatic Implied Power.

Andrews is a subpoena case. The Cosmetology Board sought to issue subpoenas without any statutory grant of subpoena authority, and the Nevada Supreme Court held that it could not — not because agencies lack all implied powers, but because the Legislature, in the same session in which it enacted the Nevada APA, had made specific and selective grants of subpoena power to particular agencies (the Department of Agriculture, the Air Pollution Control Hearing Board, and this Board). 86 Nev. at 209–10, 467 P.2d at 97–98. The Court reasoned that the Legislature's selective grant of subpoena authority to enumerated agencies necessarily implied deliberate withholding from the non-enumerated Cosmetology Board. Id.

That reasoning has no application here. There is no parallel pattern of selective legislative grant of motion-to-dismiss authority to particular Nevada agencies, with withholding from others. To the contrary, the Nevada APA establishes a uniform set of "minimum procedural requirements" applicable to all Chapter 233B agencies, NRS 233B.020(1), and motion practice is embedded throughout those requirements.

Andrews expressly recognized that an agency has not only the powers "specifically set forth" in its enabling statute, but also those conferred "by implication." 86 Nev. at 208, 467 P.2d at 97. The authority of an adjudicative body to determine that it has no power to entertain a proceeding before it is the paradigmatic implied power. Without it, no agency could discharge its enabling statutory function. NRS 233B.031 defines "agency" in relevant part as one "authorized by law to … determine contested cases." An agency that cannot determine whether it has the authority to determine a particular case in the first place cannot, by definition, determine contested cases. The implied power to entertain a motion to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction is therefore not just consistent with the agency's express statutory function — it is constitutive of it.

2. NRS Chapter 233B Expressly and Repeatedly Contemplates Motion Practice in Contested Cases.

Setting aside Andrews's implied-power analysis, the Nevada APA — which governs the Board's contested cases, NRS 233B.020 — repeatedly contemplates motion practice as a matter of express statutory text.

NRS 233B.121(7) defines the record in a contested case to include "[a]ll pleadings, motions and intermediate rulings.". The Legislature would not have required the record to memorialize motions and intermediate rulings if such filings were never permitted in the first place. The statutory text presupposes that pleadings, motions, and intermediate rulings are a feature of every contested case under Chapter 233B.

NRS 233B.121(5) provides: "Unless precluded by law, informal disposition may be made of any contested case by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order or default." That subsection flatly contradicts the Board's argument that the only available procedure is "an appeal in the form of a hearing."

NRS 233B.050(1)(a) commands that "each agency shall … [a]dopt rules of practice, setting forth the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available, including a description of all forms and instructions used by the agency." The statute reflects a legislative determination that agencies will have formal and informal procedures — including motion practice — and that they must publish their rules to ensure procedural regularity.

NRS 233B.020 establishes the foregoing as "minimum procedural requirements." An agency may provide more process than the APA requires, but cannot provide less.

3. The Board's Own Regulations Recognize and Employ Motion Practice.

The Board's own administrative regulations expressly recognize that disciplinary proceedings are subject to motion practice. NAC 639.120(1)(c) provides for "written request[s]" — i.e., motions — for continuance, subject to good-cause showings, timing requirements, and service requirements. NAC 639.120(2) opens its description of the order of hearing proceedings with the qualifier "unless the Board for good cause or to prevent manifest injustice orders otherwise" — necessarily contemplating that the Board may, and indeed must, depart from the default hearing sequence where justice requires. The Board's own meeting minutes confirm that the Board entertains motions of various kinds.

For example, in In re Magana, Case No. 20-070-PR-N, on April 16, 2025, the Board entertained a respondent-initiated Petition to Vacate a prior disciplinary order that was "filed with the Board" on behalf of respondent. See Exhibit B [Minutes of April 16-17, 2025 Board Meeting] at 8. The Board "heard testimony," "received evidence," and voted to deny the Petition to Vacate. Nothing in NAC 639 — including the limited continuance provisions of NAC 639.120 — authorizes a "Petition to Vacate." The Board nonetheless treated the Petition as a procedurally cognizable filing, set it for hearing, and ruled on its merits.

The Board itself moves to find jurisdiction in contested cases. For example, in In re Dubin, Case No. 20-020-S, on September 8, 2022, a Board member moved "to find that the Board has jurisdiction over this matter consistent with paragraph 1" of the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation; the motion passed unanimously. See Exhibit C [Sept. 7-8, 2022, Board Meeting Minutes] at 11. Days earlier in the same meeting, in In re Las Vegas Scripts Rx, Case No. 19-243-PH-S, a Board member moved "to find that the Board has jurisdiction consistent with paragraph 1 of the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation"; that motion also passed unanimously. Id. at 24.

The Board cannot simultaneously rule on motions not expressly provided for by NAC 639, while claiming that it lacks the procedural authority to rule on a motion testing the Board's own jurisdiction to issue a fine in the first place.

4. Nevada's Sister Licensing Boards Have Adopted Motion-Practice Rules; the Board of Pharmacy Is an Outlier.

That motion practice is not only consistent with but required by NRS 233B.050(1)(a) is confirmed by the uniform practice of Nevada's other professional licensing boards, each of which has promulgated rules of practice expressly providing for motions in contested cases.

The Nevada State Board of Nursing has adopted detailed motion-practice regulation of any Nevada licensing board. NAC 632.921 enumerates nine categories of permitted motions, the first of which is precisely the motion presented here: "[t]o request the dismissal of the complaint for a failure to state facts which, if true, would form a sufficient basis for discipline." NAC 632.921(2)(a).

The Board of Dental Examiners of Nevada maintains a dedicated subdivision of its administrative code titled "Pleadings, Motions and Other Papers," within which NAC 631.310 specifically governs "Motions" in contested cases. The Nevada State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners maintains a parallel structure, with NAC 638.175 expressly governing "filing and service of … answer, motion, opposition or reply" in disciplinary matters under the heading "Pleadings, Motions and Other Papers." The Nevada Real Estate Commission has adopted a general motion-practice rule providing that "[a]ll motions, unless made during a hearing, must be in writing," and prescribing service, response, and oral-argument procedures.

NAC 645.840. The Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners likewise contemplates and requires motion practice as a feature of its contested cases, including through its mandatory early case conference at which the parties must "[s]et dates … [b]y which all prehearing motions and responses thereto must be filed." NRS 630.339(3)(b)(2).

Nevada's nursing, dental, veterinary, real estate, and medical boards — each of which is governed by the same Chapter 233B APA and is subject to the same NRS 233B.050(1)(a) obligation — have all complied with that obligation by adopting motion-practice rules. The Board of Pharmacy stands alone in having omitted to do so.

5. The Board's Failure to Adopt Rules of Practice Violates NRS 233B.050, and the Agency Process Inoperative Is Until Rules Are Adopted.

To the extent the Board's position rests on the absence of a regulation expressly authorizing motions to dismiss, that absence is itself a statutory violation. NRS 233B.050(1) commands — in mandatory terms — that "each agency shall … [a]dopt rules of practice, setting forth the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available.". The Board cannot weaponize its own failure to comply with that command against a respondent challenging the Board's jurisdiction. Cf. NRS 233B.050(2) ("A regulation, rule, final order or decision of an agency is not valid or effective against any person or party, nor may it be invoked by the agency for any purpose, until it has been made available for public inspection.").

The consequence of an agency's failure to adopt procedural rules is not that the respondent loses procedural rights, but that the agency loses procedural authority.

In Yeik v. Department of Revenue and Taxation, 595 P.2d 965 (Wyo. 1979), the Wyoming Supreme Court confronted a statutory provision making hearing-examiner orders

"subject to a hearing before the Wyoming tax commission in accordance with the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act." Id. at 968. The Tax Commission had failed to adopt procedural rules implementing that intermediate-review provision. The Court held that the omission was fatal. "In the actual conduct of a hearing, failure to have such rules can be prejudicially fatal," id. at 969, and "after exhausting every rule of construction if no sensible meaning can be given to a statute or if it is so incomplete that it cannot be carried into effect, it must be pronounced inoperative and void," id. The Court's holding is squarely on point. "No procedure having been provided by the state tax commission pursuant to [Wyoming's APA] … which would clarify and make plain to the persons affected what procedure must be followed to obtain the review required by [statute], we, therefore, hold that [the review provision] is inoperative and void until such time as adequate procedural rules and regulations are adopted pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act and the rule-making power of the state tax commission." Id.

The Wyoming APA provision the Yeik court invoked is materially identical to NRS 233B.050(1)(a). Compare id. at 969 (quoting Wyo. Stat. § 9-4-102(a)(i), requiring agencies to "[a]dopt rules of practice setting forth the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available in connection with contested cases"), with NRS 233B.050(1)(a) ("[a]dopt rules of practice, setting forth the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available"). The two statutes use the same operative language.

The New Jersey Superior Court reached the same result in In re Consider Distribution of Casino Simulcasting Special Fund (Accumulated in 2005), 398 N.J. Super. 7, 939 A.2d 230 (App. Div. 2008). There, the New Jersey Racing Commission had failed to adopt rules of practice describing the procedures governing applications for distribution of a statutory fund. The Appellate Division held that the Commission's failure to comply with N.J.S.A. 52:14B-

3(2) — which uses language nearly identical to NRS 233B.050(1)(a), requiring agencies to "adopt rules of practice setting forth the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available" — required reversal and barred further agency action until rules were adopted. 398 N.J. Super. at 18–19, 939 A.2d at 236–37. The court emphasized that such rules are essential because they "provide notice of the agency's procedures to interested parties and assure that proceedings before the agency are conducted uniformly and fairly," and that "[a] description of the manner in which proceedings to resolve disputed matters will be conducted is a 'fundamental aspect[ ] of any procedural rules.'" Id. at 18, 939 A.2d at 237). The court further held that "[b]ecause the [agency] has not adopted a rule of practice incorporating procedures, the [agency] must comply with [the APA rules-of-practice statute] before it takes further action." 398 N.J. Super. at 19, 939 A.2d at 237.

To the extent that the Board refuses Respondent's jurisdictional challenge, its NRS 639.2895 enforcement authority "inoperative and void" until rules of practice are adopted.

6. The Board Cannot Lawfully Subject Respondent to a Hearing on Matters Beyond Its Statutory Authority.

Subject matter jurisdiction is a non-waivable structural requirement of any adjudication. See NRCP 12(h)(3) ("If the court determines at any time that it lacks subject-matter jurisdiction, the court must dismiss the action."); Landreth v. Malik, 127 Nev. 175, 179, 251 P.3d 163, 166 (2011) (subject matter jurisdiction "cannot be conferred by the parties.").

Thus, the Board cannot defer the jurisdictional question to post-hearing judicial review without itself acting in excess of its statutory authority. If the Board lacks the statutory power to issue a penalty under NRS 639.2895, then it equally lacks the statutory power to conduct an evidentiary hearing on the predicate question of whether a penalty should issue. See NRS

233B.031 (defining "agency" as one "authorized by law to … determine contested cases"). Where NRS 639.2895's four enumerated predicates are not in play — and, as demonstrated supra, they are not — there is no statutory "case" for the Board to determine, and a hearing on factual allegations that, if proven, would not establish a predicate is not just unnecessary; it is itself ultra vires.

Federal and Nevada constitutional due process require that a party be given a "meaningful" opportunity to be heard before the deprivation of a protected interest. Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 333 (1976) ("The fundamental requirement of due process is the opportunity to be heard at a meaningful time and in a meaningful manner." (internal quotation marks omitted)). The Nevada Supreme Court has long applied this principle to administrative licensure and disciplinary proceedings. See, e.g., Gilman v. State Bd. of Veterinary Med. Examiners, 120 Nev. 263, 269, 89 P.3d 1000, 1004 (2004); Potter v. State Bd. of Med. Examiners, 99 Nev. 162, 659 P.2d 868 (1983). A "meaningful" opportunity is one that permits the respondent to raise — and the agency to consider — the threshold question of whether the agency has the power to deprive the respondent of property at all.

Dr. Holtorf holds no Nevada license, has no Nevada presence to defend, and is haled before this Board on a Complaint that on its face fails to identify a single Nevada-enforceable predicate. NRS 639.2895 by its terms reaches only persons whose conduct falls within four specific statutory provisions; none is alleged here in any cognizable form. The Board's threshold duty is to determine, before subjecting an out-of-state respondent to its compulsory process, whether it has the statutory authority to do so at all. The procedural vehicle for raising that question is this Motion.

The Board should rule on the merits of this Motion, and dismiss the Complaint in its entirety.

G. Respondent Respectfully Requests an Award of Reasonable Attorney's Fees

Respondent respectfully requests an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in defending this proceeding pursuant to NRS 233B.130 and NRS 233B.135, and/or under NRS 18.010(2)(b), which authorizes a fee award where a claim has been "brought or maintained without reasonable ground or to harass the prevailing party." The Complaint was filed against an out-of-state physician on statutory predicates the Board has no authority to enforce against an unlicensed person under NRS 639.2895, on a "dangerous drug" theory unsupported by any Board regulation as NRS 454.201(3) requires, and in significant part on facially inapplicable statutes. Each of these defect—and the Board's lack of jurisdiction—was apparent on the face of the Complaint when filed.

Accordingly, an award of reasonable fees and costs to Respondent is appropriate in this matter.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Respondent respectfully requests that the Board enter an order (1) rescinding the February 20, 2026 Order to Cease-and-Desist/Citation and Fine in its entirety, pursuant to NRS 639.2895(2); (2) rescinding any administrative fine assessed against Respondent pursuant to NRS 639.2895(2); (3) dismissing the Statement to the Respondent and Notice of Hearing, Case No. 25-289-C-O, with prejudice; and (4) awarding Respondent his reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to NRS 233B.130, NRS 233B.135, and/or NRS 18.010(2)(b).

For the foregoing reasons, the Complaint should be dismissed in its entirety with prejudice and Respondent should be awarded his reasonable fees and costs.

Dated this 29th day of May, 2026.

NEVADA STATE BOARD OF PHARMACY, Petitioner, v. PRIME PLUS LAKEVIEW, Respondent.	Case No. 25-110-V-O MOTION TO STRIKE/OPPOSITION TO RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy (Board), by and through counsel prosecuting this matter, Laura Tucker, General Counsel, files this motion to strike/opposition to Respondent Prime Plus Lakeview's (Respondent) Motion to Dismiss First Amended Statement to the Respondent filed May 22, 2026. This motion/opposition is based upon the following points and authorities and the pleadings on file herein.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

On or about September 15, 2025, the Board issued a Citation and Fine Order on Respondent alleging violation of Nevada law for unlicensed wholesale distribution in Nevada. On or about October 15, 2025, Respondent appealed the Citation and Fine Order and requested a hearing before the Board. On or about October 27, 2025, the Board served Respondent with a Statement to the Respondent and Notice of Hearing pursuant to Nevada Revised Statute (NRS) 233B.121 for Respondent's appeal. On or about December 20, 2025, the Board served Respondent with a First Amended Statement to the Respondent (hereinafter "NRS 233B Statement").

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Respondent's appeal is authorized by NRS 639.2895(2) and governed by the statutes for the adjudication of contested cases set forth in NRS 233B.121-126, inclusive. The Board's authority is limited to either upholding or dismissing the citation. See Andrews v. Nevada State Board of Cosmetology, 86 Nev. 207,208,467 P.2d 96, 96-96 (2007).

Dismissal for failure to state a claim prior to a hearing should only result if the prosecution can prove no set of facts that support the charges. See Simpson v. Mars Inc., 113 Nev. 188, 190, 929 P.2d 966, 967 (1997). The Board may strike "any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter" filed in this matter. See NRCP 12(f); see also Jordan v. State, 121 Nev. 44, 61 n.32, 110 P.3d 30, 43, n.32 (2005), abrogated on other grounds.

III. ARGUMENT

Respondent's Motion to Dismiss should must be stricken or denied because it is procedurally improper and without merit.

A. Respondent's Motion to Dismiss Should be Stricken because its Arguments will be Properly Addressed at Hearing.

In arguing its motion to dismiss, Respondent advances arguments that are more appropriately addressed at hearing, including by attaching an exhibit that the Board intended to present into evidence at that time. When ruling on a motion to dismiss, matters outside the pleading being attacked generally are not considered. Engelson v. Dignity Health, 139 Nev. 578, 582, 542 P.3d 430, 436 (Nev. App. 2023), (citing Breliant v. Preferred Equities Corp., 109 Nev. 842, 847, 858 P.2d 1258, 1261 (1993)).

Here, Respondent asks the Board to consider evidence presented outside the 233B Statement, specifically an invoice the Board's counsel intended to present as evidence of the Respondent's conduct at hearing. In doing so, Respondent provides support that a hearing to fully examine the facts and circumstances around the investigation is necessary—thus, defeating its own motion to dismiss.

Furthermore, Respondent asks the Board to consider that it falls under an\ exception to the state's wholesaler licensing statute. Once again, Respondent makes arguments that consider facts and evidence outside the 233B Statement, thus necessitating a hearing. Because these assertions require the presentation of evidence outside the 233B statement, a motion to dismiss is improper.

B. Respondent's Motion to Dismiss is Procedurally Improper pursuant to NRS 639.2895(2) and Nevada law.

Respondent's motion to dismiss is procedurally improper because it asks the Board to dismiss an appeal that Respondent itself requested. Pursuant to NRS 639.2895(2), the Board may issue a citation on entities or individuals who engage in unlicensed activity in Nevada. The statute provides for an appeal in the form of a hearing, not based on motion practice. See NRS 639.2895(2). Opportunity must be afforded to all parties to respond and present evidence on argument on all issues involved. NRS 233B.121(4).

Here, Respondent first requested a hearing of the evidence to support the Board's citation, but now seeks dismissal of the citation altogether. The Board's citation authority allows for the Board to issue a citation, and the Respondent may request a hearing in front of the Board to appeal the decision. The statutory framework does not consider motion practice within its citation appeal authority, nor does it logically follow that the Respondent can request a hearing and then ask to dismiss a hearing it requested.

C. Respondent is Not Being Denied Due Process because the Board's 233B Statement meets Nevada's notice pleading requirements.

Respondent asserts that the NRS 233B Statement denies it due process in that it fails to plead facts establishing wholesale distribution in Nevada. NRS 233B.121(2) specifies that notice in a contested case must include:

(a) A statement of the time, place and nature of the hearing.

(b) A statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held.

(c) A reference to the particular sections of the statutes and regulations involved.

(d) A short and plain statement of the matters asserted.

The NRS 233B Statement clearly meets these requirements; it sets forth factual allegations relating to the matters asserted, references to the statutes and regulations involved, one cause of action based upon the Board's investigation and findings, a statement of legal authority and jurisdiction, and a statement of the time, place, and nature of the hearing (an appeal at the Respondent's request).

Nevada is "a notice-pleading jurisdiction and pleadings should be liberally construed to allow issues that are fairly noticed to the adverse party." Nevada State Bank v. Jamison Family Partnership, 106 Nev. 792, 801, 801 P.2 1377, 1383 (1990). The Nevada Supreme Court has further held that "in the context of administrative pleadings, 'due process requirements of notice are satisfied where the parties are sufficiently apprised of the nature of the proceedings so that there is no unfair surprise.'" Dutchess Business Services, Inc. v. Nevada State Bd. of Pharmacy, 124 Nev. 701, 712, 191 P.3d 1159, 1167(2008) (citations omitted).

Due process is not violated unless an administrative proceeding is so fundamentally unfair that a party is prevented from reasonably presenting his case and prejudiced as a result. Manufactured Home Cmtys., Inc. v. Cty. of San Luis Obispo, 167 Cal. App. 4th 705, 711 (2008) (citing Sinaiko v. Superior Court, 122 Cal. App. 4th 1133, 1140 (2004)).

Respondent argues that its due process is violated because the 233B Statement does not allege that Respondent did not qualify under an exception involving pharmacy-to-pharmacy sales pursuant to NRS 639.0155. However, that is not a requirement at the administrative pleading stage. In fact, Respondent urges the Board to consider evidence outside of the pleadings in its argument to dismiss the 233B Statement, which falls outside the scope of a motion to dismiss.

The Board provided Respondent with a short and plain statement of the matters asserted and the violations alleged. The Board also provided Respondent with evidence to be presented at hearing. Respondent is receiving a hearing, including the opportunity to present evidence, call witnesses and cross-examine opposing witnesses in conformance with NRS 233B.121(4) and NRS 233B.123(4)). Respondent has been accorded all necessary due process guarantees of fundamental fairness, including the opportunity to prepare a defense.

IV. Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, the prosecution respectfully requests that the Board strike or deny Respondent's Motion to Dismiss.

BEFORE THE NEVADA STATE BOARD OF PHARMACY

NEVADA STATE BOARD OF PHARMACY, Petitioner, v. KENT HOLTORF, Respondent.	Case No. 25-289-C-O MOTION TO STRIKE/OPPOSITION TO RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy (Board), by and through counsel prosecuting this matter, Laura Tucker, General Counsel, files this motion to strike/opposition to Respondent Kent Holtorf's (Respondent) Motion to Dismiss filed May 29, 2026. This motion/opposition is based upon the following points and authorities and the pleadings on file herein.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

On or about February 20, 2026, the Board issued a Citation and Fine Order on Respondent alleging violation of Nevada law for unlicensed practice and aiding and abetting unlicensed practice in Nevada. On or about March 19, 2026, Respondent appealed the Citation and Fine Order and requested a hearing before the Board. On or about April 6, 2026, the Board served Respondent with a Statement to the Respondent and Notice of Hearing pursuant to Nevada Revised Statute (NRS) 233B.121 for Respondent's appeal (hereinafter "233B Statement").

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Respondent's appeal is authorized by NRS 639.2895(2) and governed by the statutes for the adjudication of contested cases set forth in NRS 233B.121-126, inclusive. The Board's authority is limited to either upholding or dismissing the citation. See Andrews v. Nevada State Board of Cosmetology, 86 Nev. 207,208,467 P.2d 96, 96-96 (1970).

Dismissal for failure to state a claim prior to a hearing should only result if the prosecution can prove no set of facts that support the charges. See Simpson v. Mars Inc., 113 Nev. 188, 190, 929 P.2d 966, 967 (1997). The Board may strike "any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter" filed in this matter. See NRCP 12(f); see also Jordan v. State, 121 Nev. 44, 61 n.32, 110 P.3d 30, 43, n.32 (2005), abrogated on other grounds.

III. ARGUMENT

Respondent's Motion to Dismiss should must be stricken or denied because it is procedurally improper and without merit.

A. Respondent's Motion to Dismiss is Procedurally Improper pursuant to NRS 639.2895(2) and Nevada law.

Respondent's motion to dismiss is procedurally improper because it asks the Board to dismiss an appeal that Respondent itself requested. Pursuant to NRS 639.2895(2), the Board may issue a citation on entities or individuals who engage in unlicensed activity in Nevada. The statute provides for an appeal in the form of a hearing, not based on motion practice. See NRS 639.2895(2). Opportunity must be afforded to all parties to respond and present evidence on argument on all issues involved. NRS 233B.121(4).

Here, Respondent first requested a hearing of the evidence to support the Board's citation, but now seeks dismissal of the citation altogether. The Board's citation authority allows for the Board to issue a citation, and the Respondent may request a hearing in front of the Board to appeal the decision. The statutory framework does not consider motion practice within its citation appeal authority, nor does it logically follow that the Respondent can request a hearing and then ask to dismiss a hearing he requested.

B. The Board Has Subject-Matter Jurisdiction and Administrative-Penalty Authority Over Respondent because Respondent Engaged in Unlicensed Practice of Pharmacy.

Respondent incorrectly asserts that the Board lacks subject matter jurisdiction or administrative-penalty authority over him. The Board has express statutory authority to enforce the provisions of Chapters 453, 454, and 639 of the Nevada Revised Statutes for the protection of the public. NRS 639.070(1)(l); see also NRS 454.366. This includes the express authority to issue a citation and assess an administrative fine for any unlicensed activity falling within the Board's jurisdiction. NRS 639.2895. Furthermore, NRS 639.100(1)(a) states that unlicensed practice includes those who do not hold the appropriate license or permit required by Chapter 639 "or chapter 453 or 454 of NRS."

In asserting this argument, Respondent actually admits to the misconduct alleged: that he "holds no Nevada license." In its 233B statement, the Board alleges that Respondent and/or his agents possessed, furnished, administered and/or dispensed drugs without a license— that is, the unlicensed practice of pharmacy. In Nevada, drugs or medicine may be possessed or furnished by practitioners (among others). NRS 454.213(1)(a). A practitioner is defined as a "physician [...] who holds a valid license to practice his or her profession in this State." NRS 639.0125; NRS 454.00958 (emphasis added). Additionally, a dangerous drug "means any drug, other than a controlled substance, unsafe for self-medication or unsupervised use, and includes [...] [a]ny drug which, pursuant to the Board's regulations, may be sold only by prescription because the Board has found those drugs to be dangerous to public health or safety." NRS 454.201(3).

Under Nevada law, peptides are a "drug" because they qualify as a "parenteral solution" within the meaning of NRS 639.0105 and NRS 639.007. This means that the possession, compounding and sale of peptides is restricted pursuant to NRS 639.2806 and NRS 639.2807. The peptides must only be sold by "a pharmacy licensed in this state or a practitioner" and may only be compounded by "a registered pharmacist [...] or a practitioner licensed in this state." NRS 639.2806; NRS 639.2807. Because Respondent is neither a pharmacist nor a practitioner licensed in this state, the sale and furnishing of the peptides amounts to unlicensed practice by which the Board can take action. NRS 639.2895.

IV. Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, the prosecution respectfully requests that the Board strike or deny Respondent's Motion to Dismiss.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 1st day of June 2026.

Hello Yen,
I would like to ask for an appeal for my pharmacy license. I was at the meeting on Wed. 6/3/26 at 9 am and then I freaked out because I was scared and left. I spoke to Melissa Shake and you can see me sit 2 chairs down from her and when they called the first attorney for a doctor, I started freaking out and left. I would really like the opportunity to explain that I made some mistakes, I currently work for Walgreens and need at least a tech in training license to hold my position but would like to get my Pharmacy Tech license to be promoted to store manager.
Thank you,
Darlene Hess

Respondents Walgreens Pharmacy #4854, 5814, Minhquang D. Nguyen, RPh, Dimitris Efstathiou, RPh, , and Maria Cruz, RPh by and through their counsel William J. Stilling, of and for Stilling & Harrison, PLLC, answer and provide notice of their defense to the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation ("Notice") in the above-entitled matter and declare as follows.

REQUEST FOR HEARING

Respondents request a hearing on the Notice.

RESPONSES TO ALLEGATIONS AND CAUSES OF ACTION

In answer to the Notice, Respondents admit, deny, and allege as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 1.

2. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 2.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

3. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 3.

4. Respondents lack sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in paragraph 4 and therefore deny the same.

5. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 4.

6. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 5.

7. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 6.

8. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 7.

9. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 8.

10. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 10.

11. Respondents admit that on or about December 24, 2017, prescription no. 1874629, post-dated 11/07/2017, was processed, filled and dispensed and that data entry review was performed by Cruz. However, there would have been nothing on the prescription 1874629 to indicate that it had been previously filled. Respondents deny all remaining allegations in paragraph 11.

12. Respondents admit that: (i) on or about January 29, 2018, prescription no. 1886042, post-dated 12/07/2017, was processed, filled and dispensed; (ii) data entry review and final verification were performed by Nguyen who did not place a fill sticker on the back of the original hard copy of the prescription. Respondents deny all remaining allegations in paragraph 12.

13. Respondents admit that: (i) on or about February 28, 2018, prescription no. 1896898, post-dated 12/07/2017, was processed, filled and dispensed and (ii) data entry review was performed by Cruz. However, there would have been nothing on the prescription 1896898 to indicate that it had been previously filled. Respondents deny all remaining allegations in paragraph.

COUNT ONE
Recordkeeping Violations
(Respondents Nguyen and Efstathiou)

14. Paragraph 14 is a statement of law and is not susceptible to admission or denial. To the extent that paragraph 14 implies any unprofessional or unlawful conduct, Respondents deny the same.

15. Respondents deny the allegations in paragraph 15.

COUNT TWO

Failure to Identify Duplicate Dispensed Medication/Unprofessional Conduct

(Respondents Nguyen and Cruz)

16. Paragraph 16 is a statement of law and is not susceptible to admission or denial. To the extent that paragraph 16 implies any unprofessional or unlawful conduct, Respondents deny the same.

17. Respondents deny the allegations in paragraph 17.

COUNT THREE

Managing Pharmacist Responsibility

(Respondent Nguyen)

18. Paragraph 18 is a statement of law and is not susceptible to admission or denial. To the extent that paragraph 16 implies any unprofessional or unlawful conduct, Respondents deny the same.

19. Respondents deny the allegations in paragraph 19.

COUNT FOUR

Pharmacy/Pharmacy Owner Responsibility

(Respondent Walgreens Pharmacy #4854)

20. Paragraph 20 is a statement of law and is not susceptible to admission or denial. To the extent that paragraph 16 implies any unprofessional or unlawful conduct, Respondents deny the same.

21. Respondents deny the allegations in paragraph 21.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS, DEFENSES, AND GENERAL DENIAL

22. Each Count fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

23. To the extent Respondents did not specifically admit allegations in the Notice, they deny such allegations.

24. Sanctioning Respondent Maria Cruz would be unfair and unjust in light of her circumstances. Maria Cruz retired _____, 2021 (??). She now lives in the Philippines. She no longer has a pharmacy license and never intends to practice pharmacy again. Her decision to retire after ___ years of practicing as a pharmacist had nothing to do with this case. Ms. Cruz has never been sanctioned for any act or omission during her __ years of practice. The Board needs to be consistent in its decisions. But some cases are just different and require wise use of discretion as fairness requires. This is such a case. If the Board agrees to dismiss the claims against Maria Cruz, it would not set a precedent that a pharmacist can escape sanctions by retiring. Rather, a decision to dismiss the claims against her or to forego any sanctions would simply recognize that it is fair not to impose sanctions on a pharmacist who retires some three years after an alleged violation and before any Notice of intended Action is filed, who moves to her back to her native country, and who has never before been sanctioned by a board of pharmacy. If this Board finds that Maria Cruz engaged in unprofessional conduct, it has the power to impose sanctions. Just because a government body has the power to do something does not necessarily mean that it should do so—especially when fairness dictates otherwise.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

25. That the Notice be dismissed or that the Board finds that the allegations in the Notice and all evidence presented to the Board do not support imposing discipline on any of the Respondents.

26. That the Board dismiss all Causes of Acton in in the Notice.

27. That the Board provide further relief to Respondents as it finds just and proper.

DATED this 23rd day of May 2023.

7. Respondents admit that evidence exists, and that Board's staff prosecuting this case could present such evidence at an administrative hearing, to establish a factual basis for the violations alleged in the Accusation, to wit, that:

A. By failing to place a fill sticker on the back of the original hard copy of the prescription when filling prescription no. 1893870, Efstathiou violated NRS 639.236(2) and is subject to discipline pursuant to NRS 639.210(12); and

B. Pursuant to NRS 622.400, Respondent Walgreens Pharmacy #4854 shall pay One-Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) to partially reimburse the Board for recoverable attorney's fees and investigative costs.

10. Any failure by any Respondent to comply with the terms of this Order may result in issuance by the Executive Secretary of an order to show cause pursuant to NAC 639.965 directing the non-compliant Respondent(s) to appear before the Board at the next regularly scheduled meeting for a show cause hearing. If such a hearing results in a finding of a violation of this Order by any Respondent, the Board may impose additional discipline upon the non-compliant Respondent(s) consistent with the provisions of NRS Chapter 639.

Stilling, of and for Stilling & Harrison, PLLC, answer and provide notice of their defense to the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation ("Notice") in the above-entitled matter and declare as follows.

REQUEST FOR HEARING

Respondents request a hearing on the Notice.

RESPONSES TO ALLEGATIONS AND CAUSES OF ACTION

In answer to the Notice, Respondents admit, deny, and allege as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 1.

2. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 2.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

3. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 3.

4. Respondents lack sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in paragraph 4 and therefore deny the same.

5. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 4.

6. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 5.

7. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 6.

8. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 7.

9. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 8.

10. Respondents admit the allegations in paragraph 10.

11. Respondents admit that on or about December 24, 2017, prescription no. 1874629, post-dated 11/07/2017, was processed, filled and dispensed and that data entry review was performed by Cruz. However, there would have been nothing on the prescription 1874629 to indicate that it had been previously filled. Respondents deny all remaining allegations in paragraph 11.

12. Respondents admit that: (i) on or about January 29, 2018, prescription no. 1886042, post-dated 12/07/2017, was processed, filled and dispensed; (ii) data entry review and final verification were performed by Nguyen who did not place a fill sticker on the back of the original hard copy of the prescription. Respondents deny all remaining allegations in paragraph 12.

13. Respondents admit that: (i) on or about February 28, 2018, prescription no. 1896898, post-dated 12/07/2017, was processed, filled and dispensed and (ii) data entry review was performed by Cruz. However, there would have been nothing on the prescription 1896898 to indicate that it had been previously filled. Respondents deny all remaining allegations in paragraph.

COUNT ONE
Recordkeeping Violations
(Respondents Nguyen and Efstathiou)

14. Paragraph 14 is a statement of law and is not susceptible to admission or denial. To the extent that paragraph 14 implies any unprofessional or unlawful conduct, Respondents deny the same.

15. Respondents deny the allegations in paragraph 15.

COUNT TWO

Failure to Identify Duplicate Dispensed Medication/Unprofessional Conduct
(Respondents Nguyen and Cruz)

16. Paragraph 16 is a statement of law and is not susceptible to admission or denial. To the extent that paragraph 16 implies any unprofessional or unlawful conduct, Respondents deny the same.

17. Respondents deny the allegations in paragraph 17.

COUNT THREE

Managing Pharmacist Responsibility
(Respondent Nguyen)

18. Paragraph 18 is a statement of law and is not susceptible to admission or denial. To the extent that paragraph 16 implies any unprofessional or unlawful conduct, Respondents deny the same.

19. Respondents deny the allegations in paragraph 19.

COUNT FOUR

Pharmacy/Pharmacy Owner Responsibility
(Respondent Walgreens Pharmacy #4854)

20. Paragraph 20 is a statement of law and is not susceptible to admission or denial. To the extent that paragraph 16 implies any unprofessional or unlawful conduct, Respondents deny the same.

21. Respondents deny the allegations in paragraph 21.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS, DEFENSES, AND GENERAL DENIAL

22. Each Count fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

23. To the extent Respondents did not specifically admit allegations in the Notice, they deny such allegations.

24. Sanctioning Respondent Maria Cruz would be unfair and unjust in light of her circumstances. Maria Cruz retired _____, 2021 (22). She now lives in the Philippines. She no longer has a pharmacy license and never intends to practice pharmacy again. Her decision to retire after ___ years of practicing as a pharmacist had nothing to do with this case. Ms. Cruz has never been sanctioned for any act or omission during her __ years of practice. The Board needs to be consistent in its decisions. But some cases are just different and require wise use of discretion as fairness requires. This is such a case. If the Board agrees to dismiss the claims against Maria Cruz, it would not set a precedent that a pharmacist can escape sanctions by retiring. Rather, a decision to dismiss the claims against her or to forego any sanctions would simply recognize that it is fair not to impose sanctions on a pharmacist who retires some three years after an alleged violation and before any Notice of intended Action is filed, who moves to her back to her native country, and who has never before been sanctioned by a board of pharmacy. If this Board finds that Maria Cruz engaged in unprofessional conduct, it has the power to impose sanctions. Just because a government body has the power to do something does not necessarily mean that it should do so—especially when fairness dictates otherwise.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

25. That the Notice be dismissed or that the Board finds that the allegations in the Notice and all evidence presented to the Board do not support imposing discipline on any of the Respondents.

26. That the Board dismiss all Causes of Acton in in the Notice.

27. That the Board provide further relief to Respondents as it finds just and proper.

DATED this 23rd day of May 2023.

LETTER TO NEVADA STATE BOARD OF PHARMACY

Date: May 1, 2026

Mark Sedar

Nevada State Board of Pharmacy

985 Damonte Ranch Parkway, Suite 206

Reno, NV 89521

Re: Health Works Pharmacy — Update on Pending Change-of-Ownership Application

Dear Mr. Sedar,

Thank you again for your kind response and for accommodating the change of ownership for Health Works Pharmacy under our existing pharmacy license while the formal Change-of-Ownership application is processed for the July 2026 Board meeting.

This letter is to inform the Board, in good faith and in the interest of full disclosure, that the entity-level transfer of corporate ownership has now been executed. Specifically:

• Effective May 1, 2026, all 10,000 issued and outstanding shares of Health Works Pharmacy (Nevada Entity ID E44794552024-0; Nevada Business ID NV20243240496) were transferred from Ralph Martinez to Sabir Mohammad Shahid.

• Effective May 1, 2026, Mr. Martinez resigned as sole Director, President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Corporation, and Mr. Shahid was elected to all such positions.

• An Amended List of Officers and Directors will be filed with the Nevada Secretary of State to reflect these changes.

• The Corporation, the pharmacy license, and the Nevada State Business License all remain held by the same entity (Health Works Pharmacy). Only the underlying ownership of the Corporation has changed.

The Change-of-Ownership application currently before the Board reflects this transfer, and we look forward to the Board's formal consideration at the July 2026 meeting. In the meantime, in reliance on your prior written guidance, Mr. Shahid will continue to operate the pharmacy under the Corporation's existing license.

If the Board would prefer that any aspect of this transfer be handled differently, or if any additional documentation would be helpful in connection with the pending application, please let us know at your earliest convenience and we will accommodate accordingly.

Thank you for your continued support and guidance through this transition.

Sincerely,

RALPH MARTINEZ

To: Board of Pharmacy

To Whom it may concern,

On or About Aug 17, 2021, I was served with a notice of Intended Action and Accusation with case # 19-240-RPH-5 with the Board of Pharmacy. It was regarding Controlled Substance Prescriptions (C_2) that were dispensed and delivered to hospice patients from June 10, 2020 - Sept. 28, 2020. I took the verbal orders by phone but failed to state as "Authorization for Emergency Dispensing". All I knew at that time was I need to provide for the needs of those hospice patients who are suffering and in pain. Prescriptions were not signed by the prescriber on time (within 24-72 hours) as this occurred at the height of COVID.

I was given disciplinary action and placed on probation for one year which I already satisfied. I had to pay a fine of $4,500 for the violation and $500 to the Board of Pharmacy, not including lawyer fees.

This was a real wake up call for me. It was such a traumatic experience that soon after, I started working only on part time basis (weekends only) for a year. It gave me time to reflect, to heal, and to review my priorities. I need to be more diligent in my duty as a pharmacist, to serve and obey the law at all times, be accountable to myself & to God and to use this experience to rise up again and be a better pharmacist.

Grateful that soon after that event, the Board of Pharmacy made it compulsory to send all prescriptions (controlled and narcotic medications) via erx only. Electronic prescriptions were an answered prayer and had given me peace of mind.

Thank you & hoping for your kind consideration regarding this matter.

Respectfully yours,

Ma Lourdes J. Jauregui, Rph

BEFORE THE NEVADA STATE BOARD OF PHARMACY

NEVADA STATE BOARD OF PHARMACY, Petitioner, v. TRINITY PHARMACY, Pharmacy License No. PH03287, MA LOURDES JAUREGUI, RPH, Certificate of Registration No. 17035, Respondents.	CASE NOS. 19-240-PH-S 19-240-RPH-S STIPULATION AND ORDER FOR RESPONDENT MA LOURDES JAUREGUI, RPH ONLY

Courtney K. Lee, General Counsel for Petitioner, the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy ("Board"), and Respondent Ma Lourdes Jauregui, RPh ("Jauregui"), Certificate of Registration No. 17035, by and through counsel, Francis C. Flaherty, Esq. of Dyer Lawrence, LLP, HEREBY STIPULATE AND AGREE THAT:

1. The Board has jurisdiction over Respondent Jauregui and this matter.

2. On or about August 17, 2021, Board Staff served Respondent Jauregui with the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation ("Accusation") on file in this matter together with the Statement to Respondent and Notice of Hearing.

3. On or about September 3, 2021, Respondent Jauregui filed her Answer and Notice of Defense through retained counsel, Francis C. Flaherty, Esq.

4. Respondent is aware of the right to seek the advice of counsel in this matter and obtained the advice of counsel prior to entering this Stipulation.

5. Respondent is aware of the right to a hearing on the matters alleged in the Accusation, her right to reconsideration, her right to appeal, and any and all other rights which may be accorded pursuant to NRS Chapter 233B, Nevada Administrative Procedure Act, NRS

Chapter 622A, Administrative Procedure Before Certain Regulatory Bodies, and NRS Chapter 639, Nevada Pharmacy Act.

6. Conditioned on the acceptance of this Stipulation by the Board, and with the exception of the right to challenge any determination that Respondent has failed to comply with the provisions of this Stipulation, Respondent hereby freely and voluntarily waives her rights to a hearing, reconsideration, appeal and any and all other rights related to this action that may be accorded to her by NRS Chapter 233B, Nevada Administrative Procedure Act, NRS Chapter 622A, Administrative Procedure Before Certain Regulatory Bodies, and NRS Chapter 639, Nevada Pharmacy Act.

7. Respondent admits that evidence exists, and that Board staff prosecuting this case could present such evidence at an administrative hearing, to establish a factual basis for certain of the violations alleged in the Accusation, that:

A. Respondent Jauregui was the managing pharmacist of Trinity Pharmacy ("Trinity") during the alleged and relevant timeframes. During an annual Board inspection on or about September 4, 2019, a Board inspector discovered unsigned faxed prescriptions for schedule II controlled substances.

B. Upon further Board investigation, it was discovered from June 10, 2020 to September 28, 2020, forty-two (42) controlled substance schedule II ("CII") prescriptions ("Prescriptions") were dispensed and/or delivered to hospice patients without valid practitioners' handwritten signatures ("Practitioners"). Jauregui's failure to obtain handwritten signatures of Practitioners, and/or verifying the accuracy and completeness of CII Prescriptions violated NRS 453.381(8); NAC 453.420; NAC 453.440; NAC 453.450; NAC 639.945(1); 21 CFR § 1306.11, which also constituted unprofessional conduct.

C. The 42 CII Prescriptions appeared to have been received and notated by Respondent Jauregui as oral orders. However, none of the Prescriptions stated "Authorization for Emergency Dispensing" nor did any of the prescriptions meet legal requirements to qualify as dispensing CIIs by oral authorization in an emergency. Jauregui's failure to notate the prescriptions, satisfy the requirements of an oral emergency prescription, including verifying that the telephoned prescription was from the prescribing practitioner, violated NAC 453.420, and NAC 453.440.

8. These violations are plead with particularity in the Accusation, and are grounds for disciplinary action pursuant to NRS 453.236, NRS 453.241, NRS 639.210(4), (11), (12), and (15), and/or NRS 639.255.

9. In order to resolve this matter without incurring any further costs or the expense associated with a hearing, the Board and Respondent Jauregui stipulate to the following. Respondent Jauregui is placed on probation for a period of one (1) year subject to the following conditions and penalties:

A. Respondent shall accept this Stipulation and Order as a public reprimand regarding her duties and responsibilities as a registered pharmacist;

B. Respondent shall pay a fine of Four Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($4,200.00) for the violations;

C. Respondent shall pay Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) to partially reimburse the Board for recoverable attorney's fees and costs incurred in investigating and prosecuting this matter;

D. Respondent shall complete an additional four (4) hours of continuing education within ninety (90) days of this Order regarding validation of controlled substance prescriptions; and

E. Respondent shall comply with all federal and state statutes and regulations regarding controlled substances and dangerous drugs, and have no additional charges/violations filed against her while on probation.

Upon successful completion of probation, Respondent Jauregui's Certificate of Registration No. 17035 will be fully restored.

10. Any failure by Respondent Jauregui to comply with the terms of this Order may result in issuance by the Executive Secretary of an order to show cause pursuant to NAC 639.965 directing the non-compliant Respondent to appear before the Board at the next regularly-scheduled meeting for a show cause hearing. If such a hearing results in a finding of a violation of this Order by Respondent, the Board may impose additional discipline upon the non-compliant Respondent consistent with the provisions of NRS Chapter 639.

11. General Counsel will present this Stipulation to the Board for approval pursuant to NRS 622.330 at the Board's regularly-scheduled public meeting on October 13, 2021. Respondent will appear telephonically or via Zoom at the meeting to answer questions from the Board Members and/or Board Staff. The Board Members and Staff may discuss and deliberate regarding this Stipulation, even if Respondent or counsel are not present at the meeting.

12. The Board has discretion to accept this Stipulation, but it is not obligated to do so. If this Stipulation is approved by the Board, it shall be a public record pursuant to NRS 622.330 and shall be reported to the National Practitioner Data Bank pursuant to 42 USC § 1396r–2 and 45 CFR Part 60.

13. If the Board rejects any part or all of this Stipulation, and unless they reach an alternative agreement on the record during the hearing, the parties agree that a full hearing on the merits of this matter may be heard by the Board on the same day or at a later date. The terms and admissions herein may not be used or referred to in a full hearing on the merits of this matter.

14. Upon approval of this Stipulation by the Board, Respondent shall pay the fines agreed to herein by cashier's check or certified check or money order made payable to "State of Nevada, Office of the Treasurer," to be received by the Board's Reno office located at 985 Damonte Ranch Parkway – Suite 206, Reno, Nevada 89521, within thirty (30) days of entry of this Order.

15. Upon approval of this Stipulation by the Board, Respondent shall pay the attorney's fees and costs agreed to herein by cashier's check or certified check or money order made payable to "Nevada State Board of Pharmacy," to be received by the Board's Reno office located at 985 Damonte Ranch Parkway – Suite 206, Reno, Nevada 89521, within thirty (30) days of entry of this Order.

16. Subject to the approval of this Stipulation by the Board, the Board and Respondent agree to release one another from any and all additional claims arising from the facts set forth in the Accusation on file herein, whether known or unknown that might otherwise have existed on or before the effective date of this Order.

Respondent has fully considered the charges and allegations contained in the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation in this matter, and the terms of this Stipulation, and has freely and voluntarily agreed to the terms set forth herein, and waived certain rights, as stated herein.

Executive Summary

Inspection Summary

Bravado Pharmaceuticals is a single location 503B outsourcing facility located in Tampa, Florida. The facility is currently nearing the end of the R&D phase for its two formulations, with plans to move into production phase in 2026. Daré Bioscience has contracted with Bravado Pharmaceuticals to compound its proprietary sildenafil cream formulation for women, and with Medvantx, a Kentucky licensed dispensing pharmacy, for patient direct distribution services. Daré's proprietary sildenafil cream formulation is the only topical sildenafil formulation that has been formally evaluated in women through controlled clinical studies. In addition to compounding sildenafil cream, Bravado Pharmaceuticals has plans to provide nicotinamide adenine dinucleotide in an injectable formulation.

Bravado Pharmaceuticals was inspected by Gates Healthcare on December 8th—10th, 2025. The facility is approximately 6500 square feet and consists of a main laboratory area for R&D testing, a nonsterile compounding suite, a dispensing room, a washroom, a visual inspection room, a sterile compounding suite, and a warehouse area. Bravado Pharmaceuticals has not yet brought a product to market and the ability to fully determine compliance with cGMP standards was limited without verifiable product. Inasmuch, areas of new or ongoing development for production readiness have been indicated as partially compliant or non-compliant with notes to this effect provided by the inspector within the report.

Sterile Cleanroom: Facility lacks a Containment Ventilated Enclosure (CVE) in the ISO 7 Classified buffer room for weighing out and mixing nonsterile APIs to prevent contamination. Based on USP <797>, Section 4.2.6 Facilities preparing Category 2 or Category 3 CSPs from nonsterile starting components, presterilization procedures must be performed in a containment ventilated enclosure (CVE) to minimize the risk of airborne contamination.

Sterile Cleanroom: Particle counter is only used for baseline particle count, but not throughout the compounding process. This is required according to 21 CFR Part 211.42(c)(10)(iii) to assess risk of contamination during aseptic processing. Continuous monitoring is the gold standard for ensuring stringent environmental control during and throughout critical operations to prevent batch contamination.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025: CAPA-25006 has been initiated to evaluate the facility to ensure that the equipment, facility, installation, and design are appropriate for aseptic processing.

Compounding Laboratory Design & Staff Training/Competencies

Describe the facility's compounding laboratory design and include a description of the layout, classification, flow, other pertinent details.

The facility has a main laboratory area for R&D with associated equipment. Next to the main laboratory area is a wall that separates individual areas for nonsterile compounding, the filling room, wash room, and sterile compounding suite.

The nonsterile compounding lab is dedicated for compounding sildenafil cream. The nonsterile compounding area is ISO 8 Classified and has an initial room for garbing and a secondary room for weighing out powders and mixing the cream. The nonsterile lab is a single-dedicated lab for sildenafil cream without cross-over. Absent in the nonsterile compounding lab is a balance hood/CVE/powder hood that encloses the balance to be used for weighing out APIs and other components.

The sterile compounding lab is dedicated to preparing NAD+ at the current point in time and is an ISO 7 classified space. The sterile compounding suite consists of an anteroom with a sink on the clean side and autoclave. The buffer room has a 4 foot LAFH, analytical balance, an oven, and a sub-zero freezer.
The facility is currently weighing out nonsterile APIs on a balance located on a steel bench within the ISO 7 buffer room. There is no certified CVE for containment.

Components - Sterile

Controls over the source and quality of components are required, particularly when using non-sterile materials or ingredients when producing sterile compounded drug products. For each of the following, the firm should have written and approved procedures and documentation resulting therefrom. The firm's adherence to written procedures should be verified through observation whenever possible.

1. Appropriate specifications must be established for the components used in each drug product that address the attributes necessary to ensure the quality of the finished drug product such as identity, strength, purity, particle size, sterility, bacterial endotoxin level, or other characteristics.

Compliant

Reviewed SOP S19.008, Receiving of Incoming Materials v3.

2. Each lot of components must be tested to verify identity and evaluated for conformity with appropriate specifications before use unless: the component is an approved finished human drug product; the component was purchased directly from a manufacturer who has registered and listed with FDA under section 510 of the FD&C Act without repacking or other alteration since initial manufacture, or was purchased from a distributor that certifies that the component has not been subject to repacking or other alteration since initial manufacture; the label of each lot of the component has been examined to verify that the component meets required specifications before use; and the shipment's package integrity has been verified upon receipt before use.

Identity testing for API has not been completed as per USP <197> for use in production. Firm relies on the COA.

3. Components (e.g., bulk active ingredients and excipients, but not an approved finished drug product), must be tested to verify identity and evaluated for conformity with appropriate specifications, and, if necessary, depending on intended use, endotoxin level and sterility before use in compounding. Alternatively, a COA can be accepted from the supplier and evaluated to determine whether the lot can be used, provided the reliability of the supplier's analyses has been established at appropriate intervals (i.e., no less frequently than annually for active ingredients and every two years for other components) through appropriate steps to confirm the supplier's test results for those tests relevant to the specifications established for the compounded drug product, and to confirm that the ingredient meets the applicable USP or NF monograph, if one exists; at least one identity test has been conducted to confirm that the component is the one specified in the purchase order; each container or grouping of containers of components is examined to verify appropriate labeling regarding contents; and the shipment's package integrity must be verified upon receipt before use.

Additional Production and Process Controls - Sterile Compounding

Written procedures for production and process control are established and followed to ensure the consistent production of a drug that meets the applicable standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity including documentation that all key process parameters are controlled and that any deviations from the procedures are justified.

1. If a drug product intended to be sterile is not terminally sterilized, it is critical that in-process controls include sterile filtration before filling into the final product container.	Compliant
2. Storing or holding materials during processing (e.g., prior to sterilization; post-sterilization prior to container fill), also called hold times, must be assessed. Hold time(s) for production phases are limited and supported by data and based on an understanding of the associated risk of increased bioburden and increased level of endotoxin. Hold time assessments are performed as part of the process for validating sterility assurance. Hold times not utilized for NAD+ or sildenafil.	N/A
3. Aseptic Drug Processing training: introductory training on aseptic technique, cleanroom behavior, gowning, and procedures covering aseptic manufacturing area operations must be established and conducted, and competencies performed successfully before an individual is permitted to enter the aseptic manufacturing area or conduct operations in a laminar flow hood.	Compliant
4. Further training based on department- specific requirements and individual job descriptions is conducted.	Compliant
5. An individual must pass at least three successful, successive media fill simulations designed to verify the adequacy of their technique and behavior. Simulations of production should be conducted in the same area where production occurs.	Compliant

Private and Confidential. Gates Healthcare Associates, Inc.©

6. Techniques intended to maintain sterility of sterile items and surfaces include the following:

- Sterile materials should be handled only with sterile instruments.
- After initial gowning, sterile gloves should be regularly sanitized during production or, when needed, changed.
- Sterile and non-particle shedding gowning components should be used. Gowning components should be stored such that their sterility is not compromised.
- If an element of a gown is found to be torn or defective, it should be changed immediately.
- Sterile products, containers, closures, or critical surfaces should not directly touch any part of the gown or gloves.
- Personnel should move slowly and deliberately within the cleanroom or hood.
- Personnel should keep their entire body and objects out of the path of unidirectional airflow above containers and products being filled.

7. Procedures for aseptic processing address the following considerations:

- The design of equipment used in aseptic processing should limit the number and complexity of aseptic manipulations and be suitable for its intended use.
- Personnel, material, and process flow are optimized to prevent unnecessary activities that could increase the potential for introducing contaminants to exposed product, container- closures, or the surrounding environment.
- In-process material, including intermediates such as stock solutions, are placed in container-closures that protect the material from the cleanroom environment.
- Container closures holding sterile in-process material are not breached in an environment less than ISO 5.
- Products are transferred under appropriate cleanroom conditions.
- All aseptic manipulations, including processing of sterile materials, filling, and closing (e.g., placement and sealing of stoppers on vials) are performed under unidirectional air flow that is ISO 5 or better.
- Appropriate steps to prepare equipment for sterilization should be established, such as cleaning and use of wrapping that ensures protection while still allowing penetration of the sterilizing agent.

Private and Confidential. Gates Healthcare Associates, Inc.©

8. The validation of sterilization operations (e.g., holding vessels, filling equipment) and periodic verification activities and results must be documented. Specifically: For sterile drug products that are terminally sterilized, validation should demonstrate that the sterilization process achieved at least a 10-6 sterility assurance level (SAL) using an appropriate biological indicator.

- For aseptic processing of sterile drug products (i.e., not subjected to terminal sterilization), validation is demonstrated by conducting media fills simulating the actual production process.
- For aseptic processing (e.g., filling) of sterile powders, validation is demonstrated by conducting media fills simulating the actual production process.
- For sterile drug products that are filter sterilized, prefiltration bioburden and endotoxin limits are established and measured prior to sterile filtration. A pharmaceutical sterilizing-grade filter is used, and filter integrity testing is conducted after each filtration or production run.
- For sterile drug products that are not subjected to overkill terminal sterilization, pre-filtration bioburden limits are established and measured prior to filtration.

Private and Confidential. Gates Healthcare Associates, Inc.©

9. Media fill studies closely simulate aseptic manufacturing operations incorporating, as appropriate, worst- case activities and conditions that provide a challenge to aseptic operations.
The media fill program addresses applicable issues such as the following:
- Factors associated with the longest permitted run of the aseptic processing operation that can pose contamination risk (e.g., operator fatigue, quality of processing environment)
- Representative number, type, and complexity of normal interventions that occur with each run, as well as non- routine interventions and events (e.g., maintenance, stoppages, equipment adjustments)
- Lyophilization, when applicable
- Aseptic assembly of equipment (e.g., at start-up, during processing)
- Number of personnel and their activities
- Representative number of aseptic additions (e.g., charging containers and closures as well as sterile ingredients) or transfers
- Shift changes, breaks, and gown changes (when applicable)
- Type of aseptic equipment disconnections/connections
- Aseptic sample collections
- Operational configurations in the ISO 5 zone, and line speeds (when applicable)
- Weight checks
- Container closure systems (e.g., sizes, type, compatibility with equipment)
- Specific provisions in written procedures relating to aseptic processing (e.g., conditions beyond which discarding of exposed materials in the ISO 5 area or line clearance is mandated)

2) Reliable, meaningful, and specific test methods;

113. An adequate number of batches of each drug product is tested to determine an appropriate expiration date and a record of such data is maintained. Accelerated studies, combined with basic stability information on the components, drug products, and container-closure system, may be used to support tentative expiration dates provided full shelf-life studies are not available and are being conducted. Where data from accelerated studies are used to project a tentative expiration date that is beyond a date supported by actual shelf-life studies, there must be stability studies conducted, including drug product testing at appropriate intervals, until the tentative expiration date is verified or the appropriate expiration date determined.

Reserve samples are retained for 5 years.

2) For an active ingredient in a radioactive drug product, except for nonradioactive reagent kits, the reserve sample is retained for:

118. An appropriately identified reserve sample that is representative of each lot or batch of drug product is retained and stored under conditions consistent with product labeling. The reserve sample is stored in the same immediate container-closure system in which the drug product is marketed or in one that has essentially the same characteristics. The reserve sample consists of at least twice the quantity necessary to perform all the required tests, except those for sterility and pyrogens. Except for those for drug products described in (2) below, reserve samples from representative sample lots or batches selected by acceptable statistical procedures are examined visually at least once a year for evidence of deterioration unless visual examination would affect the integrity of the reserve sample. Any evidence of reserve sample deterioration is investigated in accordance with §211.192. The result of the examination is recorded and maintained with other stability data on the drug product. Reserve samples of compressed medical gases need not be retained. The retention time is as follows:

Re: Response to the Audit by Gates Healthcare conducted December 8-10, 2025.

Introduction

Between Monday 08Dec2025 and Wednesday 10Dec2025, Gates Healthcare representatives Michelle Woosley, PharmD, MBA and Mala Cullipher, RPh, CPh conducted a 503B Outsourcing Facility Inspection of the Bravado Pharmaceuticals (BP) policies/procedures/systems. The report was updated with CAPAs and provided to Bravado on 18Dec2025. At the time of the inspection, BP working on a sterile and a nonsterile product. No product distribution had been initiated.

Status of Products in Development

Sterile – NAD+ 100 mg/mL – This product was awaiting completion of method validation activities at a 3rd party laboratory, ARL Bio Pharma. A master batch record was provided for review during the inspection. Once validation was completed, process validation batches were compounded and placed on stability.

Non-Sterile – 3.6% Sildenafil Cream – Manufacturing of non-sterile product validation batches was in progress. This first of these batches was produced on Friday 05Dec2025 and, as a result, accountability had not been calculated, and the batch record had not yet been reviewed. The in-process batch record was provided for review upon request of the inspectors, with the explanation of its status. Batch records were reviewed, but batches did not pass all required specifications. An investigation was conducted and the batches discarded. New validation batches are scheduled to be produced in May upon completion required CAPAs.

The following is a summary of the findings and responses to those items deemed as "unknown or partially compliant" or "non-compliant". The item being evaluated is in bold, followed by the inspector's observations in regular font. Bulleted items provide updates to the items addressed that were added in response to the observations. Please note that the following categories had no observations and thus are not addressed in this section.

- Quality Control Unit
- Personnel Qualifications
- Facilities & Equipment Systems – Sterile
- Production System – Non-Sterile and Sterile Compounding
- Additional Production and Process Controls – Sterile Compounding
- Labeling and Packaging Operations
- Complaint Handling
- Returned Drug Products & Salvaging

Equipment Requirements

#30. Equipment used in the manufacture, processing, packing, or holding of a drug product is of appropriate design, adequate size, and suitably located to facilitate operations for its intended use and for its cleaning and maintenance.

Sterile Cleanroom: Facility lacks a Containment Ventilated Enclosure (CVE) in the ISO 7 Classified buffer room for weighing out and mixing nonsterile APIs to prevent contamination. Based on USP <797>, Section 4.2.6 Facilities preparing Category 2 or Category 3 CSPs from nonsterile starting components, presterilization procedures must be performed in a containment ventilated enclosure (CVE) to minimize the risk of airborne contamination.

Sterile Cleanroom: Particle counter is only used for baseline particle count, but not throughout the compounding process. This is required according to 21 CFR Part 211.42(c)(10)(iii) to assess risk of contamination during aseptic processing. Continuous monitoring is the gold standard for ensuring stringent environmental control during and throughout critical operations to prevent batch contamination.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025: CAPA-25006 has been initiated to evaluate the facility to ensure that the equipment, facility, installation, and design are appropriate for aseptic processing.

Target Completion Date: 16Jan2026

- Continuous monitoring with the particle counter during all compounding process activities is now required and documented on an EM monitoring form.
- Bravado Pharmaceuticals respectfully notes that, as a registered 503B Outsourcing Facility, our operations are governed by FDA CGMP regulations under 21 CFR Parts 210 and 211, and not by USP <797>, which applies to 503A pharmacy compounding. Accordingly, the USP <797> §4.2.6 citation referenced in this observation does not constitute an applicable regulatory requirement for our facility. At the time of the inspection, Bravado was operating in full compliance with the applicable CGMP standards governing our cleanroom and buffer room environments.

  However, Bravado acknowledges the spirit of the auditor's concern regarding particulate control during API weighing activities. As our facility was already planning an extended operational pause during the stability study waiting period — during which no compounding activities would occur. We elected to use this downtime proactively and have ordered a HEPA-filtered enclosure to be installed in the ISO 7 buffer room during this shutdown period. This will both address the auditor's observation and better position the facility for future product development.

  Following installation of the enclosure, the cleanroom will undergo recertification by a qualified contractor to ensure all environmental parameters, including air pressure differentials, HEPA filter integrity, air changes per hour, etc. meet the required specifications before any compounding activities resume. No production or testing operations will occur in the affected space until recertification is complete and documented.

Component & Drug Product Containers/Closures

#42. Components and drug product containers and closures shall at all times be handled and stored in a manner to prevent contamination.

In the warehouse location, although items are labeled as released or quarantined, tubs, holding tanks, and boxes containing quarantined materials are intermingled with released items. Released and quarantined components, containers and closures must be physically separated and organized in clearly designated holding areas to prevent mixups.

According to 211.42 Design and Construction features, "Any buildings used in the manufacture, processing, packing or holding of a drug product shall be of suitable size, construction and location to facilitate cleaning, maintenance, and proper operations."

Firm must define areas and clearly label designated areas for Quarantine, Hold, Rejected and Sequestered materials and store such materials in these distinct locations to prevent mix-ups.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025:CAPA-25001 has been initiated to evaluate how to re-organize the current warehouse space to allow for proper separation / segregation of materials to prevent mix-ups.

Target Completion Date: 16Jan2026

- CAPA-25001 – The warehouse was reorganized to ensure physical segregation of released and quarantined materials while still allowing personnel to maneuver through the space. The CAPA was closed on 19Jan2026.

#44. Each container or grouping of containers for components or drug product containers, or closures is identified with a distinctive code for each lot in each shipment received.

This code is used in recording the disposition of each lot. Each lot is appropriately identified as to its status (i.e., quarantined, approved, or rejected).

Observed one API tub for sildenafil was not labeled as 'Released or Quarantine' sitting on lab shelf; no deviation written at the time of the inspection. This would increase the change of mix-ups as it is not labeled by quality as released to production. It was explained to inspector, MC that the label may have fallen off. Advised to do a change control of the procedure and document in SOP to place the label in a location which is secure.

Recommendation: Status identification of all containers released to production must be clearly marked.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025: Deviation opened during inspection to address deficiency.

- DID-25013 was initiated on 08Dec2025 and closed on 16Dec2026. The tag was located and reaffixed to the container during the inspection. CAPA1-DID-25013 was initiated on 16Dec2015 to determine a more effective way of affixing the labels; it was closed on 06Mar2026. Closure was delayed due to multiple deliveries of large quantities of material and personnel's desire to test the new method and ensure it would hold through multiple moves of the containers.

#48. Representative samples of each shipment of each lot is collected for testing or examination. The number of containers to be sampled, and the amount of material to be taken from each container, is based upon appropriate criteria such as statistical criteria for component variability, confidence levels, and degree of precision desired, the past quality history of the supplier, and the quantity needed for analysis and reserve where required by § 211.170.

Reviewed SOP Q19.006, Sampling of GMP Materials v3. Section 4.2 indicated the sample amounts recommended by the ANSI table is considered a minimum & QA determines the amount of sample for each applicable component based on the amount of material received.

Sterile Product: Method verification for representative sample is completed by viewing COA for NAD plus which describes identity testing completed by repackager using USP <197>, but review of the COA by Quality is not well documented by the firm.

No deficiencies noted with the nonsterile (sildenafil) materials.

Firm states the FTIR machine is in need of repair.

- FTIR has been repaired. A protocol for re-qualification was written, approved by QA and executed.
- PIC has been reviewing the CoA for all incoming raw materials. He will initial and date each CoA upon completion of his review.

#52. Each lot of a component, drug product container, or closure with potential for microbiological contamination that is objectionable in view of its intended use is subjected to microbiological tests before use.

Requested Water activity verification for Sildenafil API used in non-sterile compounding-not in Monograph provided. Microbiological testing before use in compounding must occur according to 211.84.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025: CAPA-25003 has been initiated to conduct a risk assessment on the need for microbial testing of Sildenafil Citrate as guided by FDA Guidance, Microbiological Quality Considerations in Non-sterile Drug Manufacturing, and 21CFR211.84(d)(4). Actions will be performed based on the outcome of risk assessment.

Target Completion Date: 02Jan2026

- CAPA-25003 was closed on 19Jan2026 and determined micro testing should be performed. CAPA-25007 was initiated to complete USP<61> for TAMC and TYMC and USP<62> testing for C. albicans, P. aeruginosa, and S. aureus. (Testing was requested for the same organisms as required for the drug product.) The results from ARL Bio Pharma were released on 11Feb2026 and the CAPA closed the same day as all tests met specification.

#54. Components, drug product containers, and closures approved for use is rotated so that the oldest approved stock is used first. Deviation from this requirement is permitted if such deviation is temporary and appropriate.

There does not appear to be a FEFO methodology in the warehouse as released and quarantined material is on the same side of the room.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025: CAPA-25001 has been initiated to evaluate how to re-organize the current warehouse space to allow for ease of material status identification.

Target Completion Date: 16Jan2026

- At the time of inspection, we had only a single shipment (all the same lot) of each raw material on-site. Thus, FEFO methodology was not applicable.
- CAPA-25001 – The warehouse was reorganized to ensure physical segregation of released and quarantined materials. This will also be useful if we have more than one lot/shipment of a given material. The CAPA was closed on 19Jan2026.

#55. Components, drug product containers, and closures is retested or reexamined, as appropriate, for identity, strength, quality, and purity and approved or rejected by the quality control unit in accordance with § 211.84 as necessary, e.g., after storage for long periods or after exposure to air, heat or other conditions that might adversely affect the component, drug product container, or closure.

Per SOP Q19.006, Sampling of GMP Materials v3, retained samples of drug products should be visually inspected annually for deterioration; retained samples of other materials should be reviewed at least every two years. No indication in the SOP related to retesting or reexamination of raw materials after storage for long periods of time or other conditions that might impact the materials.

This 503B OSF has mostly R&D and ongoing testing and no production at this time. Bravado has not yet had the need to implement the requirements of this procedure as the materials intended for marketed / commercial products have not reached its routine inspection time per SOP Q19.006.

- Retesting/reexamination requirements are being added to the SOP Q19.006 in v.4.

#61. Does the facility have or provide medical gases? If so, medical gas containers and closures must meet the following requirements:

Facility has nitrogen tank medical gas for Filter used for Filter Integrity testing. SOP M25.028 demonstrates bubble point testing performed manually, however firm has not updated to use of Nitrogen for Filter integrity testing and all the requirements for use of medical gases.

Recommendation: Update SOP to meet standards.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025: CAPA-25005 has been initiated to review the use of Nitrogen in the facility and procedures will be created or updated, as needed.

Target Completion Date: 02Jan2026

CAPA-25005 was closed on 19Jan2026. The review found that bubble point testing is performed in the general laboratory, post-use for the filter, with a calibrated regulator to measure the pressure. The filter is re-wetted with the appropriate solution immediately prior to testing and discarded afterward. (The vendor does a pre-test and provides the result on the CoA for each filter. Filters are received sterile.) The gas has no product contact and is not used in the compounding of the drug product. Thus, the N_2 should not be considered a medical gas and testing requirements do not apply.

Production and Process Controls

#63. Written production and process control procedures is followed in the execution of the various production and process control functions and is documented at the time of performance. Any deviation from the written procedures is recorded and justified.

Facility is in preliminary phases of production, still performing R&D functions for the 503B side.

Sterile Compounding Observation: Pharmacist demonstrating simulation of media fill was noted to simulate aseptic filling of amber vials without a needle. This is an objectionable practice. Please review aseptic guidance by the FDA.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025: CAPA-25004 has been initiated to review the practices within the aseptic operations. Additional actions will be assigned to implement changes and improvements identified.

Target Completion Date: 16Jan2026

- Regarding the use of a filling needle during manual aseptic filling, Bravado respectfully notes that current FDA guidance does not explicitly mandate the use of a filling needle for manual filling operations, provided that the process ensures sterility, prevents contamination, and is appropriately validated. Bravado does not concede that the absence of a filling needle constitutes a deficiency under applicable CGMP requirements. However, in the interest of continuous improvement and rigorous scientific documentation, Bravado commits to evaluating the current filling configuration to the extent possible during the next smoke study which is projected for June 2026, and to update our processes accordingly based upon the results.
- Validation batches are currently on stability and are bring tested to ensure product quality and stability.

#64. Written production and control procedures include the following, which are designed to assure that the drug products produced have the identity, strength, quality, and purity they purport or are represented to possess:

b) Components for drug product manufacturing is weighed, measured, or subdivided as appropriate. If a component is removed from the original container to another, the new container is identified with the following information:

1) Component name or item code;

2) Receiving or control number;

3) Weight or measure in new container;

4) Batch for which component was dispensed, including its product name, strength, and lot number

c) Weighing, measuring, or subdividing operations for components is adequately supervised. Each container of component dispensed to manufacturing is examined by a second person to assure that:

1) The component was released by the quality control unit;

2) The weight or measure is correct as stated in the batch production records;

3) The containers are properly identified. If the weighing, measuring, or subdividing operations are performed by automated equipment under § 211.68, only one person is needed to assure paragraphs (c)(1), (c)(2), and (c)(3) of this section.

Manual weighing supervised by PIC, however weigh balances not located in CVE for sterile or non-sterile weighing.

Nonsterile compounding suite is a dedicated suite for sildenafil cream only. Facility is choosing to not place a CVE inside the nonsterile lab where weighing is taking place.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025: CAPA-25004 has been initiated to review the practices within the aseptic operations. Additional actions will be assigned to implement changes and improvements identified.

Target Completion Date: 16Jan2026

- Bravado Pharmaceuticals respectfully notes that, as a registered 503B Outsourcing Facility, our operations are governed by FDA CGMP regulations under 21 CFR Parts 210 and 211. The requirement for a Containment Ventilated Enclosure (CVE) during weighing operations is not explicitly mandated under applicable CGMP standards for a facility of our classification, particularly in the context of our dedicated non-sterile sildenafil cream suite. The decision not to place a CVE in the applicable weighing area was a deliberate and considered facility design choice. The suite is used exclusively for a single non-hazardous product, minimizing cross-contamination risk. No regulatory citation applicable to our 503B classification explicitly requires a CVE in this configuration.
- In regard to the sterile suite, the value of additional protection during weighing and mixing operations was noted. A balance enclosure PEC was ordered, but delivery was delayed and is not anticipated at the end of April. Following installation, the room will be re-certified, after which weighing and compounding activities will resume in this area.

#68 To assure batch uniformity and integrity of drug products, written procedures is established and followed that describe the in- process controls, and tests, or examinations to be conducted on appropriate samples of in-process materials of each batch. Such control procedures are established to monitor the output and to validate the performance of those manufacturing processes that may be responsible for causing variability in the characteristics of in-process material and the drug product. Such control procedures shall include, but are not limited to, the following, where appropriate:

1) Tablet or capsule weight variation;

2) Disintegration time;

3) Adequacy of mixing to assure uniformity and homogeneity;

4) Dissolution time and rate;

5) Clarity, completeness, or pH of solutions.

6) Bioburden testing.

For non-sterile compounding testing of Sildenafil Vaginal Cream 30 gram tube for final production, facility has a sample thief (long tube); all placed in stainless steel tanks. The Sildenafil MBR was approved on 04DEC2025. A copy of the approved MBR was provided for review during the audit.

QC In-Process: visual inspection, sample thief checks various things--assay, final bulk, full testing spectrum. Bioburden testing is not complete for this batch # 25026 and there are not notes in the EBR under Batch Accountability.

Signed Dec 4, 2025.

- The inspectors were informed at the time of the review that the accountability had not yet been completed because batch production had only finished Friday 05Dec2025, the workday immediately before the start of the inspection (Monday 08Dec2025). Batch accountability was completed and the batch record reviewed.

#70. In-process materials is tested for identity, strength, quality, and purity as appropriate, and approved or rejected by the quality control unit, during the production process, e.g., at commencement or completion of significant phases or after storage for long periods.

For Sterile NAD plus injection which is still in R&D phase, Potency testing T0-T90, etc is not complete yet. No Microbial Enumeration tests have been completed for Sildenafil cream at the time of this inspection.

Sildenafil Batch 25026 was completed on 05DEC2025 and it was noted that the EBR was incomplete because it was pending batch reconciliation, PIC review, and QA review. Microbial samples were taken from the bulk cream to be sent to an outside laboratory for testing. Microbial testing takes approximately 3 weeks to complete.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025: All sildenafil batch testing results will be reviewed and verified that it meets pre-established product specification before the product will be released for distribution.

- Sterile NAD stability testing is on-going. All T0 and T30 testing met specification for the 5°C storage condition. Testing includes, but is not limited to, assay NAD, benzyl alcohol assay, sterility, endotoxin, etc.
- Sildenafil batch 25026 EBR was completed and reviewed by Bravado personnel. Batch disposition was determined based upon the results of the chemical and microbiological testing.

#73. Does the facility prepare non-sterile compounded products or utilized a non-sterile to sterile process? If so, appropriate written procedures, designed to prevent objectionable microorganisms in drug products not required to be sterile, is established and followed.

Nonsterile Product: Water content of the sildenafil API (USP <61, 62>) and baseline AET data on the API. Microbial enumeration test pending from ARL labs for Sildenafil 3.6% R&D Batch #25026.

Microbial testing is performed according the FDA guidance, Microbiogical Quality Considerations in Non-Sterile Drug Manufacturing (Draft September 2021) and USP <1111>, Microbiogical Quality Considerations in Non-Sterile Products, requirements for the non-sterile product. Microbial samples have been taken from the bulk cream to be sent to an outside laboratory for testing. Microbial testing takes approximately 3 weeks to complete.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025: All results of the sildenafil testing batch will be reviewed and verified that it meets pre-established product specification before the product will be released for distribution.

- PPQ samples for the non-sterile product were tested by an independent lab. While testing confirmed negative results for S. aureus, P. aeruginosa, and C. albicans, not all samples met pre-established specifications for total microbial count. Bravado takes these results seriously and responded accordingly. Formal investigations (INV-26001 for the micro results and INV-26002 for manufacturing policies and procedures) were completed and process changes/improvements were identified. In recognition of the significance of these results and in keeping with Bravado's commitment to product quality and patient safety, the decision was made to repeat all three validation batches in their entirety following implementation of the CAPAs. No non-sterile sildenafil product will be released for distribution until all three repeat validation batches have been successfully manufactured with the revised processes, tested, reviewed, and formally approved by QA.

#74. Does the facility prepare sterile compounded products and utilized sterile compounding processes? If so, appropriate written procedures, designed to prevent microbiological contamination of drug products purporting to be sterile, is established and followed. Such procedures includes validation of all aseptic and sterilization processes.

Observed sterile processes and procedures within the cleanroom. PIC observed in the cleanroom and noted to move in and out of the PEC 5 area frequently without consistently disinfecting gloves. Staging was lacking which caused excessive movement around the ISO 7 space and into the PEC 5 hood. Recommended a review of the formulation procedure to improve efficiency and reduce risk of contamination.

During the observed smoke study, process does not include a needle at the end of the tubing from the repeater pump into the vials. This may pose a risk to the finished product.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025: CAPA-25004 has been initiated to review the practices within the aseptic operations. Additional actions will be assigned to implement changes and improvements identified. Target Completion Date: 16Jan2026

- Regarding the movement of the PIC during the cleanroom observation, the observation was conducted under non-routine practices with only the PIC in the cleanroom (and the inspector with her escort observing through the window). Under normal compounding conditions, all sterile operations are performed with two trained personnel working in coordinated tandem which helps to minimize unnecessary movement, reduce PEC exit/re-entry, and help ensure routine re-sanitization of the gloves is performed.
- To strengthen our processes, Bravado hired a consultant (Mitch Garber from MG Aseptic and Quality Assurance Consulting) to review sterile procedures with the PIC and Bravado staff and recommend potential improvements. The consultant was on-site 12Jan2026.
- Regarding the use of a filling needle during manual aseptic filling, please see our update to #63, which is not repeated here for the sake of brevity.

#75. Written procedures is established and followed prescribing a system for reprocessing batches that do not conform to standards or specifications and the steps to be taken to ensure that the reprocessed batches will conform with all established standards, specifications, and characteristics.

Reprocessing discussed with Quality Lead. No current procedure for reprocessing which should include defined criteria as to when reprocessing is appropriate versus documenting a batch deviation. Instances of reprocessing have occurred without impact to the API mixture or finished preparation. Deviation/investigation into the incident not provided.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025: Deviation DID-25016 was opened to document the batch failure and any actions to be taken to prevent future recurrence. Target Completion Date: 22Dec2025

- The auditor was informed at the time of the visit by the Quality Lead that no re-processing had occurred during her tenure at Bravado.
- The conclusion reached by the auditor was not aligned with the deviation. Per the deviation, "The failure did not affect the process, but did impact the batch. The batch production was halted and the batch discarded." Re-processing was not allowed.

#76. Reprocessing is not performed without the review and approval of the quality control unit.

R&D phases at this time. Recommend a Reprocessing SOP if not available.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025:CAPA-25002 has been initiated to create or revise procedure to indicate that Bravado's policy on reprocessing. Target Completion Date:

- CAPA-25002 was closed on 19Jan2026 after a review of procedures as reprocessing was covered by SOP M19.001 v. 3.1 for batch production and SOP S19.008 for damaged materials.
- After the closure, it was determined that we should separate client project from Bravado projects so SOP M19.001 was updated. M19.001 v. 3.1 which was provided for review during the inspection states the following (copied from the SOP):

Reprocessing

2.1. In the event a particular batch does not conform to established specifications and requires reprocessing, written procedures shall be established in accordance with the applicable sponsor's directive to ensure that the reprocessed batch will conform to all established standards, specifications, and characteristics.

2.2. QA and the client will review and approve all reprocessing procedures prior to use.

SOP M19.001 v. 4 was updated to include the following language (copied from the SOP):

Reprocessing

2.1. In the event a particular batch does not conform to established specifications and requires reprocessing, written procedures shall be established in accordance with the applicable sponsor's directive to ensure that the reprocessed batch will conform to all established standards, specifications, and characteristics. Bravado QA and the client will review and approve all reprocessing procedures prior to use.

2.2. Re-processing will not be allowed for Bravado sponsored batches, unless the following are completed:

2.2.1. A risk assessment which includes a thorough investigation into the root cause of the nonconformity.

2.2.2. A formal procedure for the re-processing is pre-approved by QA.

2.2.3. The re-processed batch undergoes full, rigorous testing to ensure it meets all specifications.

#80. Labels and other labeling materials for each different drug product, strength, dosage form, or quantity of contents is stored separately with suitable identification. Access to the storage area is limited to authorized personnel.

Nonsterile Product: Visually verified tubing labels and secondary packaging for sildenafil cream. Primary packing labels are pre-printed in advance on empty tubes.

Sterile Product: NAD+ product labels are still in development. Currently using cut labeling for testing batches.

- For the non-sterile sildenafil cream, primary and secondary labels are pre-printed on empty tubes and cartons, respectively. Labels are visually verified for accuracy prior to use.
- For the sterile NAD+ product, cut labeling was used exclusively for testing and method suitability batches during the pre-production phase. This labeling was stored separately from commercial labeling materials in a controlled and access-restricted area. The NAD+ production label design has since been developed and approved. Labels will be visually verified before use. A formalized batch record for sterile product labeling, including full accountability documentation, has been written and is awaiting finalization pending qualification of the Smart Jet Core Printer.

#83-2) Use of appropriate electronic or electromechanical equipment to conduct a 100-percent examination for correct labeling during or after completion of finishing operations; or

Nonsterile Product: No electronic or electromechanical equipment utilized; manual process.

Sterile Product: Labeling not documented on NAD+ Batch Record (testing batch); the Smart Jet Core Printer to be used for the sterile production batch is new and has not been brought online to date.

- Please note that labeling documentation was a separate form that was not requested during the inspection. In order to improve our process and ensure compliance, a more formalized record has been developed and is awaiting qualification of the Smart Jet Core Printer to finalize.
- The Smart Jet Core Printer was a new piece of equipment that had not yet been brought online at the time of the inspection. Qualification of this equipment is currently in progress and is projected to be completed before the end of May. This printer will be used to print lot numbers and dates on labeling materials for which all other information is pre-printed.

#83-3) Use of visual inspection to conduct a 100-percent examination for correct labeling during or after completion of finishing operations for hand-applied labeling. Such examination is performed by one person and independently verified by a second person.

Nonsterile Product: Visually observed the sildenafil cream pre-printed tubes are 100% visually verified for accuracy.

Unable to confirm the examination is performed by two people as per the SOP; facility did not produce a batch during the inspection.

Sterile Product: No current written or active process for label visual inspection for the sterile injection (pre-production phase).

- SOP M25.021, "Visual Inspection and Application of Product Labels" was included in the SOP list provided to the inspectors but was not requested for review during the inspection. This SOP outlines Bravado's procedure, requiring 100% visual inspection of labeling materials.

#84. Printing devices on, or associated with, manufacturing lines used to imprint labeling upon the drug product unit label or case is monitored to assure that all imprinting conforms to the print specified in the batch production record.

Sterile Product Only: SOP M25.045 Operation, Cleaning, and Maintenance of the Smart-Jet Core Printer was provided; not in operation at this current time; new piece of equipment.

- The Smart Jet Core Printer was a new piece of equipment that had not yet been brought online at the time of the inspection. Qualification of this equipment is currently in progress and is projected to be completed before the end of May.

Compounding Laboratory Design & Staff Training/Competencies

#10. Perform hand hygiene:

• Clean underneath fingernails under warm running water using a disposable nail cleaner.

• Keeping your hands above the level of your elbows, wash hands starting at the fingers and working down the forearms to the elbows with soap and water for at least 30 seconds. Time the washing using a clock or timer located near and visible when at the sink.

• Do not use a brush to scrub your skin, this will create more skin shedding.

• Do not shake water off your hands. Keep hands above the level of your elbows so water does not run down and drip off your fingers.

• Using low-lint disposable towels or wipers, dry completely from your hands down to elbows.

Observed: PIC did not perform hand hygiene down to his elbows; only to his wrists.

 # 13. Donning garb.

- Don dedicated shoes or shoe covers.
- Don dedicated sterile scrubs and bunny suit or equivalent garb that prevents skin exposure.
- Don a surgical mask.
- Don a head cover and/or hood to cover all hair and ears. Check in the mirror to ensure all hair is contained and covered.
- Don shoe covers/knee-high booties over each shoe while stepping over the line of demarcation (LOD), taking care that the shoe does not touch the floor on the clean side of the LOD and the covered shoe does not touch the floor on the dirty side of the line of demarcation.
- Repeat with the other shoe.

Observed: PIC donned a sterile coveralls. Had difficulty with not allowing the coverall feet to touch the ground before putting it on. Recommended usage of a bench and more practice to ensure sterility. The coveralls are being donned on the "clean" side of the line of demarcation.

- Bravado maintains a rigorous and comprehensive cleanroom personnel competency program. The first step of this program is the performance of hand hygiene and gowning with a glove fingertip test after each replicate. Each individual must pass this test three consecutive times before he/she is authorized to perform any compounding activities in the cleanroom. This program applies to all compounding personnel without exception, including the PIC and requires re-certification at least once per year.
- Per the suggestion of the inspector, a stainless-steel stool was added to the "clean" side of the anteroom that will allow personnel to sit while gowning.
- Hand-hygiene and gowning process was reviewed with the PIC as part of the consultation with Mitch Garber from MG Aseptic and Quality Assurance Consulting 12Jan2026.

Components – Sterile

 # 2. Each lot of components must be tested to verify identity and evaluated for conformity with appropriate specifications before use unless: the component is an approved finished human drug product; the component was purchased directly from a manufacturer who has registered and listed with FDA under section 510 of the FD&C Act without repacking or other alteration since initial manufacture, or was purchased from a distributor that certifies that the component has not been subject to repacking or other alteration since initial manufacture; the label of each lot of the component has been examined to verify that the component meets required specifications before use; and the shipment's package integrity has been verified upon receipt before use.

Identity testing for API has not been completed as per USP <197> for use in production. Firm relies on the COA.

- Bravado acknowledges that at the time of inspection, API identity testing had not yet been completed. The NAD+ 100 mg/mL sterile validation batches were subsequently compounded and released to the stability program on an at-risk basis, but no batches have been produced that will be released for distribution. Prior to distribution of any product, Bravado will ensure that identity testing is completed, as well as full confirmation of drug product conformation, and approved by Bravado QA.

3. Components (e.g., bulk active ingredients and excipients, but not an approved finished drug product), must be tested to verify identity and evaluated for conformity with appropriate specifications, and, if necessary, depending on intended use, endotoxin level and sterility before use in compounding. Alternatively, a COA can be accepted from the supplier and evaluated to determine whether the lot can be used, provided the reliability of the supplier's analyses has been established at appropriate intervals (i.e., no less frequently than annually for active ingredients and every two years for other components) through appropriate steps to confirm the supplier's test results for those tests relevant to the specifications established for the compounded drug product, and to confirm that the ingredient meets the applicable USP or NF monograph, if one exists; at least one identity test has been conducted to confirm that the component is the one specified in the purchase order; each container or grouping of containers of components is examined to verify appropriate labeling regarding contents; and the shipment's package integrity must be verified upon receipt before use.

At least one identity has not been completed for API (NAD+).

- API identity testing will be completed prior to batch production. Please see the response above.

Equipment, Containers, and Closures – Sterile

#5. Appropriate criteria for containers and closures is established to ensure that drug product containers and closures used for compounded drug products are suitable for each particular drug product for which they will be used.

In R&D phase. No study in extractables and leachables.

- At the time of the inspection, Bravado was in the pre-production phase, and a formal E&L study had not yet been initiated. Bravado recognizes that a completed and documented E&L program is a prerequisite to commercial product release and that appropriate container closure suitability criteria must be established and verified before the product is distributed. Accordingly, the extractables and leachables data for the vials and septa are currently under review to design the appropriate testing program. based on applicable FDA guidance and USP <661> and <1664> requirements as appropriate for the intended product and container closure system.
- Completion of the E&L program is incorporated into the overall NAD+ product development timeline and will be required as a condition of product release authorization. No NAD+ product will be certified for commercial distribution until the E&L study has been completed and approved by QA.

#6. Appropriate procedures are established for testing the containers and closures at the time they are selected to determine whether they meet the criteria for use; the tests and results must be documented.

Dry heat oven run reviewed for glassware. Not documented on the batch record.

- Oven runs are documented in a logbook specific to the instrument. Per the SOP, each run is assigned a unique identifier which was also recorded in the batch record, providing the required traceability. The batch record will be updated to include additional details from the dry heat oven run.

#7. As part of the selection process integrity testing of the drug product container closure system is performed to verify its ability to maintain the quality of the finished drug product and sterility over the expiry period. Integrity testing should be performed again if the supplier or specifications of the container/closure is changed.

CCIT has not been completed for the sterile product to date because they are waiting for the method of suitability test to be complete from ARL. This is slated to be conducted as per their contract with ARL. Unable to locate an SOP on this process.

- CCIT is a product quality testing parameter that is performed as part of the stability program for sterile drug products and outsourced to an approved vendor. As such, CCIT is governed by Bravado's Stability Program SOP Q22.035 Version 2 (effective 30Oct2025) which explicitly identifies Container Closure Integrity Testing as a required stability test for sterile products under Section 5.2.3.11.

  The absence of a dedicated standalone CCIT SOP does not represent a procedural gap, as the requirement is fully captured within the stability program framework where it appropriately resides alongside all other sterile product quality testing parameters.

  CCIT is currently being tested at ARL Bio Pharma who performs the test per USP <1207> as part of the on-going stability testing.

#8. Procedures for storage of sterilized containers or closures is established to minimize the risk of contamination and to maintain sterility. Retesting or re- examination required if exposed to conditions that may affect the integrity of the containers/closures.

No comments given by inspector.

- All sterile materials are stored in their original containers, and all packaging is inspected prior to use to ensure sterility as part of routine procedure for all materials entering the clean room.

Environmental Monitoring and Controls of Compounding Areas

#9. Procedures include establishing the validity of the microbiological media including the preparation, sterilization, and growth potential of the media used in performing tests, including environmental and personnel monitoring.

Utilizes a positive control during media fill (TSB) but not for surface sampling or gown sampling plates.

- Growth promotion testing is performed on contact plates by ARL Bio Pharma for Bravado. These plates are used for air, surface, and gown sampling, as well as glove fingertip testing.

Drug Product Inspection & Expiry Dating

#92. Packaged and labeled products is examined during finishing operations to provide assurance that containers and packages in the lot have the correct label.

Sterile Product: A review of 100% of the NAD plus Injection labels has not been accounted for on the Batch record for product sent for Method suitability.

- For method suitability, a temporary label was used and only the number of labels required was printed.
- A formalized batch record for labeling of sterile products, including accountability, has been written. It is waiting approval of the Smart Jet Printer qualification before finalizing.

#95. To assure that a drug product meets applicable standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity at the time of use, it shall bear an expiration date determined by appropriate stability testing described in § 211.166.

Nonsterile Product: Sildenafil cream has established expiration date; Sterile Product: In R&D phase at this time; stability testing still pending.

- Stability testing is currently on-going for the sterile product. The 30d timepoint was completed in early April.

#96. Expiration dates is related to any storage conditions stated on the labeling, as determined by stability studies described in § 211.166.

Nonsterile Product: Sildenafil cream has established expiration date; Sterile Product: In R&D phase at this time; stability testing still pending.

- Stability testing is currently on-going for the sterile product. The 30d timepoint was completed in early April.

#98. Expiration dates shall appear on labeling in accordance with the requirements of § 201.17 of this chapter. Homeopathic drug products is exempt from the requirements of this section.

Nonsterile Product: Sildenafil cream has established expiration date; Sterile Product: In R&D phase at this time; stability testing still pending.

- Stability testing is currently on-going for the sterile product. The 30d timepoint was completed in early April.

Warehouse & Distribution Procedures

#103. Written procedures is established, and followed, describing the distribution of drug products. They shall include:

1) A procedure whereby the oldest approved stock of a drug product is distributed first. Deviation from this requirement is permitted if such deviation is temporary and appropriate.

2) A system by which the distribution of each lot of drug product can be readily determined to facilitate its recall if necessary.

The facility has a GTIN set-up that will allow them to create a barcode for each batch and lot number. The facility is still developing their distribution procedures while being in the pre-production phase. S25.015, Distribution of 503B Products is lacking details on product tracking and tracing of distributed lots, BUDs quantity, etc. for traceability and recalls. Currently, the firm is keeping manual records of all processes and procedures. Lacking electronic document control.

CORRECTIVE ACTION PENDING 12-18-2025: The information can be found in Appendix A: lot distributed, quantity distributed, consignee, date shipped, tracking number, to allow for product tracking and tracing. The procedure will be revised to provide further clarify of the requirement within the body of the procedure.

- S25.015 was updated to include directions for use of Appendix A.

General Requirements

#104. The establishment of any specifications, standards, sampling plans, test procedures, or other laboratory control mechanisms required by this subpart, including any change in such specifications, standards, sampling plans, test procedures, or other laboratory control mechanisms, is drafted by the appropriate organizational unit and reviewed and approved by the quality control unit. The requirement in this subpart is followed and is documented at the time of performance. Any deviation from the written specifications, standards, sampling plans, test procedures, or other laboratory control mechanisms is recorded and justified.

Sterile Product: Environmental sampling such as Viable air sampling and surface sampling is completed by Production personnel. Production cannot monitor their own work. Best for QC to conduct the sampling. According to Q19.009, QA is responsible for Material Control compliance as stated in line 3 regarding Sampling.

- The individual who was performing EM sampling was not production personnel. He was a technician that was trained in cleaning and EM sampling, but not production. Sampling was completed (and will continue to be done) with QA and PIC oversight. This was explained to the inspectors when they were on-site.

Product Testing & Release

#106. For each batch of drug product, there is appropriate laboratory determination of satisfactory conformance to final specifications for the drug product, including the identity and strength of each active ingredient, prior to release. Where sterility and/or pyrogen testing are conducted on specific batches of short-lived radiopharmaceuticals, such batches may be released prior to completion of sterility and/or pyrogen testing, provided such testing is completed as soon as possible.

Reviewed SOP M25.037, Quarantine & Release of Compounded Finished Products v2.

Nonsterile Product: Sildenafil Cream batches will be tested according to pre-established specifications. The first batch of Sildenafil Cream was completed on 05DEC2025 and the audit was on 08DEC2025. All results will be reviewed and verified that it meets pre-established product specification before the product will be released for distribution.

Sterile Product: Pre-production phase; NAD+ injection formulation has been sent to the contract lab for testing.

- All drug products produced at Bravado are tested per a QA pre-approved specification. Test results are reviewed and approved by QA prior to product release.

#107. There is appropriate laboratory testing, as necessary, of each batch of drug product required to be free of objectionable microorganisms.

Sterile Product: Sterility pending.

- Stability testing is on-going. T=0 timepoint passed sterility testing for all three pre-production batches.

Records & Report Requirements

#130. Batch production and control records is prepared for each batch of drug product produced and includes complete information relating to the production and control of each batch. These records shall include:

11) Results of examinations made in accordance with § 211.134.

Nonsterile Product: Batch record reviewed was pending reconciliation (testing batch). Required elements present on the batch record template.

Sterile Product: Testing batch record reviewed; sampling results pending.

- Non-sterile batch record reconciliation and batch record were completed for bath 25026 (the record reviewed during the inspection). Sterile product stability testing is on-going.

#136. Complete records are maintained of all stability testing performed in accordance with § 211.166.

Nonsterile Product: Stability testing for the Sildenafil cream has begun (T0 / Release testing) and was put into the sterility program.

Sterile Product: Method suitability in process.

- Method suitability is completed. Stability testing is in progress for sterile. All records are retained per SOP Q19.002, Document Control Procedures, Document and Protocol Number Assignment, and Central File Designation.

#137. Distribution records contain the name and strength of the product and description of the dosage form, name and address of the consignee, date and quantity shipped, and lot or control number of the drug product. For compressed medical gas products, distribution records are not required to contain lot or control numbers.

No products have been distributed to date (nonsterile or sterile). Reviewed Distribution SOP; records will be generated and retained according to the record retention SOP. Bravado does not distribute medical gases.

- No distribution to-date.

Notes

1. The "initial date of registration as an outsourcing facility" is the date the facility was first registered (i.e., the date FDA determined that the initial registration information submitted for the facility was complete, and the establishment fee was paid in full).

   Under section 503B(b) of the FD&C Act, after the initial registration, a facility that elects to continue to be registered with FDA as an outsourcing facility must re-register annually. A facility that elects to register (or re-register) with FDA as an outsourcing facility must pay an annual establishment fee. The "date of most recent registration as an outsourcing facility" reflects the date FDA determined the most recently submitted registration information was complete and the annual establishment fee for that fiscal year paid in full.

   Unless a previously registered outsourcing facility re-registers and pays the annual establishment fee in full during the registration period (between October 1 and December 31 of each calendar year), the facility will be removed from the list of registered outsourcing facilities on January 1 of the next calendar year.

2. Once an outsourcing facility is registered, the facility will be added to the list of facilities FDA intends to inspect according to a risk-based schedule. FDA plans to inspect outsourcing facilities within a reasonable period of time following initial registration, once it is confirmed that the facility has initiated drug production and distribution. However, the exact timing of the inspections can be affected by a number of variables, including the number of outsourcing facility registrants, other inspection priorities, and the operational status of the newly registered outsourcing facility.

   Inspections identified in this table are associated with the facility at the listed address. A company may own or operate more than one registered outsourcing facility. FDA's web page Compounding: Inspections, Recalls, and other Actions (/node/363232) may contain information about compounding facilities under the same ownership as the listed registered outsourcing facility.

   Inspections may take place over several days, weeks or longer. The date of the inspection is the date a Form FDA 483 listing the investigators' observations was issued. If no FDA Form 483 was issued, the date is the last day of the inspection.

3. A Form FDA 483 is issued when investigators observe any significant objectionable conditions. It does not constitute a final agency determination of whether any condition is in violation of the FD&C Act or any relevant regulations.
4. This table does not include State Board of Pharmacy actions, if any. To determine whether a registered outsourcing facility has been the subject of a state enforcement action, check with the State Board of Pharmacy for the state in which the facility is located. Some states post disciplinary or other actions on their web sites.
5. "Closed" means the inspection has been closed without further action. "Open" means FDA has not determined whether further action will be taken. If an action has been taken, it will be listed. Possible FDA actions include warning letter, seizure or injunction.
6. The information in this column was provided by the registered outsourcing facility at the time of registration and has not been verified by FDA. "N/A" indicates the registered outsourcing facility has not provided this information.
7. This outsourcing facility was the subject of at least one previous inspection relating to compounding that resulted in a Form FDA 483, warning letter or other action. For information about such inspections and resulting actions, visit Compounding: Inspections, Recalls, and other Actions (/node/363232).
8. A remote regulatory assessment (RRA) is an examination of an FDA-regulated establishment and/or its records, conducted remotely, to evaluate compliance with applicable FDA requirements. These assessments assist in protecting human and animal health, inform regulatory decisions and verify certain information submitted to the agency.
9. Based on inspectional findings, the inspection revealed significant issues. As a result, the outsourcing facility may have either initiated a recall on their own following conversation(s) with the FDA investigator or FDA recommended a recall at the conclusion of the inspection or both. Additionally, the outsourcing facility may have conducted multiple recalls or recalled multiple drugs.

I was pulled over after officer claimed I drove outside the lane. The officer administered a field sobriety test and I was arrested for DWI. I received suspended sentence and probation for 2 years with an interlock device. I completed the probation successfully and have had no incidents since. From a personal perspective, the interlock device was extremely humbling experience and a very effective deterrent.

JOINT MOTION FOR ORDER GRANTING FINAL APPROVAL OF FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION AND MISSOURI STATE CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Pursuant to Mo. Ct. Rule 52.08 and the Fair Labor Standards Act, Class Representative Dylan Williams, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, and Defendant Crossroads Courier, Inc. hereby move the Court to certify the Settlement Classes and to grant final approval of the Settlement Agreement that this Court preliminarily approved on November 2, 2023. Final Approval of this settlement is appropriate because this action is perfectly suited for class treatment and because the settlement agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. Furthermore, the settlement agreement resolves a bona fide wage and hour dispute, the settlement is fair and equitable, and the settlement agreement contains an award for reasonable attorneys' fees. For all these reasons, as laid out more fully below in the Parties' Suggestions in Support, final approval of the settlement agreement resolving the FLSA collective action and Missouri state class action should be approved by this Court.

SUGGESTIONS IN SUPPORT OF THE PARTIES' JOINT MOTION FOR ORDER GRANTING FINAL APPROVAL OF FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION AND MISSOURI STATE CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Representative Plaintiff Dylan Williams ("Representative Plaintiff"), on behalf of himself and members of the FLSA Collective (the "Collective" or the "Collective Members") and Rule 52.08 Class (the "Class" or the "Class Members"), and Defendant Crossroads Courier, Inc. ("Defendant" or "Crossroads") (each a "Party" and collectively the "Parties") hereby respectfully request that this Honorable Court enter an order approving, as fair, reasonable, and adequate, the settlement of this collective and class action pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) and Rule 52.08. A proposed Final Order and Judgment on Final Settlement Approval and Dismissal with Prejudice is attached as Exhibit 1. The reasons for this Motion are as follows:

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Representative Plaintiff Dylan Williams filed this action on November 9, 2020 alleging a collective action under the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA") and a class action under the Missouri Minimum Wage Law ("MMWL") and common law. Representative Plaintiff Williams worked as a driver for Crossroads as an independent contractor and alleged Crossroads misclassified him and all its drivers as independent contractors and consequently failed to pay minimum wage and overtime in accordance with state and federal law.

Defendant denied the allegations and claims and asserted various affirmative defenses asserting that it did not misclassify drivers as independent contractors and that in any case it did not fail to pay minimum wage and overtime payments to its drivers, and that class or collective treatment was not appropriate.

After the Court granted conditional certification of the FLSA collective on August 18, 2021 the Parties engaged in a months' long exchange of data to assess potential damages. Additionally the Parties participated in two different mediations with two different mediators, with the second mediation resulting in a final settlement on February 17, 2023. The Parties moved for preliminary approval of the settlement of the FLSA Collective and State Class, which this Court granted on November 2, 2023 (the "Preliminary Approval Order"). In that Order, the Court provisionally certified the FLSA Collective and granted conditional certification to the State Class as follows:

> The FLSA Collective: all current and former drivers for Crossroads who do not have an arbitration agreement with Defendant and who: (1) worked for Crossroads in Missouri from August 27, 2017 to October 26, 2023 (the "Collective Period"); (2) worked forty hours or more in a workweek; and (3) received 1099 payments for their work as drivers for Crossroads in Missouri totaling at least $7,500 during the Collective Period. The FLSA Collective Members must satisfy each condition of this definition and also opt-in to the FLSA Collective within the prescribed time period. Representative Plaintiff and Aaron Ward are also FLSA Collective Members.
> The State Class: all individuals who (1) meet the definition of FLSA Collective members, do not opt-in to the FLSA Collective within the prescribed time period, and do not opt-out of the State Class within the prescribed time period; and (2) may potentially have a claim for state minimum wages or overtime violations.

The Parties since then engaged Analytics Consulting, LLC ("Analytics") as the Settlement Administrator. (See Affidavit of Carolyn Barazesh (hereafter "Barazesh Aff.") attached as Exhibit 2, at ¶8). Analytics was provided with a list that contained the names and last-known mailing addresses for the 1368 potential members of the FLSA Collective and the State Class. (Id. at ¶4).

On November 16, 2023, Analytics mailed by first-class mail the Court-approved "Notice of Collective Action Lawsuit" (the "FLSA Collective Notice") and "Consent to Join Form" to the 481 potential members of the FLSA Collective. (Id. at ¶8). The FLSA Collective Notice gave sixty (60) days, until January 15, 2024, to submit the Consent Form and participate in the Collective. (Id. at ¶12). A total of 129, or approximately 26.82% of eligible individuals returned the Consent Form and are eligible to participate in the FLSA Collective. (Id).

On January 30, 2024, Analytics mailed the Court-approved "Notice of Proposed Settlement of Class Action and Fairness Hearing" (the "State Class Notice") to a total of 1,239 potential members of the State Class who did not return a Consent Form or were not otherwise eligible to participate in the FLSA Collective. (Id. at ¶10). The State Class Notice informed these potential members of the State Class of their right to opt out of the State Class. Of the 1,239 State Class Notices that were mailed, a total of 208 were returned undeliverable. (Id. at ¶15). Analytics performed an address trace on the undeliverable notices, and was able to locate an updated address for 120 individuals. (Id.). The deadline to opt out or object to the State Class was March 15, 2024. (Id. at ¶ 17). As of March 15, 2024, Analytics received no objections to the State Class, and zero requests to opt-out/exclude themselves from the State Class. (Id. at ¶ 18.). Having completed the notice process, the Parties now move this Court for final approval of the settlement.

II. The Standard for Final Approval of the Settlement Has Been Met.

A. The Rule 52.08 State Class Should be Finally Certified and The Settlement Should be Approved.

In the Parties' Joint Motion for Preliminary Approval of FLSA Collective Action Settlement and State Class Settlement the standards for approval of the FLSA Collective were briefed, as were the requirements for class approval under Rule 52.08. Those same arguments continue to demonstrate why settlement should be finally approved.

A class action may not be dismissed, compromised or settled without the Court's approval. Rule 52.08(e). The typical process for approval of a class action settlement comprises of three steps (1) preliminary approval of the proposed settlement at an informal hearing or conference; (2) dissemination of mailed and/or published notice of the settlement to the class; and (3) a final fairness hearing at which evidence and argument concerning the fairness, adequacy and reasonableness of the settlement is presented.

The first two steps have been completed. The Court issued its Preliminary Approval Order on November 2, 2023. And notice has been given to the class. Pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order as described above, a notice containing clear and thorough information about the litigation, the settlement, answers to frequently asked questions, contact telephone numbers and addresses, and important dates and deadlines (including the exclusion and objection deadlines) was mailed to State Class members and not one objected or excluded themselves from the class.

The Court is now called upon to make a final determination as to the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the settlement as a whole. Based on all applicable criteria, the settlement should be finally approved.

i. Final Certification of the Rule 52.08 State Class is Appropriate.

The proposed State Class meets the requirements for sufficient numerosity, since it comprises more than 1,300 members, making joinder impracticable. Dale v. Daimlerchrysler Corp., 204 S.W.3d 151, 166-67 (Mo. App. 2006). Common issues of law or fact are presented by the State Class's claims under the MMWL, including whether Crossroads misclassified drivers as independent contractors and whether it failed to pay them minimum wage and overtime. Independent contractor misclassification cases are frequently resolved via class treatment.[1] Mo. Ct. Rule 52.08(a)(3) requires that "the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class." Id. Typicality requires that "[t]he representatives [in a class action] must possess the same interest and suffer the same injury as their fellow class members." Smith v. Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corp., 174 F.R.D. 90.98 (W.D. Mo. 1997) (citations omitted). Representative Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the State Class in that he has common interests with other class members, and he has vigorously prosecuted the interests of the class through qualified counsel. See Dale, 204 S.W.3d at 172. He was also a driver for Crossroads who alleges he was misclassified as an independent contractor and not paid all wages owed under the MMWL, and the class he seeks to represent is the same class of workers. Thus his claims are common to the members of the State Class.

[1] See, e.g. Guy v. Ford Storage & Moving Co., 2019 WL 4804644, at *1 (S.D. Iowa Aug. 9, 2019); Williams v. Sweet Home Healthcare, LLC, 325 F.R.D. 113, 132 (E.D. Pa. 2018); Alfred v. Jani-King of Philadelphia Inc., 837 F.3d 314 (3d Cir. 2016); Rehberg v. Flowers Baking Co. of Jamestown, LLC, No. 3:12-CV-00596-MOC, 2015 WL 1346125, at *14 (W.D.N.C. Mar. 24, 2015).

Under Rule 52.08(b)(3), common questions must predominate over individual issues in the case. Analysis of predominance is "relaxed in the settlement context." In re Pre-Filled Propane Tank Antitrust Litig., No. 14-02567-MD-W-GAF, 2019 WL 7160380, at *4 (W.D. Mo. Nov. 18, 2019) (citing Amchem, 117 S.Ct. at 2248). There are common questions when the same evidence suffices for each class member to make a prima facie case. Hale v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 231 S.W.3d 215, 224 (Mo. App. 2007). "[T]he predominance requirement … does not demand that every single issue in the case be common to all class members, but only that there are substantial common issues which 'predominate' over the individual issues." Id. Such is the case here, where each State Class member was subject to the same policies and practices and similar working conditions.

ii. Final Approval of the Rule 52.08 State Class Settlement Should Be Granted.

This Court already has determined, on a preliminary basis, that the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate. As a general matter, courts find that a preliminary determination of fairness creates a presumption in favor of final approval. See, e.g., Levell v. Monsanto Research Corp., 191 F.R.D. 543, 550 (S.D. Ohio 2000) ("Once preliminary approval has been granted, a class action settlement is presumptively reasonable, and an objecting class member must overcome a heavy burden to prove that the settlement is unreasonable."); 2 Joseph M. McLaughlin, McLaughlin on Class Actions § 6:7 (8th ed. 2011) (preliminary settlement approval "establishes an initial presumption of fairness" that "place[s] the burden on any objectors of persuading the court that the proposed settlement is unreasonable"). And when no objection is made to the proposed settlement, as is the case here, the presumption in favor of final approval becomes even stronger. See Nat'l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 529 (C.D. Cal. 2004) ("The absence of a single objection to the Proposed Settlement provides further support for final approval of the Proposed Settlement. It is established that the absence of a large number of objections to a proposed class action settlement raises a strong presumption that the terms of a proposed class settlement action are favorable to the class members.").

Beyond these presumptions, Missouri courts have indicated that when determining if a settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, the Court must consider: (1) the existence of fraud or collusion behind the settlement; (2) the complexity, expense, and likely duration of the litigation; (3) the stage of the proceedings and the amount of discovery completed; (4) the probability of the plaintiff's success on the merits; (5) the range of possible recovery; and (6) the opinions of class counsel, class representatives and absent class members. Among these, the most important consideration in determining if a settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate is the strength of the plaintiff's case on the merits balanced against the settlement. Bachman v. A.G. Edwards, Inc., 344 S.W.3d 260, 266 (Mo. Ct. App. 2011). The settlement here meets these standards.

a. There Was No Fraud or Collusion

"Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in class action settlements unless there is evidence to the contrary." Dick v. Sprint Commc'ns Co., 297 F.R.D. 283, 295 (W.D. Ky. 2014) (quoting Leonhart v. ArvinMeritor, Inc., 581 F. Supp. 2d 818, 838 (E.D. Mich. 2008)). Here, there is no suggestion of fraud or collusion in the settlement; instead, the settlement followed nearly four years of adversarial litigation and provides significant relief in the form of cash payments to State Class members for lost wages that directly addresses the fundamental issues underlying the litigation, i.e., alleged misclassification of workers. These circumstances create a strong presumption in favor of the settlement.

b. Complexity, Expense and Duration

This case qualifies as complex, time-intensive, and lengthy. As described, the case has been on file since mid-2020, including an initial filing in federal court and subsequent refiling in this Court. While the docket itself does not reflect all the extensive activity, the parties, represented by experienced counsel, recognized the value in evaluating a settlement of the matter without recourse to expensive depositions, motion, and discovery practice, and consequential savings that could be applied to a resolution. The issues and defenses available to Defendant were difficult for Plaintiffs to evaluate and would have been far more difficult to litigate. There were arguments and disputes raised by Defendant about the nature of the entire workforce, which put the case at risk of multiple subclasses that may not ultimately support Rule 52.08 treatment, let alone the real potential risk of decertification. The complexity of the case was enhanced by the lack of agreement concerning data reflecting the start and end of workdays and the amount of driving performed by drivers. Proving these issues for purposes of motion practice and trial presented a daunting undertaking. Experts were already retained for data analysis as well, with Crossroads, for its part, retaining a data analytics firm to assist in analyzing Crossroads' data and Plaintiffs' damages model.

The settlement, on the other hand, provides substantial, immediate relief to Representative Plaintiff, the FLSA Collective Members, and the State Class Members promptly and efficiently, and amplifies the benefits of that relief through the economies of collective/class resolution. Thus, this factor favors final approval.

The circumstances in this case favor the proposed settlement, which alleviates the uncertainty associated with the resolution of the complex factual and legal issues and avoids the additional expense and delay of continued litigation in the trial and appellate courts. See McLaughlin, supra, § 6:9 ("The specter of a complex trial militates in favor of settlement."); In re Advanced Battery Techs., Inc. Sec. Litig., 298 F.R.D. 171, 175 (S.D.N.Y. 2014) ("Courts consistently recognize that the complexity, expense, and likely duration of litigation are critical factors in evaluating the reasonableness of a settlement . . . .").

c. Stage of the Proceedings and Amount of Discovery Completed

Though the matter was settled relatively early when judged solely by the number of docket entries, the Court can see the case was on file for a long time and aided through mediation and a very knowledgeable Representative Plaintiff. Through significant informal discovery and discussions, factual issues were well known and enabled the parties to understand the merits of each party's case, as well as the attendant risks of trial. Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the litigation and diligently pursued an investigation of Representative Plaintiff's individual, collective, and class claims against Defendant. The Parties sufficiently investigated their respective positions to act intelligently and reasonably. This factor thus favors final approval. See In re Charter Comme'ns, Inc. Sec. Litig., 2005 WL 4045741, at *5 (settlement "negotiated at arm's length by well informed counsel" is presumptively reasonable).

d. Probability of Success and Range of Recovery

While Representative Plaintiff and Class Counsel believed that Crossroads misclassified its drivers, their ultimate success was not a foregone conclusion by any means. Drivers were given significant flexibility in determining when and how often they would work, they were allowed to refuse deliveries, and they often worked other jobs, such that their driving for Crossroads was a "side gig." This led to reasonable doubt about the viability of claims receiving class treatment. Moreover, even if misclassification was proved, among other issues, it remained uncertain whether the time drivers were working constituted compensable work time or merely non-compensable time "waiting to be engaged." Even if the Court ruled for Plaintiff, Plaintiff faced the potential hurdle of immediate appeal of any adverse judgment. See Bachman, 344 S.W.3d at 266 (considering procedural and substantive complexities including "expense on appeal"). Therefore, the proposed settlement provides certainty that would not have been available should this matter have proceeded to further litigation and trial. See Doyle v. Fluor Corp., 400 S.W.3d 316, 322 (Mo. Ct. App. 2013) (affirming approval of class settlement where "if the case were to proceed to trial, there was no guaranty that the Plaintiffs would succeed or recover as much as the settlement offered them").

e. Opinions of Class Representatives and Counsel

The last factor favoring approval of the settlement is the full support given by Plaintiffs and Class Counsel, who have extensive knowledge of the factual and legal issues in this lawsuit and the risks attendant on continued litigation. As noted above, no objections were received and no State Class members opted out after receiving the settlement notice. Under these circumstances, this factor weighs heavily in support of settlement approval. See EEOC v. McDonnell Douglas Corp., 894 F. Supp. 1329, 1335 (E.D. Mo. 1995) (counsel's informed opinion as to fairness of proposed settlement is "entitled to considerable weight").

B. Final Approval of the FLSA Collective Should Be Provided.

As previously noted in the Motion for Preliminary Approval, the FLSA Collective does not require a two-step approval process, but rather is a single step approval process which the parties asked for the Court to grant at the time it reviewed the Rule 52.08 class for final approval. As previously briefed, a valid settlement of an FLSA claim requires Department of Labor or court approval. Lynn's Food Stores, Inc. v. United States, 679 F.2d 1350, 1353 (11th Cir.1982). "To approve an FLSA settlement, the Court must find that: (1) the litigation involves a bona fide wage and hour dispute; (2) the proposed settlement is fair and equitable to all parties concerned; and (3) the proposed settlement contains an award of reasonable attorneys' fees." Hill v. World Wide Tech. Holding Co., No. 4:11CV02108–AGF, 2012 WL 5285927, at *1 (E.D. Mo. Oct.25, 2012) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). As briefed with respect to the State Class, the factors favoring approval are met. The question of an award of reasonable attorneys' fees will be addressed in a separate motion for approval of attorneys' fees and costs, as well as an appropriate service award for the named Plaintiff Dylan Williams.

C. The Parties Are Prepared to Finalize the Settlement.

Within twenty-one (21) days following the date on which the Court's judgment becomes final and non-appealable, the Settlement Administrator shall mail the FLSA Collective Member Settlement payments, the State Class Member Settlement payments, Representative Plaintiff's Service Award (as approved by the Court), and payment to Class Counsel for their attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses (as approved by the Court).

II. CONCLUSION

Accordingly, for the reasons addressed herein and in the Joint Motion for Preliminary Approval of FLSA Collective Action Settlement and State Class Settlement and Suggestions in Support, the Parties respectfully ask the Court to approve this Settlement and enter the proposed Final Order and Judgment on Final Settlement Approval and Dismissal with Prejudice attached as Exhibit 1.

FINAL ORDER AND JUDGMENT ON FINAL SETTLEMENT APPROVAL AND DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE

Pending before the Court is the Parties' Joint Motion for Order Granting Final Approval of FLSA Collective Action and Missouri State Class Action Settlement (the "Motion") and Plaintiff and Class Counsel's Unopposed Application for an Award of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses and Service Award to Class Representative (the "Application"). The Court has considered the papers submitted in support of the Motion and the Application, the fact that no objections were filed as to the settlement, and the arguments at the fairness hearing held on May 30, 2024. Having given the matter due consideration, the Court GRANTS the Motion and the Application and makes the findings and conclusions set forth below.[1]

[1] Unless otherwise defined, all terms used in this Final Order have the same meanings as defined in the FLSA Collective and State Class Settlement and Release Agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") between Representative Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and on behalf of the FLSA Collective Members and the State Class Members, and Defendant.

I. APPROVAL OF THE FLSA CLASS SETTLEMENT.

a. In its Order on November 2, 2023 (the "Preliminary Approval Order"), pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq. ("FLSA") the Court approved an FLSA Collective defined as:

> all current and former drivers for Crossroads who do not have an arbitration agreement with Defendant and who: (1) worked for Crossroads in Missouri from August 27, 2017 to October 26, 2023 (the "Collective Period"); (2) worked forty hours or more in a workweek; and (3) received 1099 payments for their work as drivers for Crossroads in Missouri totaling at least $7,500 during the Collective Period. The FLSA Collective Members must satisfy each condition of this definition and also opt-in to the FLSA Collective within the prescribed time period. Representative Plaintiff and Aaron Ward are also FLSA Collective Members.

b. "To approve an FLSA settlement, the Court must find that: (1) the litigation involves a bona fide wage and hour dispute; (2) the proposed settlement is fair and equitable to all parties concerned; and (3) the proposed settlement contains an award of reasonable attorneys' fees." Hill v. World Wide Tech. Holding Co., No. 4:11CV02108–AGF, 2012 WL 5285927, at *1 (E.D. Mo. Oct.25, 2012) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted).

c. The litigation involves a fair and bona fide wage and hour dispute in that the FLSA Collective alleges multiple disputed questions concerning whether Defendant properly classified its drivers as independent contractors, whether Defendant paid its drivers all wages they were entitled to, and whether Defendant paid its drivers all overtime they were entitled to under the FLSA.

d. The Settlement is fair and equitable to all parties because it was negotiated at arm's length and provides a fair and adequate recovery for all FLSA Collective Members while avoiding the costs and uncertainty of litigation.

e. The Settlement contains an award of reasonable attorneys' fees as approved by this Order, infra.

f. Accordingly, the Court has determined that the Settlement complies with all requirements under the FLSA and applicable case law.

II. CLASS CERTIFICATION OF THE STATE CLASS.

a. Having considered the requirements of Missouri Supreme Court Rule 52.08 for class certification the Court finds:

i. The State Class (defined below) consists of over 1,300 members. The State Class is so numerous that joinder would be impracticable.

ii. There are questions of fact common to the State Class. Common questions include whether Defendant misclassified its drivers as independent contractors rather than employees and paid them less wages than they were entitled to under the Missouri Minimum Wage Law ("MMWL"), R.S.Mo. § 290.500 et seq.

iii. The Representative Plaintiff's Claims are typical of the State Class.

iv. The Representative Plaintiff in this action and Class Counsel have fairly and adequately protected the State Class and will continue to do so.

v. Questions of law or fact common to the State Class predominate over individual questions and a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

b. Accordingly, the State Class was conditionally certified by the Court in its Preliminary Approval Order on November 2, 2023 and is now finally certified. The State Class is defined as follows:

individuals who (1) meet the definition of FLSA Collective members, do not opt-in to the FLSA Collective within the prescribed time period, and do not opt-out of the State Class within the prescribed time period; and (2) may potentially have a claim for state minimum wages or overtime violations.

c. The Court reaffirms its appointment of the named Plaintiff Dylan Williams ("Representative Plaintiff") as State Class representative and Kevin Koc and Patrick Reavey as Class Counsel.

d. In the Preliminary Approval Order, the Court approved the form of notice to the State Class of this action and the proposed Settlement and the notice plan for distributing the notice. The notice provided adequate information to State Class members about the pendency of the Action and State Class members' rights in it, the proposed Settlement, the opportunity to present objections to the Settlement, the opportunity to opt out of the Action, how to file claims, and how to obtain additional information and documents relating to the Action.

e. The notice plan has been fully executed in compliance with the Preliminary Approval Order.

f. The notice given to the State Class (a) fully and accurately informed the State Class of all material terms of the Settlement relevant to participation in the State Class, (b) was adequate to protect the interests of the State Class members and the parties, (c) was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and (d) fully complied with the requirements of due process and Missouri law.

g. Because State Class members had adequate notice, were given an opportunity to be heard, had an opportunity to opt out of the Action, and were adequately represented, the Court can exercise jurisdiction over the State Class members.

h. The claims administration process, as implemented by the Settlement Administrator, Analytics Consulting LLC, was and is fair and reasonable for State Class members to demonstrate their entitlement to recover benefits under the Settlement. The claims process provides an appropriate procedure for handling State Class members' clams fairly and efficiently.

i. The claims administration process is reasonably designed to implement the Settlement.

j. In evaluating whether a class settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, a court must consider the following factors: "(1) the existence of fraud or collusion behind the Settlement; (2) the complexity, expense, and likely duration of the Action; (3) the stage of the proceedings and the amount of discovery completed; (4) the probability of the plaintiffs' success on the merits; (5) the range of possible recovery; and (6) the submissions of Class Counsel, Class Representatives, and absent class members." Bachman v. A.G. Edwards, Inc., 344 S.W.3d 260, 266 (Mo. App. 2011). The decision to approve a class settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate is left to the sound discretion of the trial court. Ring, 41 S.W.3d at 492.

k. The Court has conducted a thorough examination of the record and finds that each of these factors supports the approval of the Settlement in this case.

l. The Settlement is the result of arm's length negotiations between adverse parties and was fairly negotiated. Counsel on both sides are competent and have represented their clients vigorously. There is no evidence of fraud or collusion behind the Settlement, which was reached after two all-day mediation conferences and subsequent negotiations supervised by two different mediators and ultimately brokered by John R. Phillips, a mediator with substantial experience in resolving complex class actions. The negotiation process was transparent and inclusive, and the Settlement is not the product of a reverse auction.

m. The factual and legal issues in this case are complex and would require expensive and protracted litigation to resolve, including disputed questions concerning whether Defendant properly classified its drivers as independent contractors, whether Defendant paid its drivers all wages they were entitled to, whether Defendant paid its drivers all overtime they were entitled to under the MMWL. The Settlement serves judicial economy and allows the parties to avoid the expense of protracted litigation.

n. The Settlement was reached by parties with sufficient information to effectively evaluate the terms of the Settlement and represent the Class. Prior to filing the action and while the Settlement was being negotiated, Class Counsel conducted an extensive investigation into Defendant assisted by tens of thousands of lines of data supplied through an informal discovery process. The information obtained by Class Counsel supports the fairness of the Settlement.

o. The State Class members' ability to succeed on the merits is far from certain. Defendant has available several complete defenses to liability and have asserted other defenses and arguments that may reduce or eliminate any potential recovery by the State Class including that their workers were substantially "gig" economy workers over whom they did not exert substantial control, and that if there was any waiting time, it was not time spent under the control of Defendant. While the parties agreed to class certification for purposes of this Settlement, Defendant reserved the right to challenge a contested class certification motion. Thus, there is a risk that a contested class certification motion might not be granted or, if granted, that a class might later be decertified. There are also significant risks attendant with trying the case, including potential harm to Defendant's business operations resulting in risk to State Class members as well. The Settlement eliminates the risk of an adverse outcome and will provide the State Class with immediate benefits.

p. The Settlement falls within the range of possible recovery the State Class could achieve at trial if they were to succeed on the merits. Furthermore, the Settlement provides for more relaxed standards of proof than may be required at trial, allowing more members of the State Class to obtain benefits. Accordingly, the Settlement provides immediate and certain benefits to the Class that may not be available through continued litigation.

q. The opinion of the Representative Plaintiff and Class Counsel that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable weighs in favor of final approval. The Representative Plaintiff and Class Counsel have extensive knowledge of the factual issues in the case and were actively involved in the negotiations and mediation. Their assessment of the benefits provided by the Settlement in light of the risks associated with litigation is entitled to appropriate weight. No State Class members objected to the Settlement, further demonstrating that the Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate.

r. Accordingly, the Court has determined that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate pursuant to Missouri Supreme Court Rule 52.08 and applicable case law. Therefore, all members of the State Class who have not timely elected to be excluded from the State Class are bound by the terms of the Settlement, including the terms of the Settlement Agreement, including the release of claims contained therein.

III. FINAL APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT.

a. The Court hereby grants final approval of the Settlement. The Court finds it was entered into in good faith and is in all respects non-collusive, fair, reasonable, and adequate. It is in the best interests of each of the parties and the members of the FLSA Collective and State Class. The FLSA Collective and State Class have been adequately represented at all times. The Final Order and Judgment shall have res judicata and preclusive effect in all pending and future lawsuits maintained by the Representative Plaintiff, FLSA Collective members, State Class members, and the released parties as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, including all claims for restitution damages, injunctive relief or other forms of relief addressed therein.

b. The case is dismissed on the merits, with prejudice, as to the Representative Plaintiff, members of the FLSA Collective and all members of the State Class who did not opt out pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement. As set forth in the Settlement Agreement, all Class members who have not timely elected to be excluded from the State Class are hereby deemed to have released and discharged the Defendant for settled claims pursuant to the Settlement Agreement. This release applies to all claims relating to, regarding, or arising out of the misclassification of Defendant's drivers, any failure to pay proper wages by Defendant to their drivers, or any failure to pay proper overtime by Defendant to their drivers during the Release Period.

c. Each FLSA Collective member and State Class member (except any such person who has filed a proper and timely request for exclusion) will be forever barred and permanently enjoined from directly, indirectly, representatively or in any other capacity, filing, commencing, prosecuting, continuing, litigating, intervening in, participating in as class members or otherwise, or receiving any benefits or other relief from any other lawsuit, any other arbitration, or any other administrative regulatory, or other proceeding against Defendant involving the Released Claims; and all persons and entities shall be forever barred and permanently enjoined from filing, commencing, or prosecuting any other lawsuit as a class action against Defendant (including by seeking to amend a pending complaint to include class allegations or by seeking class certification in a pending action in any jurisdiction) on behalf of State Class members who have not timely excluded themselves from the State Class if such other lawsuit is based on or arises from the Released Claims.

d. The Court finds that the most appropriate method for awarding attorneys' fees and costs is the percentage of the fund method. The Court assesses the attorneys' fee requests as a percentage of the one million six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($1,650,000.00). The Court finds that Class Counsel's application for $660,000 in attorneys' fees, which amounts to 40% of the Gross Settlement Fund, is fair and reasonable. The Court also finds that the requested Service Award of $15,000 to the Representative Plaintiff is appropriate to compensate him for his initiative and efforts in bringing this action. The Court also finds the Class Counsel's request for costs of $7,126.62 is fair and reasonable, as is an amount up to $25,000 for payment of the Claims Administrator's services.

e. This Final Order and Judgment shall not be construed as an admission, concession, declaration or finding by or against Defendant of any fault, wrongdoing, breach, or liability, and Defendant specifically denies any such fault, wrongdoing, breach, or liability. Nor shall this Order be construed or used as an admission, concession, declaration or finding by or against Representative Plaintiff, the FLSA Collective or the State Class that their claims lack merit or that the relief request in the action is inappropriate, improper, or unavailable. Neither the fact of, nor any provision contained in the Settlement Agreement, or the documents submitted in connection with the Settlement, nor any actions taken thereunder shall be deemed evidence of a concession or admission of any kind as to the truth of any fact alleged or validity of any legal argument that has been, could have been, or in the future might be asserted.

f. Without affecting the finality of the judgment, the Court hereby retains its inherent power to enforce its judgment, which includes its approval of the Settlement and the Settlement Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

5. On November 6, 2023, Analytics received the Court-approved Notice of Collective Action Lawsuit ("FLSA Notice") and Consent to Join Claim Form. The FLSA Notice advised potential FLSA Collective Members of their right to join the lawsuit and the implications of such. The FLSA Notice advised potential FLSA Collective Members of their estimated settlement award amount and the opt in deadline, and how they could obtain additional information.

6. The mailing addresses contained in the Class List were processed and updated utilizing the National Change of Address Database ("NCOA") maintained by the U.S. Postal Service. The NCOA contains requested changes of address filed with the U.S. Postal Service. In the event that any individual had filed a U.S. Postal Service change of address request, the address listed with the NCOA would be utilized in connection with the mailing of the FLSA Notice Packets.

7. Analytics established a toll-free phone number (855) 499-4894, a case website at www.CrossroadsLawsuit.com and a case email box info@CrossroadsLawsuit.com to provide assistance and information to potential FLSA Collective Members. The website provided potential FLSA Collective Members the opportunity to file a Consent to Join Claim Form electronically. The phone number, website, and email address were included in the FLSA Notice, Opt Out Notice, and Settlement Class Notice.

8. On November 16, 2023, Analytics mailed the approved FLSA Notice and Consent to Join Claim Form to the most current mailing address of 481 potential FLSA Collective Members via USPS

First Class Mail. A copy of the FLSA Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 1, and a copy of the Consent to Join Claim Form is attached as Exhibit 2.

10. If an FLSA Notice was returned by the USPS as undeliverable and without a forwarding address, and no Consent to Join Claim Form had been received, Analytics performed an advanced address search on the addresses of undeliverable records by using Experian, a reputable research tool. Analytics used the name and previous address to locate a current address. 52 FLSA Notices were returned as undeliverable by the Post Office. Analytics located 19 updated addresses and FLSA Notices were mailed to the updated addresses.

11. 478 potential FLSA Collective Members were sent an FLSA Notice by mail or email that was not returned as undeliverable, representing 99.37% of potential FLSA Collective Members.

12. Potential FLSA Collective Members had to return a valid Consent to Join Claim Form postmarked or submitted online by January 15, 2024, in order to join the lawsuit. A total of 129 Consent to Join Claim Forms were received, of which 1 Claim Form was received after the Claims Deadline. After consultation, the Parties agreed to accept the late Consent to Join Claim Form. This is a 26.82% claims rate.

13. On January 23, 2024, Analytics received the State Opt Out Notice and on January 29, 2024, Analytics received the FLSA Settlement Notice approved by the Court. The State Opt Out Notice advised Class Members of their estimated settlement award amount, their rights and options, the opt out deadline, and how they could obtain additional information. NOTICE OF COLLECTIVE ACTION LAWSUIT AND PRELIMINARY SETTLEMENT

This notice was authorized by the Court. This is not a solicitation. Please read carefully. Your legal rights may be affected. You may be entitled to receive money.

But you must take action by January 15, 2024 to participate.

If you were or are an independent contractor driver for CROSSROADS COURIER, INC. ("Crossroads") and you received 1099 payments totaling at least $7,500 for your work with Crossroads in Missouri at any time from August 27, 2017 to October 26, 2023 then a Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) collective action lawsuit may affect you.

What is this Case About?

An independent contractor driver filed a case (the "Lawsuit") in St. Louis alleging that Crossroads violated the FLSA by treating him and other drivers as independent contractors (i.e. they were misclassified), and consequently, failed to pay overtime when appropriate. The Lawsuit also contained a class action under Missouri's wage laws.

The Lawsuit alleges drivers technically worked more than forty hours a week when all hours worked are considered (e.g. work started from the time of the first order until returning home after the final delivery, including time spent waiting for assignments and including picking orders and other administrative work).

The Lawsuit is called Dylan Williams, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated v. Crossroads Courier, Inc. Case No. 20SL-CC05596 in the Circuit Court of St. Louis County Missouri and was brought as a collective action under the FLSA in addition to other claims.

Crossroads denies the allegations in the Lawsuit. Crossroads maintains that the drivers it works with have been properly classified as independent contractors. Crossroads also denies that it owes anyone overtime. Finally, Crossroads contends that the drivers' FLSA claims should not proceed on a collective basis.

Though the facts and law are still in dispute, the parties in the Lawsuit have reached a settlement of the claims in the Lawsuit. The Court has granted a preliminary approval of the settlement, and its final approval is still pending. Part of the settlement process approved by the Court is to send this notice to you and other eligible members of the collective action (the "Collective Action").

To find out how much money you may receive under the settlement after final approval you can contact Analytics Consulting at (855) 499-4894.

Although this notice and its contents have been authorized by the Court, the Court has made no findings on the merits of the Lawsuit.

Why is this notice being sent?

You may be eligible to join the Collective Action as an opt-in member if you did not sign an arbitration agreement and you meet the criteria below:

(1) You worked for Crossroads as a driver in Missouri between August 27, 2017 to October 26, 2023 (the "Collective Period");

(2) you worked forty hours or more in one or more workweeks during your time with Crossroads, and

(3) you received 1099 payments for your work as a driver for Crossroads in Missouri totaling at least $7,500 during the Collective Period.

Some drivers who began working with Crossroads in or after July 2021 may have signed Owner/Operator Agreements requiring arbitration in the event of a dispute. Review your Agreement to see if you signed such a clause, and if so you are not eligible for this case.

Why did I receive this Notice?

You received this Notice because Crossroads' records reflect that you (1) were a driver in Missouri between August 27, 2017 and October 26, 2023, (2) received at least $7,500 during that time, and (3) did not likely sign an arbitration agreement. The parties dispute how to calculate the number of hours drivers worked each week. Because of that, this Notice provides the opportunity for only those drivers who agree that they worked more than forty hours in at least one week during the Collective Period to opt-in to the Lawsuit.

What happens if I join the Collective Action?

If the Court grants final approval of the settlement of the Lawsuit, and you are an eligible Collective Action member who has timely returned the enclosed consent form, you may be entitled to receive a share of that money arising from the Collective Action. But if you submit your consent form, you will be bound by any judgment, whether it is favorable or unfavorable in the Lawsuit. If approval is not granted and Crossroads were to prevail in this Lawsuit, you may or may not be responsible, in part, for paying a portion of court costs or other potential costs Crossroads paid defending this lawsuit. Such costs, if any, likely would be a proportional share, divided among all collective members.

While the Lawsuit is pending, you may be required to participate in discovery, including answering written questions under oath, producing documents relating to your work with Crossroads or that are otherwise relevant to the Lawsuit, have your deposition taken, and/or testify in court. If so, you will be represented by the attorneys of THE MEYERS LAW FIRM LC or REAVEY LAW LLC further identified below.

Crossroads may not retaliate against you or discourage you from joining this Lawsuit.

The parties in the Misclassification Case have reached a preliminary settlement of the claims. If you join, and the Court grants a final approval, you will be eligible to receive a settlement payment in the estimated amount of [insert information for each individual], half of which will be paid as wages, for which you will receive a W-2, and the other half of which will be paid as liquidated damages, for which you will receive a 1099. If you join the Lawsuit, you will receive separate notice in the future regarding the settlement.

How do I join the Collective Action?

You must complete the enclosed consent form and timely return it by mail, fax, or email to Crossroads Lawsuit Administrator, Analytics Consulting, at:

Chanhassen MN 55317-2002
Fax: 952-404 5750

Please note: you are not a member of the Collective Action until you return the enclosed consent form by the deadline and the form is filed with the Court by the attorneys. If you return the consent form, you will be represented by the following attorneys with the law firms:

What if I do not join the Collective Action?

You have no obligation to join the Collective Action. If you do not join, you will receive separate notice of participation in the related class action portion of the Lawsuit, which also involves these issues. Your recovery in the related Missouri class action will be less than your recovery if you join the Collective Action.

How quickly must I act to join the Collective Action?

If you decide to join the Collective Action, complete and return the signed consent form to the Crossroads Lawsuit Administrator listed above. The signed consent form must be faxed, emailed, or postmarked no later than January 15, 2024 in order for you to join.

NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT OF COLLECTIVE ACTION LAWSUIT

Named Plaintiff Dylan Williams ("Representative Plaintiff") and Defendant Crossroads Courier, Inc. ("Defendant") have reached an agreement to settle the above-captioned case (the "Lawsuit"). That Agreement and this Notice have been approved by the Court. This Notice provides you with information about the settlement.

I. DESCRIPTION OF THE LAWSUIT

The Lawsuit was filed on November 9, 2020, in the Circuit Court of Saint Louis County, Missouri. The Representative Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all other similarly situated drivers, brought this case as a collective action under the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA"), 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq., among other claims. The Lawsuit alleges that Crossroads had a policy of misclassifying drivers as independent contractors. The Lawsuit seeks to recover unpaid overtime, among other things. Specifically, the Representative Plaintiff alleges drivers technically worked more than forty hours a week when all hours worked are considered.

Defendant denied and continues to deny that it violated the law in any way. The Parties have agreed to settle the Lawsuit to avoid the expense and inconvenience of protracted litigation. As such, the agreement to resolve the Lawsuit shall not be construed as an admission that Defendant acted wrongfully in any manner.

On November 2, 2023, the Court issued an order provisionally certifying this case as a collective action and authorizing the distribution of the notice of the Lawsuit to potentially eligible individuals. You returned a form consenting to join this Lawsuit as an "Opt-In Plaintiff".

II. SETTLEMENT OF THE LAWSUIT

The Parties have settled the Lawsuit with the assistance of a mediator. The Court has granted preliminary approval of the settlement.

Because you joined the Lawsuit, you are entitled to a settlement payment in the amount of [INSERT AMOUNT]. A check for this amount will be sent to you after the Court issues final approval of the settlement, enters judgment, and the judgment becomes final. Your settlement payment will be allocated as follows: (1) half of the payment will be reported as wages for tax purposes and you will receive an IRS Form W-2; and (2) the other half of the payment will be reported as liquidated damages and you will receive an IRS Form 1099. You will have 180 days from the date your settlement payment is issued to cash your settlement check or the check will be void and you will not receive another check.

III. ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

The Court has provisionally approved Plaintiff's Counsel's attorneys' fees in the amount of $660,000. The Court has also provisionally approved Plaintiff's Counsel's request for payment of costs incurred to litigate the case from the total settlement amount.

IV. SCOPE OF RELEASE

In exchange for your settlement payment, you forever waive, discharge, and release any and all claims, demands, damages, actions, causes of action and liabilities against Defendant, its parent, subsidiaries, affiliated and related companies, and against its past and present officers, directors, members, employees, agents, predecessors, shareholders, partners, successors, assigns, heirs, executors, insurers, assigns, and administrators, (collectively referred to as the "Released Parties") relating to any and all federal or state law wage and hour matters and any claims specifically arising out of the subject matter of the Lawsuit, at any time during the Release Period (the "Released Claims"). The "Release Period" shall mean the period of time between August 27, 2017 and the date the Court enters final approval of the FLSA Collective Settlement and the State Class Settlement.

V. NO RETALIATION OR ADVERSE ACTION

Defendant will not take any adverse action against any individual because he or she participated in the settlement. Your participation in the settlement, however, does not excuse you from complying with Defendant's policies and work rules if you are still engaged by Defendant.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why was this Notice issued?

This Notice informs you of the Court's preliminary approval of a proposed settlement of a class action lawsuit, advises you of your rights as a Class Member, and tells you how to receive a share of the settlement funds. Please read this Notice carefully. The proposed settlement affects your legal rights.

2. What is this Lawsuit about?

An independent contractor driver filed the Lawsuit in St. Louis alleging that, among other claims, Crossroads violated the Missouri Minimum Wage Law (MMWL) by treating him and other couriers as independent contractors (i.e. they were misclassified), and consequently, failed to pay overtime and minimum wage when appropriate.

Specifically, he alleges drivers technically worked more than forty hours a week when all hours worked are considered (e.g. work started from the time of the first order until returning home after the final delivery, including time spent waiting for assignments and including picking orders and other administrative work). He also alleges that considering the wages for all hours worked after taking account of the driver's unreimbursed business expenses (e.g. technology fees from Crossroads, gas, insurance, vehicle depreciation) their wages per hour fell below Missouri's applicable minimum wage.

The Lawsuit is called Dylan Williams, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated v. Crossroads Courier, Inc. Case No. 20SL-CC05596 in the Circuit Court of St. Louis County, Missouri and was brought as both a collective action and class action.

Crossroads denies the allegations in the Lawsuit. Crossroads maintains that the drivers it works with have been properly classified as independent contractors. Crossroads also denies that it owes anyone minimum wages or overtime. Finally, Crossroads contends that the drivers' MMWA claims should not proceed on a class basis.

Though the facts and law are still in dispute, the parties in the Lawsuit have reached a settlement of the claims in the lawsuit. The Court has granted a preliminary approval of the settlement, and its final approval is still pending. Part of the settlement process approved by the Court is to send this notice to you and other Class Members.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action, a person called a "Representative Plaintiff" or "Class Representative" sues on behalf of people whom the Court determines may have similar claims. All these people are a "Class" or "Class Members." One court resolves the issues for all Class Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Class.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court did not decide in favor of the Plaintiff or Defendant. Instead, both sides agreed to settle this case to avoid the cost, time, and uncertainty of further litigation. The Court has granted preliminary approval of the settlement. The settlement does not mean that any law was broken or that Defendant did anything wrong.

Defendant denies all legal claims in this case but decided that its resources are better directed to resolving this matter now so that it can fully focus on its business operations. The Class Representative and his attorneys think the settlement is best for all Class Members.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT

5. How do I know if I am part of the settlement?

All Class Members are part of the settlement unless they exclude themselves from settlement.

Class Members include all past or current drivers who did not sign an arbitration agreement, and who (1) worked for Crossroads in Missouri between August 27, 2017 and October 26, 2023; (2) worked forty hours or more in a workweek or was not paid Missouri minimum wage; (3) received 1099 payments for your work with Crossroads in Missouri; and (4) did not already submit a signed Consent Form, during the period November 16, 2023 through January 15, 2024, opting-in to the Collective Action.

 Some drivers who began working with Crossroads in or after July 2021 may have signed Owner/Operator Agreements requiring arbitration in the event of a dispute. Review your Agreement to see if you signed such a clause, and if so you are not eligible for this case.

Class Members who previously returned a Consent Form opting-in to the FLSA Collective cannot exclude themselves from this class. If you have questions about this please contact the attorneys representing you, listed below.

WHAT YOU WILL GET AND WHEN, AND WHAT ARE YOU GIVING UP

6. What does the settlement provide?

If the Court grants final approval of the settlement, Defendant will deposit the total amount of one million six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($1,650,000.00) into a Global Settlement Fund. If approved, there will be deductions from the Global Settlement Fund for attorneys' fees, expenses, and costs, a service award to the Representative Plaintiff, the Settlement Administrator's Fees, and payments to a separate set of individuals who already joined the Collective Action by sending a Consent to Join form.

7. How much will my payment be?

If you do not exclude yourself from the settlement, you are estimated to receive approximately $_____, for which you will receive a W-2 for the tax year in which this payment is issued.

8. How do I get a settlement payment?

To participate in the settlement, you are not required to do anything. You are automatically eligible to receive your settlement payment. Checks will be mailed to Class Members at the addresses listed in the Company's records. If your address has changed, you must send your name and current mailing address to the Settlement Administrator at:

Crossroads Lawsuit
c/o Analytics Consulting LLC
P.O. Box 2002
Chanhassen, MN 55317-2002
Fax: 952-404 5750
Email: info@CrossroadsLawsuit.com

9. What am I giving up to get a payment or stay in the Class?

The Settlement Agreement includes the following release of claims:

Upon the Effective Date, and except as to such rights or claims as may be created by this Settlement Agreement, the Claimants fully and forever waive, discharge, and release any and all claims, demands, damages, actions, causes of action and liabilities against Defendant, its parent, subsidiaries, affiliated and related companies, and against its past and present officers, directors, members, employees, agents, predecessors, shareholders, partners, successors, assigns, heirs, executors, insurers, assigns, and administrators, (collectively referred to as the "Released Parties"), relating to any and all federal or state law wage and hour matters and any claims specifically arising out of the subject matter of the Action, at any time during the Release Period (the "Released Claims"). The "Release Period" shall mean the period of time between August 27, 2017 and the date the Court enters Final Approval of the FLSA Collective Settlement and the State Class Settlement.

If the Court grants final approval of the settlement, you will be bound by the release of claims unless you have excluded yourself from the settlement in the manner described below. When claims are "released," that means that you cannot sue Crossroads or any of the Released Parties for any of the claims that are covered by the releases.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

10. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court appointed Kevin C. Koc of The Meyers Law Firm and Patrick G. Reavey of Reavey Law LLC to represent you and other Class Members as "Class Counsel." You do not have to personally pay Class Counsel. Rather a portion of the total settlement approved by the Court will be used to pay attorneys' fees and expenses. You can reach Class Counsel by phone at the numbers listed below in Section 20. You may call Class Counsel to discuss any questions you may have about this settlement. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer and have that lawyer appear in court for you in this case, you may hire one at your own expense.

11. Class Counsel's recommendation.

Class Counsel strongly recommends the settlement, which offers valuable payments to Class Members without the risk, uncertainty, and delay of continuing with the lawsuit. If the Court grants final approval of the settlement, and if the settlement becomes effective, every Class Member will receive a settlement payment in the form of a monetary payment as described above. Class Members do not need to take any action to receive their settlement payment.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

12. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing, and the settlement is approved by the Court and becomes final, you will receive a settlement payment. If you do nothing, you will also give up rights to sue the Defendant as part of another lawsuit over the claims resolved by this settlement.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

13. How do I get out of the settlement?

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must mail a letter saying you want to be excluded from Dylan Williams v. Crossroads Courier, Inc. Be sure to include the case number (No. 20SL-CC05596), your full name, address, and signature. You must mail your request for exclusion postmarked by March 30, 2024 to the Settlement Administrator at:

Crossroads Lawsuit
c/o Analytics Consulting LLC
P.O. Box 2002
Chanhassen, MN 55317-2002

You cannot exclude yourself on the phone or by email.

14. If I do not exclude myself, can I sue the Defendant for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up the right to sue the Released Parties for all of the claims that this proposed settlement resolves. You must exclude yourself to start your own lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be part of any other lawsuit relating to the claims in this case.

15. If I exclude myself, can I get benefits from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive a settlement payment, and you cannot object to the proposed settlement. However, if you ask to be excluded, you may sue, continue to sue, or be part of a different lawsuit against Crossroads and the Released Parties in the future. You will not be bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

16. How do I tell the Court if I do not like the settlement?

If you stay in the Class and you do not want the Court to approve the settlement, you must file a written objection within 45 days. You must give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it. To object, send a letter saying that you object to Dylan Williams v. Crossroads Courier, Inc. Be sure to include the case number (No. 20SL-CC05596), your full name, your address, your telephone number, your signature, the reasons why you object to the settlement, including whether the objection applies only to you, to a specific subset of the class, or to the entire class, all documents you want the Court to consider and a "Notice of Appearance" if you hired your own lawyer to represent you in this objection. You must mail the objection to the address below so that it is postmarked no later than March 15, 2024. Late objections will not be considered. If you either approve of the settlement or choose to exclude yourself, you do not need to object.

St. Louis County Circuit Court
Division 18
105 South Central Ave
Clayton, Missouri 63105

17. What is the difference between objecting and asking to be excluded?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you don't like something about the settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Class. Excluding yourself from this settlement is telling the Court that you don't want to be part of the Class. If you exclude yourself, you cannot object because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT'S FAIRNESS HEARING

The Court will hold a fairness hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement. You may attend and ask to speak, but you are not required to do so.

18. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court has scheduled a Fairness Hearing on May 30, 2024 at 10:00 a.m. at the St. Louis County Circuit Court, Division 18, 105 South Central Avenue, Clayton MO 63105. The hearing may be moved to a different date or time without notice or may be conducted by video conference, so if you plan to attend, you should call or email Class Counsel for current information. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. The Court may listen to people who have asked to speak about an objection (see Objecting to the Settlement). At or after the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the settlement.

19. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions that the Court may have. But you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection, you do not have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you filed and mailed your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend.

GETTING MORE INFORMATION

20. How do I get more information about the settlement?

This Notice summarizes the proposed settlement. More details about the settlement are in the Settlement Agreement. You can get a copy of the Settlement Agreement from Class Counsel: Kevin C. Koc Esq., The Meyer Law Firm, 4435 Main Street Ste. 503, Kansas City, Missouri 64111, (816) 280-4125; Patrick G. Reavey Esq., Reavey Law Firm LLC, 1600 Genessee Ste. 303, Kansas City, Missouri 64102, (816) 474-6300.
